Incredible Shows Uploaded on VNN Today! (9-04-10)

Hello all, I just uploaded today's incredible shows to the archives at:
<http://VortexNetworkNews.com>

I was just blown away with the a two hour interview with our special guest, John Moore. John is ex-military and a retired homicide detective and has special connections to the "Black-op" world. The Government is no doubt prepared for what is about to face humanity head-on in the next couple of years! He also passed along a rather shocking and frightening thermal map of the North Atlantic showing the Gulf Stream has completely stopped! This spells a monumental disaster this winter for the UK and other neighboring countries.

In addition, John spoke about an ancient orbiting satellite called "The Black Knight," which apparently was built by a previously advanced civilization thousands of years ago and discovered during the Sputnik era back in the late '50s and early '60s.

Enjoy!
