

Cry Havoc! And Let Slip The DOGS of War

This quote of The Bard is nonsense to anyone who has not seen the PBS documentary on how the Spaniards invaded MesoAmerica and brought Mastiffs with them to 'control' the population. As I remember from the story I saw so long ago, they would starve the dogs so that they would attack AND EAT whatever they were unleashed on.

Now, imagine you are a 'new' world native that had never seen a dog before. Imagine that when $E=m \times a$, (energy equals mass times acceleration) that a 200-pound beast bred specifically for war is running at you at 20 mph...I've chest-butted an 80 pound Bull Dog and it knocked me over.

I had been doing research on the Net and came across a story about a chief who was killed by the invaders. His reply to the psychopaths was my exact sentiments and I wanted to honor the memory of the man by naming his name. However, I was not able to find this file in the gigabytes of material I have collected (back up your data folks!).

Enter: a kind listener who just signed on to my list and said that he had deep experience in this very topic. He sent this reply that should close the door on the debate on the malignancy of The Church for good. Before any Protestants get cocky they need to be reminded on just who Martin Luther was.

Luther was a CATHOLIC PRIEST who came to the realization that flagellating himself and jumping into the snow to cure him of his sinful thoughts was literally killing him. The sadness of this entire story is not the creation of a new religion that happened to mimic the Inquisition so the New Boss was no better than the Old Boss; nor is it that Luther had a sense of humor and actually made tracts that showed characters blowing farts at the Pope; nor is it that the creation of this new religion led to EVEN MORE BLOODSHED because the Divide and Conquer Strategy had spawned another division of the SAME THING to argue about like a Hydatid Tapeworm spawning MIRV cysts... The Sad Thing is that Luther simply didn't understand that the things he was doing to his body were Ancient Chinese Kung Fu training methods that were NEVER INTENDED TO HARM THE BODY since that would interrupt training in building Chi. Had the Catholic Monk UNDERSTOOD what the Chinese Monks were doing he would have been able to actually do SOMETHING POSITIVE for the world instead of inserting a new, large, powerful Binary Choice that has been of NO PRACTICAL USE TO THE PLANET.

Here is the fantastic information from our new listmember. His comments are in black, his quoted material is in blue, and the comments I can't resist making are highlighted:

Patrick, There are unfortunately many stories like the one you mention, such as these:

The Indian chief Hatuey fled with his people but was captured and burned alive. As "they were tying him to the stake a Franciscan friar urged him to take Jesus to his heart so that his soul might go to heaven, rather than descend into hell. Hatuey replied that if heaven was where the Christians went, he would rather go to hell."

It is just one example of thousands of stories. Don't forget the christian Spanish conquistadors. i.e Columbus also enslaved all the indians, Inca's, Mayan's, Aztec and ended up killing them all off. There are NO pure blooded Inca's, Mayan's or Aztec's left in the world.

Please reference the show that Dr. Carley and I did on the Mendelian Square to show how the population of Ea-rth (Yah's Wrath) is favored 3:1 for those who carry genetic Evil. That is quite easy to do when you KILL THE COMPETITION and then breed with the remnant. I have a paper that goes out to the list regarding this topic. Now given that the Jesuits and the Jews were the self-appointed Scribes of the literature of illiterate societies and you will be hard pressed to find translators of the literature and glyphs of literate societies that are not in that collaborative camp (Jesuits AND Jews translated most of the ARABIC advanced science texts) we can see how easy it was for them to have accomplished what my research shows: that ALL religions are harmonized and homogenized to the Qaballa. With that as a frightening reality that ALL of History was erased in its physical entities so that oral tradition of the Real Natives could not pass it on, then the INVADERS wrote what that history was supposed to have been.

This begs a very serious scholarly question: Were the American Native religions Blood Sacrifice Cults like the Aztec Sun Serpent Religion? Or, were the stories that were handed to us by the INVADERS about the ritual heart-gouging gore-fests simply a reflection of the Demons that came to roost and had nothing whatsoever to do with what the Inca, Mayan and Aztecs were doing before they got there? Wouldn't that bunch your panties if all of this 2012 B.S. was just a PsyOp?

The other side of the coin is that perhaps the big three American cultures WERE skilled Black Magicians and the Spaniards (one of the 5 basic cultures you were taught in grade school who forcibly created Empire) were just cutting them out of the Take. Thanks for the Gold Mining...a blood sacrifice is a blood sacrifice even if it's Family...thanks for playing...see you next Millennium.

Here are other examples:

An eyewitness described what happened to his people: "The Spaniards found pleasure in inventing all kinds of odd cruelties ... They built a long gibbet, long enough for the toes to touch the ground to prevent strangling, and hanged thirteen [natives] at a time in honor of Christ Our Savior and the twelve Apostles... then, straw was wrapped around their torn bodies and they were burned alive." [SH72]

Or, on another occasion:

"The Spaniards cut off the arm of one, the leg or hip of another, and from some their heads at one stroke, like butchers cutting up beef and mutton for market. Six hundred, including the cacique, were thus slain like brute beasts...Vasco [de Balboa] ordered forty of them to be torn to pieces by dogs." [SH83]

* The "island's (west Indies) population of about eight million people at the time of Columbus's arrival in 1492 already had declined by a third to a half before the year 1496 was out." Eventually all the island's natives were exterminated, so the Spaniards were "forced" to import slaves from other Caribbean islands, who soon suffered the same fate. Thus "the Caribbean's millions of native people [were] thereby effectively liquidated in barely a quarter of a century". [SH72-73]

"In less than the normal lifetime of a single human being, an entire culture of millions of people, thousands of years resident in their homeland, had been exterminated." [SH75] * "And then the Spanish turned their attention to the mainland of Mexico and Central America. The slaughter had barely begun. The exquisite city of Tenochtitlán [Mexico city] was next." [SH75]

* Cortez, Pizarro, De Soto and hundreds of other Spanish conquistadors likewise sacked southern and mesoamerican civilizations in the name of Christ (De Soto also sacked Florida).

* "When the 16th century ended, some 200,000 Spaniards had moved to the Americas. By that time probably more than 60,000,000 natives were dead." [SH95]

Did you know this? 60 MILLION!!!! In my book ICD-999 I breakdown the statistics that were available to me that showed around 670,000 died in the 231 years from the Revolutionary War through the major wars to 2009. Doctors killed 1.2 Million in America in ten years. This Genocide has the war figures beat by a factor of TEN!

Oh, but wait, let's not forget what the christian's did to the North American Indians:

Of course no different were the founders of what today is the US of America.

* Although none of the settlers would have survived winter without native help, they soon set out to expel and exterminate the Indians. Warfare among (North American) Indians was rather harmless, in comparison to European standards, and was meant to avenge insults rather than conquer land. In the words of some of the pilgrim fathers: "Their Wars are far less bloody", so that there usually was "no great slaughter of either side". Indeed, "they might fight seven years and not kill seven men." What is more, the Indians usually spared women and children. [SH111]

* In the spring of 1612 some English colonists found life among the (generally friendly and generous) natives attractive enough to leave Jamestown - "being idle ... did run away unto the Indians," - to live among them (that probably solved a sex problem). "Governor Thomas Dale had them hunted down and executed: 'Some he appointed (sic) to be hanged Some burned Some to be broken upon wheels, others to be staked and some shoot to death!'" [SH105]

Of course these elegant measures were restricted for fellow Englishmen: "This was the treatment for those who wished to act like Indians. For those who had no choice in the matter, because they were the native people of Virginia" methods were different: "when an Indian was accused by an Englishman of stealing a cup and failing to return it, the English response was to attack the natives in force, burning the entire community" down. [SH105]

* On the territory that is now Massachusetts the founding fathers of the colonies were committing genocide, in what has become known as the "Pequot War." The killers were New England Puritan Christians, refugees from persecution in their own home country England.

Massachusetts is where the Puritan Wiccans started their Plague in North America.

* When however, a dead colonist was found, apparently killed by Narragansett Indians, the Puritan colonists wanted revenge. Despite the Indian chief's pledge they attacked. Somehow they seem to have lost the idea of what they were after, because when Pequot Indians (long-time foes of the Narragansett) greeted them the troops nevertheless made war on the Pequots and burned their villages. The puritan commander-in-charge John Mason after one massacre wrote: "And indeed such a dreadful Terror did the Almighty let fall upon their Spirits, that they would fly from us and run into the very Flames, where many of them perished ... God was above them, who laughed his Enemies and the Enemies of his People to Scorn, making them as a fiery Oven ... Thus did the Lord judge among the Heathen, filling the Place with dead Bodies": men, women, children. [SH113-114]

* So "the Lord was pleased to smite our Enemies in the hinder Parts, and to give us their land for an inheritance". [SH111].

* Because of his readers' assumed knowledge of Deuteronomy, there was no need for Mason to quote the words that immediately follow: "Thou shall save alive nothing that breatheth. But thou shall utterly destroy them..." (Deut 20)

KILL EVERYTHING THAT MOVES!!!!

For anyone who has truly READ the bible you will know that this is the entire theme of carnage throughout. In fact, Moses was chewed out by god through the High Priest for the invasion of another race where they DIDN'T slaughter every living thing, spill the oil on the ground and burn the food and houses. God is Love.

* Mason's comrade Underhill recalled how "great and doleful was the bloody sight to the view of the young soldiers" yet reassured his readers that "sometimes the Scripture declareth women and children must perish with their parents". [SH114]

Page 8 of 14 Untitled 2 24 2006 8 12 21 38 3:38 AM Ironically, one of the Bible's 10 pillars or Ten Commandments says: "Thou shalt not kill. (Exodus 20:13)." Yet, innocent children and non-virgin women were ordered to be killed by the mass, perhaps in thousands! 3-year old slave girls were also ordered to be raped by Moses. . According to the Tannaïte Rabbis, MOSES therefore had ordered the Israelites to kill all women older than three years and a day, because they were "suitable for having sexual relations." [138]...." "Said Rabbi Joseph, "Come and take note: "A girl three years and one day old is betrothed by intercourse. "A girl three years old may be betrothed through an act of sexual intercourse," the words of R. Meir. And sages say, "Three years and one day old."

* Other Indians were killed in successful plots of poisoning. The colonists even had dogs especially trained to kill Indians and to devour children from their mothers breasts, in the colonists' own words: "blood Hounds to draw after them, and Mastives to seize them." (This was inspired by Spanish methods of the time) In this way they continued until the extermination of the Pequots was near. [SH107-119]

* The surviving handful of Indians "were parceled out to live in servitude. John Endicott and his pastor wrote to the governor asking for 'a share' of the captives, specifically 'a young woman or girl and a boy if you think good'." [SH115]

* Other tribes were to follow the same path.

* Comment the Christian exterminators: "God's Will, which will at last give us cause to say: How Great is His Goodness! And how great is his Beauty!" "Thus doth the Lord Jesus make them to bow before him, and to lick the Dust!" [TA]

* Like today, lying was morally acceptable to Christians then. "Peace treaties were signed with every intention to violate them: when the Indians 'grow secure upon (sic) the treaty', advised the Council of State in Virginia, 'we shall have the better Advantage both to surprise them & cut down their Corn'." [SH106]

There is so much talk about Sovereignty of the individual and their country, yet there is the recognition that ALL laws take a back seat to the Uniform Commercial Code and International Treaty. When are you going to freaking learn that you are signing on the line with Demons and they HAVE NO INTENTION OF HONORING ANYTHING?

You have this rich history to draw from and verify for yourselves that the founders of this nation were blood-thirsty Witches that draw their power from deceit and death.

* In 1624 sixty heavily armed Englishmen cut down 800 defenseless Indian men, women and children. [SH107]

* In a single massacre in "King Philip's War" of 1675 and 1676 some "600 Indians were destroyed. A delighted Cotton Mather, revered pastor of the Second Church in Boston, later referred to the slaughter as a 'barbecue'." [SH115]

Cotton Mather by all accounts I have been able to uncover was a Puritan Witch. He advocated the drinking of urine as the best health cure; and eating of feces that is also known as coprophagia a variation on Vampirism since the color of stools is in part from red blood cells that have been excreted.

* To summarize: Before the arrival of the English, the western Abenaki people in New Hampshire and Vermont had numbered 12,000. Less than half a century later about 250 remained alive - destruction rate of 98%. The Pocumtuck people had numbered more than 18,000, fifty years later they were down to 920 - 95% destroyed. The Quiripi-Unquachog people had numbered about 30,000, fifty years later they were down to 1500 - 95% destroyed. The Massachusetts people had numbered at least 44,000, fifty years later barely 6000 were alive - 81% destroyed. [SH118]

These are only a few examples of the multitude of tribes living before Christian colonists set their foot on the New World. All this was before the smallpox epidemics of 1677 and 1678 had occurred. And the carnage was not over Page 9 of 14 Untitled 2 24 2006 8 12 21 38 3:38 AM then.

* All the above was only the beginning of the European colonization, it was before the frontier age actually had begun.

 A total of maybe more than 150 million Indians (of both Americas) were destroyed in the period of 1500 to 1900, as an average two thirds by smallpox and other epidemics, that leaves some 50 million killed directly by violence, bad treatment and slavery.

I often have more questions than answers but the undeniable link between the Blood Lines and Smallpox and the special skills of Microbiology, Pharmacology, and Mineralogy of the Ancient Witches is well documented. Abram entered Egypt and left after a Plague was released. Moses left Egypt after a Plague was released. Smallpox was always characterized as a Human Disease but that really begs the question, when you know the Mendelian Square of Demons, People of Conscience and Hybrids – just what is meant by a Hu-Man. [Man = Feudal Servant. Hu = Demon family surname].

Of all the diseases that plagued 'mankind' Jenner chose Smallpox and the abomination called vaccination has unleashed more disease, misery and death than probably any natural agent on this planet. None of what you have read above were random acts of unscripted History. This was global Genocide, Depopulation and Colonization of the Evil Genome. What makes you think things will EVER get better?

 In many countries, such as Brazil, and Guatemala, this continues even today. More Glorious Events in U.S. History

 Reverend Solomon Stoddard, one of New England's most esteemed religious leaders, in "1703 formally proposed to the Massachusetts Governor that the colonists be given the financial wherewithal to purchase and train large packs of dogs 'to hunt Indians as they do bears'." [SH241]

1692 was the year of the Salem Witch Trials and the Governor at that time was a known Pirate, which, by the work of Professor Timothy Watson, we know meant that he was a Knight's Templar. In 1703, this may be the same governor that rewarded the Witch Trial Judges that KILLED INNOCENT NON-WITCHES by appointing them to the newly created Superior Court system. If you have ever wondered why there is no Justice in America you need look no farther back than when it was just a British Colony.

We live in Opposite Day on Demon Planet called Ea-rth (Yah's Wrath).

 Massacre of Sand Creek, Colorado 11/29/1864. Colonel John Chivington, a former Methodist minister and still elder in the church ("I long to be wading in gore") had a Cheyenne village of about 600, mostly women and children, gunned down despite the chiefs' waving with a white flag: 400-500 killed. From an eye-witness account: "There were some thirty or forty squaws collected in a hole for protection; they sent out a little girl about six years old with a white flag on a stick; she had not proceeded but a few steps when she was shot and killed. All the squaws in that hole were afterwards killed..." [SH131] More gory details.

Patrick, this is a very small sampling of the christian slaughter of the native people, all in the name of god or jesus. I wonder why we never hear about the true history? Yes, I wonder...Of course nothing has changed, nothing...the north american natives are almost all gone, very few pure bred left, and then there is the on going massacres in Iraq, Afghanistan, Guatemala, _____ fill in the blank. And sending our assassination troops by christian presidents and christian politicians is standard practice. I could go on and on...

Also, I did an hour long program on this subject last October on The Power Hour radio program on GCN (a very christian audience). Hope this information is useful. Thanks.
