

~~ TV Star in Panic > Sept. Collapse, Elite Descending Underground

Before the end of 2015, how could most of the people in the Western nations suffer from dehydration, malnutrition, viral and bacterial infections, hypothermia, and life-threatening pulmonary congestion?

A New York morning television personality is in panic, and has contacted a supplier of survival products, wanting to buy up his entire inventory, and wanting to send a truck to load it all up. Both the TV personality and the supplier must remain anonymous, because they might be silenced by the elite who are now feverishly preparing to descend into their elaborate underground cities.

My thanks to the following sources for portions of this information: LisaHavenNews, SgtReport, and TheUndergroundWorldNews.

"This is a person who is on television every morning. This person was in kind of a panic state, and wanted to buy pretty much everything that we have in our store -- and I told him he couldn't do that, and he got very upset and hung up on me. About twenty minutes later, he called me back and he apologized, and he placed a huge order. He wanted to know if he could send a truck to pick it up. And I said, no, you can't do that. It's not even built yet. There's at least a two week waiting list . . . This person is connected with the Wall Street elite . . . the financial elite are buying everything they can get their hands on that is survival-related. . . . you know, we're running out of time. This is something that I'm convinced can't be avoided. . . . the wealthy elite are robbing everything they can get their hands on before it all collapses. . . . What happens when the power goes out? Well, we simply do not have much more time! These are the things that the secretive elite are storing: You have to have food and water. You have to be able to generate at least a modest amount of electricity. You must find a way to keep your family warm!! I mean, that is the most important need, right there. And you have to be prepared to protect your family, at all costs! Those are the things that these insiders are doing. I talk with them every day; I deal with them every day, so I know that this is what they're doing . . . . These bunkers and safe houses of the insiders are dotted all over the United States. This has been an ongoing project of theirs . . . I don't want to scare people, but, based on what I know from dealing with these people -- something awful is coming -- based on what I know from the people I talk to, it is imminent, and I just wanted to make sure that I am able to convey that to the American people. This is what the elite people are preparing for, and you should be doing it, too. . . . I'm being told that when all their preparations are completed and they are protected, that's when they will pull the plug. . . . I'm being told that the markets will go into permanent circuit-breaker. Also, I'm being told that it will be a grid-down event where people will have to fend for themselves, and the cities will basically revert into chaos. The people who are communicating this information to me are people in the government, professional athletes, financial people . . . some of them have offered to employ me after this chaotic event occurs. "

JD:

Finally, you can begin to believe what I have often posted over the past ten years: that this Incoming Dwarf Star is the New World Order's Pedal-to-the-Metal.

Finally, you have the puzzle pieces to figure out why the global ruling elite have been in this 14-Year frenzy to topple sovereign governments and install global tyranny -- their infamous "One-World Government," because the elite have been told by NASA's scientists that there is an incoming dwarf star which has been gravitationally detected by astronomers for nearly two centuries [see my photocopy of The landmark New York Times article:

"Clues Get Warm in the Search for Planet X"];

the global ruling elite have also been told by NASA that the Sun's great gravitational force field has, for all this time, been pulling in this dwarf star from deep space, and that this incoming dwarf star has (naturally) gravitationally captured many thousands of comets, asteroids, and meteors along its journey in from deep space. among this incoming celestial bee swarm are comets, which electrically excite the Sun to flare out electricity and electromagnetics which will, and are, provoking earthquakes (I'll explain how that happens later);

. . . and because the global ruling elite have been told by NASA scientists that comets among this incoming celestial bee swarm of asteroids and meteors are provoking the Sun to spew out waves of electrified particles and electromagnetic energy, both of which are disturbing Earth's magnetosphere, which, in turn, induces core disturbances which, in turn, energize magma within Earth's mantle, thus provoking volcanoes to erupt;

. . . and because the global elite have been told by NASA scientists that this dense incoming bee swarm of asteroids and meteors are increasing the statistical likelihood that a meteorite strike will occur, causing tsunamis.

So, the global ruling elite foresee earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, meteorite-causing tsunamis -- and they see that all of these calamities will jerk their control over the World's masses out of their greedy grip, as these earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, meteorite strikes, and tsunamis fracture and fragment the Globe's delicate interdependent infrastructural systems, thus terminating:

Seaport deliveries, Highway deliveries, Satellite Control of Commerce, the Precarious Power Grid (without which all of our life-sustaining processes suddenly cease).

It is because the global ruling elite have known that celestial cannonballs are incoming, causing them to take over the Ukraine, Syria, Libya, Afghanistan, Iraq, and now they are deliberately provoking Russia to war; they have just struck China's key seaport, Tianjin, with sky weapons, thus forcing China to retaliate, which China has not yet done -- but that nation which has recently threatened to nuke Los Angeles may retaliate. I have often stated that the diabolical ruling elite actually want thermonuclear war, according to renegade C.I.A. operative Dr. Susan Arrigo. They have the secret technology to neutralize radioactive fallout, at least in their intended One-World Government headquarters sector of the Globe. If you did not hear all this on the Alex Jones Show, it is because Alex is under threat, a fact to which he has often alluded.

[Video and Audio evidence appended at the end of this report]

The celestial beehive that is gravitationally dragging in this bee swarm of asteroids and meteors from deep space was sighted in 1983 by N.A.S.A.'s Infrared Astronomical Satellite; then the NSA ordered NASA to squelch all further reports of this object. World-class astronomer Dr. Robert S. Harrington, chief astronomer of the United States Naval Observatory in Washington, D.C. was about to announce his 1991 sighting and that this dwarf star is being gravitationally pulled in by our Sun's great gravitational force field when he suddenly and mysteriously died. Our Solar System is so vast that one finds it incredible to believe that a Sun-drawn dwarf star could take decades to travel through our Solar System, especially when the layman does not understand the physics of deceleration of a smaller mass that has been accelerated in by the gravitational pull of a much larger stationary mass, and then overshoots that much larger mass being sucked in by a much larger mass, then overshooting that much larger mass, then being pulled back by that much larger mass in an overall loop-around that much larger mass (our Sun). But now this Sun-sucked dwarf star's vast surrounding bee swarm of comets, asteroids and meteors is nearing our inner Solar System, and NASA and the global elite of the world are in a panic. They have known of this threat for decades, and have carved out vast elaborate underground cities, into which they are now descending. Do a Queen Elizabeth search and you will find that the British Royal Family are coincidentally vacating Buckingham Palace. Oh, I see -- they're doing repairs. There are not enough rooms within the 120-room palace in which to house the Royal Family while repairs are done. Yet, radio talk show host Alex Merklinger told me that the British Royal Family has purchased large tracts of land near Crestone, Colorado. The underground city is located in Colorado. JD

The WASHINGTON POST:

The U.S. Government's National Aeronautics and Space Administration (N.A.S.A.) excitedly announces the discovery of Planet X, which they then deceitfully call "a mystery body," after previously calling this object "the long sought Planet X" eleven months earlier in a landmark NEW YORK TIMES report heralding the launch of N.A.S.A.'s Infrared Astronomical Satellite. N.A.S.A.'s I.R.A.S., they stated, was built and launched with the specific mission of sighting that infrared light-emitting brown dwarf star which Dr. Harrington and others called "Planet X." Astronomers estimate brown dwarf stars to be as massive as one thousand Earth-masses, as a minimum estimation. JD

Part 9)

The third largest news magazine in the United States, U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT, reports that N.A.S.A.'s Infrared Astronomical Satellite successfully sighted the brown dwarf star which was causing perturbations in the orbits of Uranus and Neptune, noticed since the early 1800s. This brown dwarf star had been named "Planet X" in 1910 by astronomer Percival Lowell, and N.A.S.A. had published a document in the late 1980s by Dr. Robert S. Harrington, chief astronomer of the United States Naval Observatory, titled: "The Search for Planet X."

Finally, the discovery of what The NEW YORK TIMES called, "the long sought Planet X" is herein reported in US News & World Report.
