

Amended Pledge of Allegiance

I Pledge Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, One Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

And now, we deconstruct...

Please have your spoons and knives to one side and your salad forks and pitchforks to the other, we must observe proper etiquette at all times...

<http://oldtimeislands.org/pledge/pledge.htm>

First we see that this did NOT start as a government-originated or sanctioned function. It was inserted as a suggestion by a SOCIALIST CHRISTIAN.

This is not an oxymoron if you study the early christian church that operated as a commune.

Next we see that the wording was changed several times.

We also see that it was forced on children since they would be less likely to resist something that they did not understand or did not agree with.

Let us pick apart this fraud word by word:

I pledge –

Let's see what Mr. Black of Black's Law Dictionary, Edition 2, 1910 has to say about this:

PLEDGE. In the law of bailment A bailment of goods to a creditor as security for some debt or engagement A bailment or delivery of goods by a debtor to his creditor, to be kept till the debt be discharged. Story, Bailm. § 7; Civ. Code La. art 3133; 2 Kent Comm. 577; Stearns v. Marsh, 4 Denio (N. Y.) 229, 47 Am. Dec. 248; Sheridan v. Presas, 18 Misc. Rep. 180, 41 N. Y. Supp. 451; Bank of Rochester v. Jones, 4 N. Y. 507, 55 Am. Dec. 290; Eastman v. Avery, 23 Me. 250; Belden v. Perldns, 78 111. 452; Wilcox v. Jackson, 7 Colo. 521, 4 Pac. 966; Gloucester Bank v. Worcester, 10 Pick. (Mass.) 531; Lillienthal v. Ballou, 125 Cal. 183, 57 Pac. 897.

Pledge is a deposit of personal property by way of security for the performance of another act. Civ. Code Cal. § 2986. The specific article delivered to the creditor in security is also called a "pledge" or "pawn." There is a clear distinction between mortgages and pledges. In a pledge the legal title remains in the pledgor; in a mortgage it passes to the mortgagee. In a mortgage the mortgagee need not have possession; in a pledge the pledgee must have possession, though it be only constructive. In a mortgage, at common law, the property on non-payment of the debt passes wholly to the mortgagee; in a pledge the property is sold, and only so much of the proceeds as will pay his debt passes to the pledgee. A mortgage is a conditional conveyance of property, which becomes absolute unless redeemed at a specified time. A pledge is not strictly a conveyance at all, nor need any day of redemption be appointed for it. A mortgagee can sell and deliver the thing mortgaged, subject only to the right of redemption. A pledgee cannot sell and deliver his pawn until the debt is due and payment denied. Bouvier.

There are two varieties of the contract of pledge known to the law of Louisiana, viz., pawn and antichresis; the former relating to chattel securities, the latter to landed securities. See Civ. Code La. art 3101; an*

see those titles.

—Pledges of prosecution. In old English law. No person could prosecute a civil action without having in the first stage of it two or more persons as pledges of prosecution; and; if judgment was given against the plaintiff, or he deserted his suit, both he and his pledges were liable to amercement to the king pro falso clamore. In the course of time, however, these pledges were disused, and the names of fictitious persons substituted for them, two ideal persons, John Doe and Richard Roe, having become the common pledges of every suitor; and now the use of such pledges is altogether discontinued. Brown.—Pledges to restore. In England, before the plaintiff in foreign attachment can issue execution against the property in the hands of the garnishee, he must find "pledges to restore," consisting of two householders, who enter into a recognizance for the restoration of the property, as a security for the protection of the defendant; for, as the plaintiff's debt is not proved in any stage of the proceedings, the court guards the rights of the absent defendant by taking security on his behalf, so that if he should afterwards disprove the plaintiff's claim he may obtain restitution of the property attached. Brand. For. Attachm.93; Sweet.

OK, are you still ready to 'pledge'?

Allegiance –

ALLEGIANCE. By allegiance is meant the obligation of fidelity and obedience which the individual owes to the government under which he lives, or to his sovereign in return for the protection he receives.

It may be an absolute and permanent obligation, or it may be a qualified and temporary one. The citizen or subject owes an absolute and permanent allegiance to his government or sovereign, or at least until, by some open and distinct act, he renounces it and becomes a citizen or subject of another government or another sovereign. The alien, while domiciled in the country, owes a local and temporary allegiance, which continues during the period of his residence. Carlisle v. U. S., 16 Wall. 154, 21 L. Ed.426; Jackson v. Goodell, 20 Johns. (N. Y.) 191; U. S. v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U. S. 649, 18 Sup. Ct 456, 42 L. Ed. 890; Wallace v. Harmstad, 44 Pa. 501. "The tie or ligamen which binds the subject [or citizen] to the king [or government in return for that protection which the king [or government] affords the subject, [or citizen.]" 1 Bl. Comm. 366. It consists in "a true and faithful obedience of the subject due to his sovereign." 7 Coke, 4&. Allegiance is the obligation of fidelity and obedience which every citizen owes to the state. Pol. Code Cal. § 55. In Norman French. Alleviation; relief; redress. Kelham.

—Local allegiance. That measure of obedience which is due from a subject of one government to another government, within whose territory he is temporarily resident.—Natural allegiance.

In English law. That kind of allegiance which is due from all men born within the king's dominions, immediately upon their birth, which is intrinsic and perpetual, and cannot be divested by any act of their own. 1 Bl. Comm. 369; 2 Kent, Omni. 42. In American law. The allegiance due from citizens of the United States to their native country, and also from naturalized citizens, and which cannot be renounced without the permission of government, to be declared by law. 2 Kent, Comm. 43–49. It differs from local allegiance, which is temporary only, being due from an alien or stranger born for so long a time as he continues within the sovereign's dominions and protection. Fost. Cr. Law, 184.

The topic of Allegiance is the same as that as Fealty from the Dark Ages. They weren't called Dark for nothing. This is when Science was put in the torture chamber and Faith ruled everything. Yeah. That worked well. I have written many times and will continue to do so until you 'get' it that Hu-Man is the servant of the Feudal Lord Hu.

FEALTY. In feudal law. Fidelity; allegiance to the feudal lord of the manor; the feudal obligation resting upon the tenant or vassal by which he was bound to be faithful and true to his lord, and render him obedience and service. See De Peyster v. Michael, 6 N. Y. 497, 57 Am. Dec. 470. Fealty signifies fidelity, the phrase "feal and leal" meaning simply "faithful and loyal." Tenants by knights' service and also tenants in socage were required to take an oath of fealty to the king or others, their immediate lords; and fealty was one of the conditions of their tenure, the breach of which operated a forfeiture of their estates. Brown. Although foreign jurists consider fealty and homage as convertible terms, because in some continental countries they are blended so as to form one engagement, yet they are not to be confounded in our country, for they do not imply the same thing, homage being the acknowledgment of tenure, and fealty, the vassal oath of fidelity, being the essential feudal bond, and the animating principle of a feud, without which it could not subsist Wharton.

And I couldn't resist because this was the definition that IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWED FEALTY!

FEAR. Apprehension of harm. Apprehension of harm or punishment, as exhibited by outward and visible marks of emotion. An evidence of guilt In certain cases. See Burrill, Circ. Ev. 476.

FEUD. In feudal law. An estate in land held of a superior on condition of rendering him services. 2 Bl. Comm. 105. An inheritable right to the use and occupation of lands, held on condition of rendering services to the lord or proprietor, who himself retains the property in the lands. See Spel. Feuds, c. 1. In this sense the word is the same as "feod," "feodum," "feudum," "fief," or "fee."

So what we are looking at is that is a condition that Your Land as a TENANT just as it appears on the CERTIFICATE of Deed that you were tricked into signing BELONGS to the Monarch of England and you are just using it as long as you don't piss him or her off.

Makes you wonder what a Blood Feud means – not really, it is probably opposite of what you were led to believe. It probably means land that belongs to the monarch's family as opposed to a bloody combat among family although these reptiles do kill each other for sport and money.

BUT WE HAVEN'T EVEN GOTTEN PAST THE FIRST THREE WORDS!

to The –

As we see from the link the original was 'My'. My is a possessive personal pronoun that conveys some ownership or investment in the proposition at hand. 'The' is simply a way of separating the oath taker from the object of which they are swearing to. We know from 'case law' (an oxymoron since courts and the judiciary cannot make law, it is a function given only to the Sanhedrin masquerading as congress) that you are NOT PARTY TO THE CONSTITUTION. Padelford Fay & co. v. The mayor and Alderman of the City of Savannah 14 Georgia 438, 520. So, then it begs the question why you would swear to a thing that is not yours (my flag) but that of an outside agency in which you have NO VESTED INTEREST!

Flag –

To a flag? To a freaking flag? Haven't you ever asked yourself why you would Pledge Allegiance to a piece of cloth? Which flag? Have you ever paid attention in public situations when they issue the pledge whether the flag has the gold fringe of the Admiralty and Martial Law? YOU ARE PLEDGING TO WHATEVER FLAG IS IN FRONT OF YOU.

Which flag? or Witch Flag? George Washington (a Freemason) and Betsy Ross were sitting around hashing out what they were going to do for a flag and they couldn't think of anything. She asked what his family crest design was and he said the Stars and Stripes so that is what they organized. Now, as you know, the occultic symbolism is rampant from the THIRTEEN to the choice of star patterns. Now, you can make a star from 4 to as many points as you want but they chose FIVE the sign of the Pentagram with 5 being the Number of Death in Satanism.

So what we have here is that you open with pledging your allegiance (SWEARING FEALTY) to a scrap of cloth that REPRESENTS SOMETHING. Go back to my paper: George's Scrap to see just what the Trap of REPRESENTATION becomes.

of the United States of America –

Well, that sounds inert. But we really don't know what that means: the land mass? the buildings? the government? the People? At least it wasn't the united states, United states, united States or any other corporate Bait and Switch at this point...

and to the Republic for which it stands –

...until this point where the other shoe drops and you see that First you have sworn fealty to a scrap of cloth that REPRESENTS a REPUBLIC that is the ROMAN FORM OF GOVERNMENT BASED ON REPRESENTATION!

Wow. Talk about Faberge eggs and nested Russian Dolls. You just swore fealty to a scrap of cloth that represents a republic that is ruled by Representatives. Talk about Limited Liability Corporations. There is more insulation here than in your attic.

one nation under God –

I don't have the time or resources to find out if they spelled the word: God in the corporate manner that they did in the Bible and in secular works throughout the 1800s: GOD.

GOD (which by the way is the Babylonian Deity of Luck and Good Fortune) is no stranger to the U.S. corporation. IN GOD WE TRUST is on MONEY. All Capital Letters, folks. Haven't had time to see David-Wynn: Miller's instruction videos, but the general impression I get is that GOD has ten days to respond to the contract that his name was written in all-caps meaning that he is DEAD. After that, I guess he has to pay taxes and take it like a Man in court. But let us examine this concept in light of some other material that another valued listmember has been sending me. We know that a birth certificate, marriage license, death certificates, judges bonds, and other 'devices' are traded like securities and some of these appear as Trust accounts. So, IT REALLY BEGS THE QUESTION WHAT THE WORD: TRUST means. Is this corporate entity, Maximus Capitis Minimus, strawman GOD-Thing and entity or fictitious account? Wouldn't you like the Secret Swiss number to that vault?

A listmember dug up this from the NSA-construct called Wikipedia and added personal comments:

Ok, now isn't this interesting, Eugene Rostow was the individual credited with adding the "under God" to the Pledge of Allegiance.

Eugene V. Rostow

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Eugene V. (Victor Debs) Rostow (August 25, 1913 – November 25, 2002), influential legal scholar and public servant, was Dean of Yale Law School, and served as Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs under President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Early life

Rostow was born on 25 August 1913 in Brooklyn, New York, a grandson of poor Jewish immigrants from the Russian Empire, and raised in Irvington, New Jersey, and New Haven, Connecticut. His parents were active socialists and their three sons, Eugene Victor Debs Rostow, Ralph Waldo Emerson Rostow and Walt Whitman Rostow, were named after Eugene V. Debs, Ralph Waldo Emerson, and Walt Whitman.

Could we again be seeing the hand of the Sionists outstretching their hands even to this? But of course, have to keep the masses pledging themselves into servitude to their Master don't you know.

They also provided this link:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pledge_of_Allegiance

yet, despite the NSA construct of Wiki, your attention needs to be focused on the two hand positions of the first two pictures of school kids doing The Pledge that are the starting and ending postures of the Nazi Salute. Are you freaking kidding me?

From Wikipedia: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Nazi_salute and http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Roman_salute

But again: which god? Or more precisely Witch God. Because any religious person will be quick to vomit out that there is ONLY ONE GOD. And I tend to agree. In fact, I was so struck by the surety of the Muslim faith that There is no God but God, that it led me down the path to see that ALL religions through ALL time were based on Ancient Babylonian Witchcraft so the Androgyne Pair that represents this murderous psychopath is indeed one entity throughout history and EVERYBODY worships he/she/it/them.

So, just as the link above demonstrates, this declaration went from a secular statement to a public prayer with the use of one word that was jacked in there by a Knight of Columbus. Columbus, of course being a slave-trading Knights Templar Pirate. Thank you Professor Timothy Watson!

But let's revisit the One Nation bit in light of what we recently learned about the Lakota Nation breaking away from the tyranny that is the British Monarchy. There were MANY treaties with MANY Nations within the continental USA that were existing, albeit in FEMA camps called Reservations, within this supposedly ONE nation. Now whenever you hear the words that Lincoln (descended of the Historical Dracula) vomited like Union, etc. you can bet that it is the Sumerian Overlord Dialectic that the christians mumble about One World Government. As if it were something to be dreaded in the Future. IT HAS ALWAYS BEEN THEIR PATTERN AND GOAL AND THEY HAVE NEVER DEVIATED. The Constitution to Form a More Perfect Union was just the implementation of Centralized Herd Control that I outlined in my book ICD-999. THERE IS NOTHING WRONG WITH DISPARATE CULTURES EXISTING PEACEFULLY SIDE BY SIDE. Just like in Europe. Their economies were relatively vibrant even though they had different currencies, exchange rates and you had to change wheels on trains when going from one border to another. Great for stopping invasions. Analysts say that things started to go to Hell with the start of the European Union.

Let's examine the overused phrase: Divide and Conquer. In Satanism, Good is Evil and Evil is Good. This is one of the root origins of what I call Opposite Day. But you will see even in the ancient Chinese Martial Arts traditions the concepts of Reversals. It is said that if you want to uproot a tree you do not try to pull it up because it is too difficult. To uproot a tree you must first push it down. This is the very technique that bulldozer and front-end loader operators tell me that they use when they remove trees. They put their blades as high as they will go and push the tree down and the roots come up. Europe was already very well divided. But this diversity was its strength. I have already warned you that the New World Order Vomit Words of Strengths and Weaknesses are a Master Template that the Sumerian Overlords use for controlling social situations. Since Europe was strong as separate entities they turned it into a Union and then the powerbrokers could get control over the whole, whereas it would be harder to do it a country at a time. Strength of separate becomes Weakness in union. Unless it is Divide and Conquer then it is a reversal. Just a matter of manipulation. EXACTLY like the example that Ron our fellow listmember gave during the 06/12/2010 show when he said that the Battle of Little Big Horn was the greatest victory of the tribes but was spun by the marauding invaders as a terrible threat that needed to be eliminated so their victory was Opposite-Dayed into a weakness.

This is how these creatures work. The Challenge that Custer faced and lost became an Opportunity to turn that Weakness into a Strength of the Group Mind against the Victors. These highlighted words are CORE programming phrases and concepts that go back 6000 years of People Herding. NEVER forget that Florida extension service publication that showed the Flight and Maneuvering Zones of cattle. They have had 6 millennia to turn this into a science.

Yeah? Ask the Lakota. Let's see how indivisible this artificial corporate construct might be when the British Monarchy has to answer for their Crimes Against Humanity in the greatest global fraud of all times.

with liberty –

just as someone showed us earlier, to be at Liberty is the same as a navy man on a ship being ALLOWED to go ashore just as long as they come back. That is a FAR CRY FROM FREEDOM, a word that was NOT chosen to be used in its place.

and justice –

Isn't that where we started this Sad Journey? First examining religion that had NO ANSWERS to the World's Woes; that led us to the alternative religion of the Constitution which is just a scrap of paper in an artificial corporate construct; that led us to the Judiciary that is nothing but a Checks and Balances system for the Crimes committed by the other branches of the Corporate Enforcement Officers. To our experience and understanding this sounds more like INFLICTING their brand of Justice on us rather than facilitating Free men and women to seek and achieve equality.

Not really nitpicking semantics here: All...what? If you are going to enter into a pledge, then the Terms and Conditions of the Contract should be spelled out in detail. We know that We The People doesn't have a damned thing to do with the Hu-Mans that Ballantine's defines by "See: Monster." So who in Hell are ALL? All what? Monsters that are Hu-Mans? Illuminati that think they alone are People? Citizens of the Roman Republic? All of the world? After all the World's Most Powerful Nation seems to be violating sovereignty everywhere kicking ass and neglecting to take names because they don't want any records of their crimes. It really does seem like it is for ALL.

We see from the first link above that Bellamy wanted to use Jefferson's words of "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity."

Now, where have we seen that before?

MINUTES OF THE MEETINGS OF THE RABBIS OF THE SUN CULT

PROTOCOL No. 1

25. Far back in ancient times we were the first to cry among the masses of the people the words "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity," words many times repeated since these days by stupid poll-parrots who, from all sides around, flew down upon these baits and with them carried away the well-being of the world, true freedom of the individual, formerly so well guarded against the pressure of the mob. The would-be wise men of the GOYIM, the intellectuals, could not make anything out of the uttered words in their abstractedness; did not see that in nature there is no equality, cannot be freedom: that Nature herself has established inequality of minds, of characters, and capacities, just as immutably as she has established subordination to her laws: never stopped to think that the mob is a blind thing, that upstarts elected from among it to bear rule are, in regard to the political, the same blind men as the mob itself, that the adept, though he be a fool, can yet rule, whereas the non-adept, even if he were a genius, understands nothing in the political - to all those things the GOYIM paid no regard; yet all the time it was based upon these things that dynastic rule rested: the father passed on to the son a knowledge of the course of political affairs in such wise that none should know it but members of the dynasty and none could betray it to the governed. As time went on, the meaning of the dynastic transference of the true position of affairs in the political was lost, and this aided the success of our cause.

26. In all corners of the earth the words "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity," brought to our ranks, thanks to our blind agents, whole legions who bore our banners with enthusiasm. And all the time these words were canker-worms at work boring into the well-being of the GOYIM, putting an end everywhere to peace, quiet, solidarity and destroying all the foundations of the GOY States. As you will see later, this helped us to our triumph: it gave us the possibility, among other things, of getting into our hands the master card - the destruction of the privileges, or in other words of the very existence of the aristocracy of the GOYIM, that class which was the only defense peoples and countries had against us. On the ruins of the natural and genealogical aristocracy of the GOYIM we have set up the aristocracy of our educated class headed by the aristocracy of money. The qualifications for this aristocracy we have established in wealth, which is dependent upon us, and in knowledge, for which our learned elders provide the motive force.

27. Our triumph has been rendered easier by the fact that in our relations with the men, whom we wanted, we have always worked upon the most sensitive chords of the human mind, upon the cash account, upon the cupidity, upon the insatiability for material needs of man; and each one of these human weaknesses, taken alone, is sufficient to paralyze initiative, for it hands over the will of men to the disposition of him who has bought their activities.

28. The abstraction of freedom has enabled us to persuade the mob in all countries that their government is nothing but the steward of the people who are the owners of the country, and that the steward may be replaced like a worn-out glove.

29. It is this possibility of replacing the representatives of the people which has placed at our disposal, and, as it were, given us the power of appointment.

PROTOCOL No. 9

1. In applying our principles let attention be paid to the character of the people in whose country you live and act; a general, identical application of them, until such time as the people shall have been re-educated to our pattern, cannot have success. But by approaching their application cautiously you will see that not a decade will pass before the most stubborn character will change and we shall add a new people to the ranks of those already subdued by us.

2. The words of the liberal, which are in effect the words of our masonic watchword, namely, "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity," will, when we come into our kingdom, be changed by us into words no longer of a watchword, but only an expression of idealism, namely, into "The right of liberty, the duty of equality, the ideal of brotherhood." That is how we shall put it, - and so we shall catch the bull by the horns ... DE FACTO we have already wiped out every kind of rule except our own, although DE JURE there still remain a good many of them. Nowadays, if any States raise a protest against us it is only PRO FORMA at our discretion and by our direction, for THEIR ANTI-SEMITISM IS INDISPENSABLE TO US FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF OUR LESSER BRETHREN. I will not enter into further explanations, for this matter has formed the subject of repeated discussions amongst us.

Keep in mind that the Protocols were supposed to have been captured 2 years BEFORE the U.S. constitution was penned. So who are these stupid Poll Parrots they are referring to? All praise Jefferson another Freemason who feared The Masses! There is a satellite religion in the worship of the Founding Fathers. I know that I am not related to these Freemasons, who, like Ben Franklin, had the bones of children beneath his house, or Jefferson who vomited equality while holding on to his precious slaves. In Protocol 9, how is it that they re-educate those masses to their Patterns? Could it be by forcing school kids to Poll Parrot an Oath of Fealty to the system that enslaves them? This demands critical analysis that those who opposed Prayer in School and the saying of the Pledge of Allegiance may not have been 'Godless Commies bent on destroying the fabric of our Country', but may have known what we are realizing now.

Does it give you a cold chill to see the words: De Facto and De Jure in the Protocols? Where have we heard those terms before?

You CAN swear an oath to anyone, anything, any time. That is your choice. You can die for a flag, a country, a god, a beLIEf or ideal. Willing lambs to the Blood Cult Sacrifice. But if you are intent on protecting yourself from outside Liens on your Un-aLienable Rights then you will have to pay attention to the fact that this Public Prayer is just another WELL THOUGHT OUT FRAUD to harvest your Rights using your own culpable mouth.
