

What's Ailing America?

PACIFICISM IN THE FACE OF EXPANDING EVIL

While JB Campbell and I continue to try to find an internet radio station which will allow us to continue our show "Why we need an American Defense Party" [<http://www.americandefenseparty.com>] without censorship, I am a guest on a regular basis on many other shows and call in conferences all over the world. It is self evident that Americans, in general, are the most brain dead people on the planet as to what is going on here in hell, and who the psychopaths are that are responsible. Even if they are somewhat aware, they are praying for their predators, writing petitions to their traitors in the district of criminals, continuing the same insane practices which have changed nothing. It is disgusting beyond words.

This reality was brought home to me big time last week when I participated in a call in show based in NYC where people were gathered in protest against genocidal/Bilderberg Mayor Bloomberg's last act as mayor...forcing preschoolers to be inoculated with the bioweapon flu vaccines to attend preschool [<http://www.thehealthyhomeeconomist.com/new-york-city-seeks-mandatory-flu-jabs-for-preschoolers>]. On this site you will learn that children already get "88 doses of diseases by the age of 5 in New York City. This is far higher than the immunization schedule recommended by the Centers for Disease Control where the number of vaccines totals 68 by age 11-12."

Bloomberg's mandatory flu shot proposal was on the Board of Health's October 23, 2013 agenda which many from the public attended to protest. A total dog and pony show, as the entire Board of Health is made up of Bloomberg appointees. As I knew would happen, the measure was passed. NJ has since followed suit [<http://www.medicalnewstoday.com/articles/91356.php>]. This, despite the fact that reports keep coming in of serious side effects or death from the flu vaccine, such as <http://2012thebigpicture.wordpress.com/2013/12/09/23-seniors-died-after-receiving-this-years-flu-shot-sold-by-pharmacies>

The call in show I participated in a week ago was amazing in that these people were "outraged" that their participation in the NYC Board of health hearing/dog and pony show had been ignored. I was shocked that they actually beLIEved that the public hearing would accomplish anything. Especially when the solution is so simple...JUST SAY NO! Don't send your children to these daycare centers/schools. Home school them if you love them! Otherwise, you will reap death and destruction by bioweapon vaccines. Your children's genetic structure will be altered. Sacrificing your children to the vaccine gods is PURE EVIL. There is NO EXCUSE for doing this. As usually happens when I do shows, I brought up many other aspects of the big picture of evil that is destroying everything that matters. Crimes against humanity beyond comprehension to most. However, this group was not surprised by anything I had to say. They knew about chemtrails, fluoride, pesticides, aspartame, etc. What they DIDN'T get is that the psychopaths behind the depopulation agenda only hold hearings to pretend they give a crap about what the public has to say. That's why we need an American Defense Party! The most amazing moment for me was at the end of the call, when one of the participants wished me a merry Christmas

(here in hell). When you know you are being intentionally killed and maimed, what is there to be merry about? These are meaningless words that mean absolutely nothing. I suggest that all who read this newsletter do something that matters for their children instead of going broke buying toys. Get them out of public schools...find a home school coop in your area. Teach them TRUTH, which will never happen in public schools. How can they protect themselves if they don't know what is really going on? Know what they are involved in, since Obama is now offering NSA jobs to high school seniors:
http://www.blacklistednews.com/Obama_Offers_High_School_Seniors_%2430%2C000%2B_to_Snoop_for_NSA/31146/0/0/0/Y/M.html . Imagine having a young spook living under your roof!

The most important freedom we have is the freedom to THINK. Mind control is one of the most pervasive atrocities we face, as well as technologies to actually decrease our moral compass. If you have not yet checked out www.stopthecrime.net , you can spend a week there reading actual documents that reveal many technologies being used for mind control and depopulation. Of course, vaccinations are also involved; the book "Vaccinations, Social Violence & Criminality" by Harris Coulter, PhD has massive documentation of how vaccine damage in the part of the brain that controls behavior can create violent bullies and even serial killers. Add a little rabies virus to the witch's brew, and you create a cannibalistic monster. As I have mentioned before, MIT has actually done a study on how to disrupt one's moral compass with magnets - <http://courses.csail.mit.edu/6.803/pdf/saxe.pdf> . One has to wonder the effect on all who have had a brain MRI. You can be sure the "informed consent" these patients receive make no mention of the fact that the magnetic pulses alter their ability to make moral judgments.

And once your ability to make moral judgments has been wiped out, the scientific psychopaths are developing ways to wipe your conscience clean. While I still lived in NY, in 2003 the Village Voice published an article on "The Guilt Free Soldier" which you can access at <http://www.historyhaven.com/TOK/guilt%20free%20soldier.htm> . It discussed how nobel laureate Eric Kandel had been studying "the genetic aspects of fear". Dr. Roger Pitman of Harvard studies the effects of Propranolol in reversing PTSD. Maybe you didn't know that this drug (a beta blocker also called Inderal used to "treat" high blood pressure) also altered your brain? Interestingly, they discussed how the victims of trauma as well as the perpetrators of the trauma could both be "treated" to alter their memories of what had occurred. One of the side effects of Propranolol listed in the Physicians Desk Reference is "disorientation for time & place & short term memory loss". I suggest all of you popping any pharmaceutical pill put the name of your drug – side effects into any search engine, and read for yourself what big pharma admits to. Most drugs have mental/memory/psychiatric side effects.

It is very interesting how many experiments are being done to take away the human's normal response to enduring or committing torture. Enter MIT once again with the insane idea of a vaccine for post traumatic stress disorder by blocking a stress hormone produced by the stomach called ghrelin: <http://www.myfoxdc.com/story/24202293/mit-researchers-discover-possible-vaccine-for-post-traumatic-stress-disorder#axzz2nYKTziqw>

And then there is now the capability to remotely control humans via the internet: <http://www.pakalertpress.com/2013/08/29/remote-controlled-humans-via-internet-now-a-reality> . "The Internet was a way to connect computers, and now it can be a way to connect brains," said researcher Andrea Stocco".

“We recently reported on the release of a secret DARPA mind control program at Arizona State University [where Janet Napolitano now resides!]. Part of that research was focused specifically on the attempt to replicate through language the same results obtained with Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation, which is a way to directly control movements, speech, and one’s perception of reality via electromagnetic waves aimed at the cerebral cortex. Julie Beal also reported on DARPA’s solicitation for portable brain recorders that could eventually be used in every classroom in America. Clearly there is a will to put research into action.” [ANOTHER REASON TO GET YOUR CHILDREN OUT OF THESE SCHOOLS].

“So far, the ability to remote control an object from a distance with the mind alone has been limited to video games, drones, and the above-mentioned mouse. However, as you can see in the video below, a human-to-human remote link has been established. A researcher was able to control the hand movements of a person jacked in to the “brain net” in a completely different building “ (thus the cyborgs hooked into the “hive” on Star Trek is now a reality).

There will be no newsletter next week due to the Christmas holidays. I am sure most of you will do a mind wipe and pretend you have something to celebrate, putting all the reality I discuss every week out of your minds, just as your psychopathic puppetmasters want you to do. Maybe a few of you will instead decide to help spread the truth, so we can stop the extinction of the human race and the planet. Until then, there will be no happy new year for humanity.
