

Part 1) Bible Prophecy: One-World Tyranny Deciphered

"Conscience is God's Word written on our hearts," urging us to guide "those who have ears to hear" to the light shaft of escape from that prophesied "hour of great tribulation that will come upon all the world." Also, conscience is God urging you and me to trustingly listen for His "still small voice" that shows you "the Way, the Truth, and the Life," as you guide your spiritually hungry brothers and sisters of "every nation, kindred, and tongue." Tell them to start meditating daily to sense God's presence, so that they can follow, not you, but the true rescuer, our Creator, our Saviour, who can supernaturally save them from the great storms, earthquakes, and volcanic eruptions which those who "watch and pray" see growing to a crescendo through the next several years.

This is no accident, that our Earth is increasingly convulsing. Rather, it is through these coming cataclysms that God's Bible declares that He intends to scour from the Earth those bloody rulers and their followers whom He symbolically calls "scum" in The Book of EZEKIEL, Chapter 24. Before we can understand this prophecy, we should seek evidence to show that God Himself -- not His prophets -- is the Person who decrees global cataclysms, reserved for a future period called "the end time," "the latter days," and "the day of the Lord." The following exhibits of evidence are among many contained in the book titled "The Holy Bible."

Twenty-six centuries ago, a Judean named Daniel wrote a compilation of thoughts and visions which he claimed were imparted to his mind by God. Some of these prophecies are so astoundingly accurate that honest reasoning must credit these prophecies to God alone. In Daniel's Book of The Bible, Chapter 7, he recounts such supernatural visions as the births of the world's great empires, twenty-two through twenty-six centuries in advance of his day. During one frightful, fitful night's sleep, around the year 580 B.C., Daniel received and recorded the following visions.

The first beastly predatory empire was symbolically shown to Daniel as a Lion [the symbol of the British Empire]. In the 17th century A.D., the fleet British fleet met and defeated the Spanish armada, thus catapulting the British Empire to military supremacy over the nations of Europe.

The next vision in Daniel's dream was that of Eagle's wings growing out of the Lion's back. Daniel recounts that he watched as the Eagle's wings were plucked and {here I insert the word} "thus" the Lion was made to stand upright upon his hind legs "as a man," the way a man stands. Reference Bibles translate that originally Hebrew or Chaldean language verse as:

. . . the Eagle's wings were plucked, ||wherewith|| the Lion was lifted up above the earth and made to stand upon the feet as a man.

. . . This reference Bible clarification shows that the attached Eagle's wings [America] exerted the force that uplifts the Lion [Britain]. Every Bible prophesy analyst of whom I know mistakenly believes that these Eagle's wings are plucked off, whereas, prayerful discernment and knowledge of true history reveals that the wings are plucked up by the Hand of God to elevate both America and its bonded cousin, Great Britain, to dual rulership over the World.

Knowledgeable historians realize that the Anglo-American power combine has prevailed continuously since the Revolutionary War. God prophesies based upon true history, not upon the couched lies of our school textbooks. Clearly, the Lion stands upright because the uplifting wings are hoisting up the Lion's upper body. It should be quite obvious that the Lion would not stand upright as a result of the wings being separated from its back.

Daniel continues with his supernatural vision, writing that the heart of a man was given to the Lion. Herein, God is revealing the deeper truth, regarding the evil heart of man, which is that this Anglo-American empire duplicitously and treacherously promotes itself as the altruistic deliverer of Christianity to the weaker nations which it colonizes, whereas the converse truth is that, throughout its rule, this combined Anglo-American empire's true intent and purpose was to bleed from third world peoples their natural resources and slave labor.

Why does the Bible portray the heart of a man as symbolizing duplicity and treachery, rather than love, as society's Valentine's heart commonly symbolizes? It is because Daniel's vision is not coming from the shallow mind of Daniel, but from the unfathomable Mind of the One who created us. And so, God gives the answer to the second question through another one of His press secretaries, the Judean prophet, JEREMIAH, in Chapter 17:

"The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the Lord search the heart, I try the reins {our thoughts, that is}, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings."

However, the heart of the common man does not know the levels of evil into which the unelected undeclared de facto rulers of the Anglo-American Empire have descended. The most egregious duplicity and treachery ever concealed has come from the hearts of a monolithic gang of Satan-worshipping shadow rulers who have usurped the power of the apathetic willfully ignorant peoples of the United States, Great Britain, and Israel.

"Shadow rulers" . . . "shadow government" . . . Let us remember that word, "shadow" because we will see its centrality in the mysterious symbolism of other beastly empires, yet to be examined in DANIEL, Chapter 7, and in The Book of {Jesus's} REVELATION, Chapter 13.

In seeking the answer to the first question: Why is "a man's heart" given to the Anglo-American empire's shadow rulers -- notice that the verse is not worded "man's heart," but "a man's heart." Notice also, that the term "a man" is used in a similar context, in The Book of REVELATION, Chapter 13:

18 "Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six."

These two diverse verses converge, connotatively, to indicate that there is some powerful man whose existence spans the centuries between the founding of the United States and the yet-to-emerge One-World tyranny! This man is immortal, and he has the superhuman power to control the fledgling Anglo-American empire, and centuries later, the future One-World tyranny. REVELATION 13 reads that "the beast" is the global empire which "receives its power from the dragon [Satan, the Devil], and yet, the number of this "beast" empire "is the number of a man -- 666."

There is another clue, the Bible term "son of perdition."

From Wikipedia.org: "The Son of Perdition is a phrase associated with a demoniacal title that appears {twice} in the New Testament."

Firstly, in The Book of II Thessalonians, Chapter 2:

1 "Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him,"

2 "That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand."

3 "Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition "

4 "Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God."

So, it appears that the "heart of a man," given to "the Lion," is allowed, by God, to be the quintessential heart of evil, the heart of Satan the Devil, operating vicariously through the men atop the world's pyramid of power -- the men who have actually "sold their souls to the Devil," the Devil whom they firmly believe rules this world. Although many readers refuse to believe this, their unbelief is irrelevant, because the self-proclaimed Satan-worshippers [of Albert Pike's masonic book, "Morals and Dogma"] are running and ruining the lives of those millions of skeptics. The historical Grand Sovereign Commander of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, Albert Pike, has declared that freemasons worship Lucifer as goD, as do freemasonic Skull&Bones Society members G.H.W. Bush, G.W. Bush, John Kerry, and many other power holders.

David J. Smith has presented excellent in-depth speeches on this subject, recordings of which are still available at NewsWatchMagazine.org.

From its inception, the Anglo-American empire has always been under the secret control of Satan-worshippers, united from 1776, at the simultaneous founding of the diabolical Illuminati, and the issuance of the Declaration of Independence. In cryptic collusion with the Illuminati is their fraternal secret society, the Freemasons, and its American spin-off, the Skull and Bones secret satanic society, headquartered in "the Tomb" at Yale University. Dupliciously, Satan's representative, President (and Director of Central Intelligence) George Herbert Walker Bush, has stated that he has been "born again," a term co-opted from Saint John's Gospel by Skull and Bones initiates who claim they have been born again, following a coffin-sleeping ritual, into the Devil's possession.
