THE ABYSS AND TABAET

A Study of Adversarial Mythology in Magick

By Michael W. Ford

(From BOOK OF THE WITCH MOON)

THE PRIMAL ABYSS

“She filled their bodies with venom instead of blood. She cloaked ferocious dragons with fearsome rays and made them bear mantles of radiance, made them godlike, ‘Whoever looks upon them shall collapse in utter terror! Their bodies shall rear up continually and never turn away!’ She stationed a horned serpent, a mushussu-dragon, and a lahm-hero, An ugallu-demon, a rabid dog, and a scorpion-man, aggressive umu-demons, a fish-man, and a bull-man Bearing merciless weapons, fearless in battle.” - Enuma Elish

The dragon of the primal oceans of the abyss opened her veins and filled her children with venom as blood, with a spell cracking the sky with the blackened flame of her Will. To raise them as Gods which shall master all forms of wolves, serpents and those beasts which prey upon others is the desire of Tiamat. What she gave to humanity was never cleansed from the ancient darkness in the subconscious, there is still a coiling serpent within.

The ancient dragon which personified the primal sea was Tiamat, according to George Barton the name Tiamat was equivalent to the same stem which meant ‘tamtu’, being the primal waters of the Abyss. Tiamat is the Adversary from an atavistic viewpoint, her form too terrible to comprehend. An interesting concept of the demonic feminine as a motivational factor in all life can be found in the archetype of Tiamat.

The Adversary, long hidden away in a morass of filth by those who would hate the darkness, those who would commit greater crimes on humanity and veil such in the words of God. They are indeed old, the two-fold principle of darkness, known as the Adversary, call it Samael and Lilith or the older Ahriman and Jeh, the very isolate God of Darkness. Tiamat is the very first manifestation of this force, from a time when darkness held in its arms hideous monsters, the very demonic shapes which still seek our thoughts in the darkest hours of our mind. In times of stress and turmoil, these atavistic beasts seek to escape from the barbed wire, cruel talons in the mind.

The mighty Mummu Tiamat was called the “bringer forth of them all”, yet was equally horrifying to her enemies, Gods she created Tiamat in ancient Assyria embodied all of that which was horrifying and violent to mankind, from the blackened oceans of the abyss did she first rise up, a great sea dragon who had partial elements of other predators, the head of a tiger, winged, four talons and a scale covered tail. This form was that which was from nightmares, which still copulates with our dreams and brings us visions of our vast possibility as living beings.”

Hi Everybody,

Sometimes I come to shows totally prepared. Sometimes not. Sometimes I get caught completely off-guard by a topic that I did not know was going to be raised. Sometimes the commercials interrupt a thought. Sometimes 2 hours isn't enough to say what needs to be gotten out.

This is the end of the toothpaste tube:

During a previous show I had started an idea of the Admiralty and Maritime Law having a stranglehold over our lives and how it related to The MOTHER OF THEM ALL the Great Dragon Tiamat the Salt Water Sea. As you can see from the excerpt above her blood was VENOM. This is the same word that was used for centuries being interchangeable with VIRUS.

The Enuma Elish is an Ancient Text. If you have the courage to toss your bibles in the corner and pick up a Luciferian Witchcraft Grimoire then you will know the history of these characters. The reason being: to have a comparison by which to understand the world around you. When we see that Tiamat (mother of Lilith) had Venom/Virus for blood and couple that with the contention of some authors who state that there are no free-living viruses outside of the ocean; then we get a pretty clear picture of just what might happen to Sea Farers and why they might want to rule the world. It is said that our blood chemistry is similar to that of the ocean so it follows that those non-landlubber viruses might think that we are their momma (mummu) and viola! instant demon sickness.

So that finishes the thought of the connection of the Admiralty to their demon-momma, but then perfectly segues to the April 10, 2010 show on Mosquito Vampire Genes and Dr. Carley talking about the relationship with Rabies initiating the murderous cannibal response to be followed by the blood lust/consumption/digestion.

Along with Bill Gates trying to make mosquitoes into flying vaccines.

You can see quite clearly (because I made it big!) that the ancient text speaks of Rabid Dogs. Some scholars say that this may be the FIRST literary reference in Hu-Man writing of Rabies. Below that, the exposition talks about The Adversary (HaSatan) as being the duality Androgyne of Sama-EL and Lilith. The description of the Zamiel entity is that of RAGE AND LUST. This is precisely what Rabies causes in the infected:

Hypersexuality, ferocious aggression and cannibalism! The Angel of Death. Lilith was the Night Monster. The original Demon Vampyre Queen of Babylon. The Whore of Babylon. The Extinguisher. Her duty was to kill babies and women.

Rabies and Vampyre Genes.

The reason that I suggest putting your bibles under the wobbly leg of that chair is because then it will be useful. There are NO WARNINGS in the Bible of Rabies or Vampyres or how to formulate Anti-trypsin chemicals to shut down their genetics. There is no verse that says, "Beware thou the vaccine, that poisoneth thy very soul!" In fact, there are no clues that I can determine that have any practical value. It only sells the HOPE that some outside agency MIGHT make things better after they have gotten so bad that the blood flows as high as the horses' bridles.

You have been conditioned that The Scorpion King is just a movie. That the Ahriman is some 'other' religion and has nothing whatsoever to do with 'yours'. THEY ARE ALL THE SAME.

I rely on The Protocols of Zion, and the work of Luciferians and Witches to tell the Truth about what is happening to us so that we can form a COUNTERMEASURE to the Evil. How sick is that? Why wouldn't a text that purports to be 'good' be an instruction manual with the Kung Fu techniques to put the Devil down? These 'other' texts from the 'dark side' are practical texts that give the unvarnished, uncensored truth about what is going on and who the players are. If I had my nose stuck in a King James Version where the Warlock James Stewart took out all of the things that would give me solid knowledge to protect myself with, then I would have ended up dead a long time ago. That they KNEW about these creatures/associations in the Bible is without question:

"In the beginning the world was without form and Void and Darkness moved over the face of The Deep."

The Deep, of course, being The Abyss, Tiamat. The Hebrew, Akkadian traditions were melded with the Iraq/Babylonian/Sumerian/Chaldean. This is where the Bible comes from and this is where it was edited to a impractical nothing. If the writers of the Bible knew this material then why don't you? Fear? Or conditioning from the very beginning of the Bible that the pursuit of Knowledge leads to Death? I just outlined that if I did NOT study this stuff then I would have been dead long ago. If we were not able to put together the Enuma Elish with publications in Molecular Biology and Evolution then you would truly have NO HOPE.

The maxims of the Chinese warrior are:
Know yourself.
Know your enemy.

Sometimes you have to read the enemy's field manual to understand how to defeat them.
