

HU'S YOUR MOMMA

The first thing my first doctor ever said to me as a conscious human being child sitting on an exam table, after holding down my tongue with a wooden stick was: to say, "Aah."

The wooden stick, now after years of studying world religions, is reminiscent of the Witch's Bridle used to hold down the tongue of the accused before their murder by burning at the stake so that they could not utter any curses with their dying breath.

Or perhaps it was the magick wand of the Witch in the White Coat?

The three Semite religions of Yudaism, Yslam, and Christianity claim that they are children of YHVH, Allah, Jehovah. The fourth Semite religion of HaSatan, Shaitan, Satanism claims that they are children of Heyl-EL, Eblis, Lucifer/The Devil. The Zoroastrian Persians claim Ahura Mazda, and Ahriman. The Babylonians claim EA and BA.

Some are deflections some are not. Some make you work for the clues some are already handed to you preformed.

What surprised and amused me was that there was no challenge whatsoever to my contention from the beginning of the Swine Flu pandemic threat to my assertion that names like Armschel Rothschild whose actual last name was Bauer might be constructions of The Strong Arm of God Ba-HU of Ur. It was there that I introduced that HU was a surname of the Demon/God Ba-Hu of the City/State of Ur. I was amused because those who are in the know would not challenge me because it would bring attention to family names of the ILU AMON ATYS (Illuminati) who have been occulting and changing their names for years in order to create confusion and remain hidden.

Dina Temple-Raston, a reporter for National Public Radio did a piece in November 09, 2009 on the psychiatrist-soldier that supposedly killed 13 at Fort Hood. She reported that he called out "AllaHU Akbar!" Now, I have been hearing for years, "Allah Ahkbar." with the meaning implied that it means God is Great. I have never heard the word AllaHU.

I was surprised because the recent Judification of Christian words clearly pushes the envelope of the Babylonian origins of their deity structures. Jehovah is the German transliteration of Yahweh where “J” in German is the equivalent of “Y”. This too amuses me because anyone evoking Jehovah is praying to a non-entity since it is a total mispronunciation of a title. This totally invalidates JEHOVAH Witnesses because they DON’T EVEN KNOW HOW TO PRONOUNCE THE NAME OF THEIR SUPPOSED PET GOD! The Tetragrammaton YHWH is Yod-Heh-Vau-Heh from which the Yahweh is derived. It is considered the Terrible and Unpronounceable name of G-d. God with the “o” replaced by a hyphen is not because it is deference to a deity that would just as soon annihilate you as look at you but because these cultures don’t use vowels in their language. It has also been referred to as The Unspeakable One. Now, follow me on this deconstruction because it may be the single thing to open your eyes. EA was the primary figure in the Babylonian Trinity of Anu (Ghost) EA (Father) and BA (Son) although these familial designations we will often see are meaningless. The EN-LIL that is often associated with BA-EL is translated Lord of Ghosts.

<http://www.giffordlectures.org/Browse.asp?PubID=TPRAEB&Volume=0&Issue=0&ArticleID=16>

LIL, of course, is our patron god of Baba ILI another variation of ILU or LILU. I have often said that they change names more often than I change underwear. So, if we attribute the EA to the Yahweh in the Trinity ranking we see the similarity of EA being a vocalization of Yah. EA / Yah. Once I had made that breakthrough I was transported in time back to 1968 and the Warren Magazines that targeted kids with Creepy, Eerie and Vampirella. These violent often X-rated gore and sex fests in comics that kids could buy from the newsstand for 35 cents would always have the victim screaming in terror: Eeeeeaaaaah!

It looks better in print.

Now, when you factor in two things: The fact that this entity was called The Unspeakable and then project what you might say when you were faced with unspeakable terror, then Eeeeeaaaaah! might be a reasonable response. AND you factor in that ALL of the legends of the world’s sick religions have been harmonized to the Qabala where there were multiple incarnations of this world as attempts by the god-thing to get it right. In early incarnations he would make living things but they could not say his name so he obliterated them. Man was the only one who could get close and Mankind has been screaming in terror of this god-thing every since. Eeeeeaaaaah!

Also of note is the Ehyeh Asher Ehyeh: I Am Who I Am. This could also translate to I Am HU.(period) I Am. Asher or Ash was the original God of the Mesopotamian Valley before all of the name changing started to happen. This entity was supposedly there first. A kind of Ancient-of-Days First Kid on the Block. Of course every Asher has to have his Asherah and this word that was translated into ‘Grove’ in the King James DiVersion confuses everyone that Yahweh had a girlfriend but she is only mentioned in passing and worshipping her was a BAD thing and maybe she wasn’t an entity it was just them damn pagans doing goofy things among the trees. Bohemian Grove. But more on that later. Can’t have any of that Woman Worship! Divide and conquer. I worship a female! I worship a male! I worship a hermaphrodite! ALL deities and demons from Mess' O'potamia came in gender pairs. In fact, although, they were represented and manifested as single genders at a time it was recognized that they were actually Androgynes – both genders in one entity. It is only in The Bible that we are force fed a single male gender organism. Even Asher opened his mouth to say AAH. Asher-Aah.

So is Asher synonymous with HU. Is the name HU who God really is? Is god our own Dr. Who? where after so many episodes he changes his face and character? messes with Time and leaves a wake of death and destruction? (Oldest sci-fi show in the history of TV. Every episode a Hiding In Plain Sight retelling of these stories.)

Ya-HU-Shu-AH is the current transliteration of Jesus yet both are the title name of Emmanu-EL. Emmanu-EL is included in the Power Names of the Spirit Books of Moses. Already we see the name changing, occulting, mispronunciation going on from the start. That Josephus wrote about Jesus of Nazareth is about as confirming as saying that there was a John Smith in New York City. The given name of Emmanu-EL was not the Anglicized Jesus; that came from the Latin Yesu (Hey Zeus); that came from the German Jesu; that came from the Hebrew Yeshua; which means Savior which is what Joshua is back in its Anglicized occulted form. The Ya-HU (Ea-HU) current transliteration starts to put the Savior into the Babylonian camp of the original place name demon families. Because lets face it: The very mention of Ash/HU or his girlfriend Asherah (As-HU-RA) puts Christians in a tailspin over supposed Idolatry. Shu-Aah brings it into the full Black Magic embrace of something that you would have never thought possible. Open your mouth and say: AAH...

EA-HU-SHU-AAH

We start our Odyssey by doing an etymological search of the word:

“Good.”

That trail was instigated by a comment on Interviews with an Ex-Vampire that “Good” was the name of a minor Babylonian god of Luck and Good Fortune.

If you study the Qabala you find that the Hive Mind of God has 72 Names. Among them are transliterations of God into many cultural language forms including the word Good.

From <http://www.etymonline.com>

O.E. Eufrate, from Gk. Euphrates, from O.Pers. Ufratu, perhaps from Avestan huperethua "good to cross over," from hu- "good" + peretu- "ford." But Kent says "probably a popular etymologizing in O.P. of a local non-Iranian name" ["Old Persian," p.176]. In Akkadian, purattu.

I went on to put Lilith in the search window and came up with:

female evil spirit, in medieval Heb. folklore the first wife of Adam, from Heb. Lilith, from Akkad. Lilitu, which is connected by folk etymology with Heb. laylah "night."

Of course my first thought was that of Eric Clapton's Layla but then it immediately went to what I knew to be an alternative name of Lilith: Rhiannon. Stevie Nicks is an admitted Wiccan so it is no surprise that she would write a song about Momma. In Welsh legend Rhiannon dressed in gold and rode a white horse. Gold is the preferred metal of the Sun Cult and I finally got my link to Horses.

I coined a term: Satanic Pet Organisms. These were viruses and bacteria like Clostridia Botulinum and Clostridia Tetani that were known for over 100 years but the only medical intervention was vaccines in the case of Tetanus. When I discovered that the United States had been working on weaponizing organisms since the 1930s it was clear that they preserved and nurtured certain virulent pathogens so that they could use them against us. Satanic Pet Organisms. Coupled with their use as weapons and their technique to manipulate microorganisms was the use of Bacteriophages to push ubiquitous bacteria from harmless nothings into killers. In Nature this could happen in tetanus after passage through a HORSE'S digestive system. Wherever I turned I was seeing HORSES in the history of the development of human culture, agriculture and warfare and now as vectors for the development of bioweapons. The current laboratory-created weapons they are patenting and releasing under the guise of Swine flu are combinations of Swine/Bird/Human/Dog and HORSE Flu. It appears that once you get a HORSE version of Swine combination flu IT CAN CROSS SPECIES AT WILL.

We only have to go back to the Father of Vaccination Edward Jenner to realize that his work on the LIE sold to us as Cow Pox was originally started using a horse disease known as Greasy Heels. Isn't it interesting that the first vaccinations he gave came from pus on HUMAN hands that were supposedly infected by HORSES' heels? It could be that the human genome has been so corrupted by pollution with horse genetic material since 1790 that this now allows for instantaneous sharing of zoonoses. Jenner and his Minions experimented with Cattle Plague, Sheep Pox, Goat Pox and Horse Grease along with Cow Pox. Cow Pox is what they TELL you they finally used for protecting you from a completely different and solely HUMAN disease called Smallpox. Stanford said Vaccinia didn't look like either Smallpox or Cow Pox.

http://virus.stanford.edu/pox/2000/vaccinia\_virus.html

Why should this surprise us? Their ancient ancestors have been changing their names and confusion the general populace with outright lies for 6 millennia.

MARK OF THE BEAST

When you talk about the Mark of the Beast you might consider that Cicatrization is the act of producing a scar on the body (cicatrix). In stone-age cultures it was part of Magick and Religious rituals. Jenner and his cronies often talked of the cicatrix.

DARK HORSE

The origin of the word Nightmare comes from the female demon Succubi sneaking into your bedroom at night in the spectral (meaning: ghostly) appearance of a horse. Lilith in Hebrew translates to The Night Monster and since by cross-association with her cultural alter-ego Rhiannon there is a Horse connection. Lilith is also the same as the Roman Goddess Diana, who is the same entity as the Greek Artemis, Aphrodite or Astarte who is the Phoenician Astoreth, Phrygian Cybele, Akkadian and Babylonian Ishtar, Egyptian Isis who is synonymous with Roman Cynthia the goddess of The Moon.

One of the names of the Moon God in Egypt is Aah. So we have come full circle from my introduction to the Doctor forcing you to evoke his Patron Demoness in the form of Aah, the Moon Goddess.

When you realize that the things called gods and demons were all gender-morphing entities called Androgynes it is meaningless to assign attributes of male or female to the god/goddess, demon/demoness titles. Astarte started off as a female demon who got on the bad side of Ea so she was turned into a half white half black male demon called Astaroth or Ashtaroth to the Canaanites. Ashtaroth has the same root name of ASH from Mesopotamia. This is the same Astaroth that King Solomon of the Jews built a temple to. Since He/She/It commands 40 Legions of demons it can only be summoned on Wednesdays from 10-11 PM. Please leave a message and We will get back to you.

I did not know for the longest time that the Phoenicians from whom we get Phonetics were a Semitic Tribe. They had a temple in Carthage with an enormous Emerald Stone at the altar (Green Eyes of Envy (Lucifer); Green Stones of Thoth; Green Aprons of Mormons; etc. ad infinitum.) At Carthage they liked to toss Tots into Urns and burn them for Molech. Immolation. Holocaust. Burnt offerings. Molech is no doubt the male gender morphing, name morphing consort of Astoreth so a poison mushroom by any other name is...Now, you might have heard of the 30' owl that is worshipped by the bloodline crazies at Bohemian Grove in California. It has been erroneously attributed to Molech worship. The Dead Sea Scroll version of Isaiah 34:14 talks about Lilith. The Mesopotamian forms of Lilutuv and Inanna are represented with OWL'S FEET. This is a gender-specific identification of the Androgyne LILITH form – NOT the male Molech/Ashtaroth, etc. blah, blah, blah-form. This may be boring or seem inconsequential but the Chinese Martial arts are based on some core principles:

Know Yourself.

KNOW YOUR ENEMEY. (That would include their names)

Improvise; Adapt. (change your name)

Our blood follows the Sun and the Moon!

No crap.

I couldn't make this stuff up.

Lilith is the Cynthia the Moon! Cynthia in the Greek sounds just like the Mesopotamian Sin goddess of the Moon. The popular Christian apologetics for the word Sinner is supposed to come from archery where to sin was to 'miss the mark' but if we go back a few thousand years more we find that the erroneously named "Pagan" Cult of the Horned God Cerne/Cernunos (Celtic/Keltic/KI-ELtic) and Diana comes from the dual entity of the Moon named Sin, so it is reasonable to assume that a Sinner was a Moon Worshiper.

This Great Goddess has hidden under so many names in so many cultures that the important secret is that it is only one entity with many names that becomes its lethal camouflage.

Diana Herodias, Hera, Aradia, Juno, Venus, Selene, daughter Persephone, Holo-Perchta, Noctiluca, Bensozia, Dame Habonde; in Egyptian Aset, Isis, and Bast the Cat Goddess; Queen of Elphen in the British Isles; in Saxony she was Queen of Heaven, Marian, Goda Frig; in Wales Rhiannon or Arainrhod; in Canaanite Asherah the consort of YA-HU/Yahoo; in Hawaiian Pele; in Hindu KA-LI.

In coupled pairs they are the Sama-EL and Lilith. Zamiel “The Venom of God”, “The Angel of Death”, is also known as Malkira, Malak RA (not a far cry from Molech), Belial, Beli’ol, Beliar, Baal Zebub, Angro Mainyush or Arhriman. The Ahriman and Jeh or Jahi or Az. The Ahriman is reminiscent of the Aah that opened this talk and Jeh/Jahi reminiscent of the Jehovah although morphed into the female. And who could possibly pass up a mention of The Wizard of AZ. Don’t forget European vowel sounds “A” = “Ah” = Ahz. Do you really think that Frank Baum was not a Qabala initiate and that the book and the movie that aired every year on television in the 1960s as an appointment event was not a perfectly crafted conditioning experiment for you to accept that there are Good and Bad (White and Black) Witches and that a Wizard of Az is actually a kindly lost gentleman who will help you if you get past his lethal defenses and demand it of him (summon a demon and tell it what you want), and that if you only wish for something (Egyptian Mysteries Magical Thinking) that it will appear for you? Close your eyes. Click your heels. “There’s no place like Rome. There’s no place like Rome.” If you think that my connections and assertions are spurious then “pay no attention to the man behind the curtain.” Funny thing I should mention The Curtain. The other incarnation of Lilith is Isis with the ancient challenge that no MAN can unveil her.

An incredible Hungarian contributor on my mailing list pointed out that the English break down of Israel is IS-RA-EL = Moon Sun God!

If that wasn’t astounding enough he further broke down the US in Zeus, Olympus, Ephesus, Oedipus, and Jesus. He even threw in Akhilleusz as the Hungarian spelling for Achilles, which may be the Achilles Heel of their exposure. They cannot keep from putting their names in our mouths just like the legends of the Qabala inserted into almost all native cultures where God destroyed every attempt after creating beings that could not say his NAME! Our Hungarian correspondent goes on to say that you rarely find the United States of America referred to as the USA but rather the US. They seem to be claiming the US(A) and its US citizens for their own.

The IS family continues in OsirIS, AnubIS, ApophIS, IBL-IS, HorIS, ArtemIS. After a while you feel like you are in a Three Stooges short where the crazy guy is shouting – “They’re crawling all over me! Get them off of me!” If the Qabala legend is true that the crazy god wanted everything it made to say its name then we need to become those Trappist monks who take the vow of silence in order to break the spell.

In the Vampyre legends: the Babylonian Lamia; Mesopotamian Lebartu; Sumerian Dimme; Akkadian Lamastu/Lamashtu (Child Slayer) that causes Childbed/Puerperal Fever; The Testament of Solomon catalogs Obyzouth who strangled children is associated with Assyrian Lilutuv; Semitic Lilith; KI-EL the Storm Goddess also known as NIN-LIL (let's not forget her brother/husband EN-LIL), The Whore of Babylon, Queen of Libya, The Night Monster, The Extinguisher, Queen Mother of the Succubi, The End of Flesh, The End of Days. If that is not chilling enough the creature that was assumed to be a male entity worshipped by the Knights Templars called Baphomet is actually an Androgyne Lilith disguised as The Mistress of Blood.

Solomon summoned her and commanded her to reveal herself and her secrets. “Men call me Obyzouth. At Night I go around the whole world and visit women about to give birth. As soon as the child is born, I do my best to strangle it. If I fail, I leave at once and go somewhere else, because I cannot let a single night pass without success. I have nothing else to do but KILL CHILDREN.”

Those who practice Qabala use spells and wear red string or ribbons on their wrists to protect their children from Lilith. If you have ever wondered why Madonna, a Qabalist, wore the red string it is because they beLIEve that they need protection from a serial extinguisher.

The Disease Demons were the Utukku.

But we can't leave without a lesson in Communist Propaganda as found in shows like Angel and Buffy the Vampire Slayer. Paradoxical Psychological Manipulation that runs perfectly scripted like a John Hagey sermon will make a declarative statement and then within the same sentence or a paragraph later it will completely counter that statement. The object is to give a CONFLICTING MESSAGE so that you have no foundation or frame of reference on which to make a decision so the decision is made for you that you are undecided. Physically it is like being put on a wobble board. You expend all of your attention and energy just trying to maintain stability in constantly changing conditions that you cannot perform any other function. You must make a decision, even if it is wrong, to choose a direction and deal with the outcome. In layman's terms: Jump off the board! The Hollywood message is: Vampyres who can and would kill you at any moment are fighting demons on your behalf because they want to help you. This seems like an odd statement unless you have studied the television series and realized that all of the name-occulting of the entities that I just outlined above demonstrates there are still more names for the Dark Side of a SINGLE entity! Why would a Vampyre want to help HU-Mans? Two other names are attributed to this malevolent female Adversary of HU-Manity. Nanna and Mamma. They are the ancient fabricators of the HU-Man race with Clay and BLOOD. Another correspondent on my list had indicated that an alternative translation to the dust used by the God of the Bible or the clay used by the (alter-ego God of Sumeria) was: FILTH! Since Nanna and Mamma are the same entity, the implication is that a certain race of Men came from a single mother who is not the Eve (Hawwah, Eh-Va-Aah) or “V” of legend but the very sinister thing I have been describing all along: Lilith. The reason it is called the HU-Man race is because the demon surname of HU is applied to the Slave Work Units fabricated in the (female) blood and dirt factory as opposed to the Genesis version of the (male) dirt and breath factory.

And just HU was this Genesis God?

<http://www.logon.org/english/S/p220.html>

This website has a brilliant breakdown of the veritable breakdown of these schizophrenic entities. The fall down the rabbit hole happened for me when I was tracing the etymology of the word:

“NO!”

It is the single word that will save the Hu-Man race from extinction so I wanted to know what it was and where it came from. Turns out the search led me to Wade Cox's outline that folks have been pronouncing Jehovah wrong forever. I had known that the “J” in German was a mistransliteration of the “Y” sound in the original Hebrew for the Tetragrammaton YHVH. Wade says that although HOVAW means God of Ruin or Mischief it does not apply to THAT God... Which one did you say it was? Oh, yeah, the one referred to as The Bull throughout the ‘scriptures’ (which just means ‘writing’ by the way. If you want to know about ‘sacred writing’ read Salman Rushdie’s Satanic Verses). The same iconography that we see in Babylonian/Assyrian/Indian godheads and temples. But it’s a GOOD Bull and it is SYMBOLIC it is not that PAGAN Bull-Worship stuff. Pay no attention to Aaron and the Israelites who just happened to make a Golden Calf when they thought that Moses had been smoked on the mountain top. And never mind those Cherubim Bull things around Yehoovaw’s throne, neither. One Man, one Lion, one Eagle and one Bull-thing, each with SIX wings singing the praise of an egomaniacal deity for eternity are not what they appear to be...

Talk about Paradoxical Psychological Manipulation!

Jehovah is not Jehovah it is Yahweh but it is not Yahweh it is Yahoovaw and that doesn't mean ‘crazy nutjob god that looks like a bull’ it means... a Chimeric Beast by any other name is still a Chimeric Beast and you can't point at the other guy's religion and say “Bad! Bad! Chimeric Beast. Mine is better than yours!”

So, this gives the appearance of what I was speaking of earlier when the Jesuits and Jews sat down to write the legends and histories of illiterate peoples for them and may have even co-opted literate societies like the ancient Indian traditions of Hinduism, etc. It is TOO COINCIDENTAL that Yahoovaw and Brahma are the same physical iconic figures. Can you see the TOTAL INSANITY of saying that the Hindus are bad because they worship a cow but your religion is OK because the bull is just a metaphor, a figure of speech, a turn of the phrase, a way of poetically describing what cannot be described? God made man in his own image so Edward Jenner vaccinated humans with Cow Pus. Plug THAT into YAHOO and check your search results. An old Archeological periodical is the one that tipped me that Yahoo was the already-established Canaanite Regional God when the Israelites came a squattin'. Yes, folks, the Yahoo! search engine is an invocation of the same entity. And if all the above wasn't enough the Australian author says that since YHVH was the Unpronounceable Name of God that you should be worshipping it under the assumed name of Eloah. To which I said, “Aloha!” And I am not making a joke. Eloah was one of the Names of Power in the 6th and 7th books of Moses. Yes, the Black Magick stuff I wrote about earlier. EloAH is used in constructing a Magick Circle.

I have been living with decoding: The Names-Have-Been-Changed-To-Protect-The-Guilty for the past 3 years now so none of this surprises me. What is mindblowing is that his work brought me all the way back to the word:

“Good.”

And the meanings of the word that we commonly think of as God or Good come with the attributes of:

“to crowd upon or attack and this means to invade or to overcome”

and also:

“that which is invoked (or worshipped) by sacrifice”

And please never forget that the only difference between invoking a Deity with a blood sacrifice and evoking a Demon with blood sacrifice is...

Well, just what is the difference?

See, if you Buy the Premise you Buy the Bit.

If their god is full of Bull and yours isn't; yet their Devil is drenched in blood and your God is too, then we have that mathematical equivalency going on that:

A~B (A is similar to B)

If the Horseshoe fits – wear it.

So...Supposedly Yahoovah formed man from dust and blew into his nostrils. All of these are Golem myths. There may very well be a second progenitor race of Men that is not malevolent or bent on destroying Slave Work Units but we will have to come up with a new name for ourselves because using the term HU-Man implies that they are Men of the HU and I wouldn't want to be associated with any City/State demonic deity family name if my genes do not match. The Jewish Myths indicate that Adam was not the first man but it was Adne Sadeh who was made first but was erased as a bad experiment. Oops! Reset Button! Do Over! (After all, you're God. If you make a mistake all's you have to do is erase the Etch-a-Sketch and try again. No one need know that you are not infallible). Eve was not the first wife of Hadamon Kadmon but it was Lilith instead and together Adam and Lilith formed LILIN, Demonesses, Succubi, Spirits and Imps. Adam mixed with Succubi to make half humans and half Demons. After Eve was formed she mixed with Samael/Satan and Incubi to form Demons including her son Qain (of Cain and Habel fame). No wonder Cain killed Abel if these creatures hate Hu-Mans. It does press the Opposite Day credibility button that Qain – a vegetarian – would be of a disposition and skill to kill his brother a hunter and slaughterer of animals, but Hey! what's a little Paradoxical Psychological Manipulation among friends? If you are going to beLIEve that a loving God demands that you spill blood on your own behalf or he will kill you and that same non-corporeal loving Spirit enjoys smelling the savor of burning flesh (hey, who but a vegetarian doesn't like barbeque?) – then you will beLIEve just about anything. Of course the ONLY mention of Lilith in my King James Version was a footnote saying “some ancient authorities say” Qain left with Lilith (to go off and start his race of half-breed demons). So, you are reading the Bible and it talks about Adam, Eve, Qain and Habel and then all of a sudden there is an instant wife (Lilith) and you are going, “Where in Hell did she come from?” and you would be right about the where in Hell part. Now, if you have an inquiring mind like I did and you ask the layperson deacons and theology-degree pastors what is going on with Lilith you get the: “The Bible is silent on that.” As if that is an answer! Of course the King James DiVersion is; but the Qabala, The Traditions of Moses and Jewish Folklore are screaming about Lilith. Thanks, Jimmy Stewart, for editing your momma out of your version of the Bible. And we haven't even mentioned Lilith's sister Na'A Mah...

It is impossible to know if the original texts were confusing, mistranslated or purposefully occulted but it seems that in the Qabala there were 2 Liliths. Grandmother Lilith the Great, and Little Lilith. Maybe Granny was her actual mother Tiamat, The Great Dragon, The Abyss, Chaos. After all in these Mesopotamian pantheons fathers and mothers were having incest with offspring; and siblings were also playing house. When a genome is that purebred does it really matter anymore who the actual characters in this Sick Play really are? They are like Evil Clones of each other. The sister of Lilith called Na'amah is also listed as her sister along with Agrat, Irit, Queen of Sheba. Not to worry Agrat is only dangerous on Wednesday and Friday nights. Lilith's son was named Hurmin.

This is where folklore fantasy and mass media fantasy that invades our reality crosses over. If we analyze the 1960s TV show The Munsters we see that LILY is the wife of HERMAN. HURMIN. Herman Munster was a Frankenstein's monster. Frankenstein the novel by the Jewess Mary Shelly was modeled off of the Jewish legend of the Golem, a man made out of clay by a rabbi who animates it by written spells. People erroneously call the creature in the novel and movie by the name of Frankenstein. That was the name of the scientist. The Monster that he created was named ADAM.

So, Art imitating Life becomes Adam married to Lilith. Grandpa was a Vampyre, their son was a werewolf. The original legends behind shapeshifting is that Witches took the form of wolves and the only way to kill a witch was with a silver bullet so the concept cross-applied that a silver bullet kills a werewolf. All this to demonstrate that the TV show was accurate to the ancient legends. Hidden in plain site and you didn't know it. Cousin Marylyn was a HU-Man and was considered ugly and an outcast. There was a pet dragon in the dungeon.

Art and Life blur when you compile the legends of the founding of Rome by Trojan Hero Aeneas, who is the Son of Aphrodite who we know is Lilith! So Rome is founded by the bloodline descendent of the original Whore of Babylon. Doesn't THIS fill out those gaps you were left in Sunday school? Now, just consider for a moment. If I can pull out a few 300 year-old books and put it together why is it that a LEGION of pastors and priests never told you The Rest of the Story?

Hu's On Top

The reason that Lilith is the Patron Saint of the Feminist movement is that a commonly known legend is that God formed Adam and wanted Lilith to mate with him. She didn't like his dominance so she left. She wanted to be on top. Some legends have her in a cave mating with demons creating 100 demon babies per day.  $100 \times 365 \text{ days} \times 10,000 \text{ years} = 365,000,000$  of her direct descendants running around today but does NOT account for any crossbreeding of her kids with us that would lead to an exponential growth factor. This might be the riddle of the number written on the Georgia Guidestones that they only want purebred demon kids to have the Earth as their playground. God wanted Lilith to come back to the Garden of Eden and service Adam, so he sent 3 things to collect her. Again, this becomes confusing because it is either a typo or the creatures sent to collect her were either demons or angels. But when we truly break this down, the Angels (known as Messengers of God) are actually military troops and the only thing that distinguishes the allegiance of these things is that one-third left the conscription of God to follow The Adversary. In the negotiations to induce Lilith to come back the demoness was allowed to produce demons all day long and kill only children who did not have an Amulet with the names of the three creatures that hauled her back to her duties: Senoy, Sansenoy, and Semangelof.

And I'll bet you thought I was done with the names...

It turns out in Jewish Myths that Elijah met Lilith and exerted some kind of leverage where she bargained this time with him to let her go about her nefarious ways as long as she revealed her SECRET NAMES to him so that she could be controlled.

Now, come on folks. There is a limit to credibility here. There are supposed HU-Mans bargaining with demons for limited control and there is a belief that a demon will not LIE, occult, omit or otherwise adjust the terms of the contract? And, once given this method of control, since I know only those inducted into the Black Arts have even a glimmer of this information, why was this knowledge not disseminated to mankind for their own protection? If this had any validity or usefulness then holding it secret would imply a racism of the holders of this information against any other race or culture.

I do not claim to know if these Secret Names are valid. I do not claim to know how to use them other than they come with specific instructions that they MUST be inscribed and hung to ward her off. Of, course you would be stupid if you thought they had any substance or value inscribed in anything other than the original Hebrew so some of you will have to learn a new language. But, knowledge is power, folks and if there are these SECRET NAMES (how secret could they be if I could read them in a library book?) then

I give them to you for you to sort out. What we need is secret-holders the Ba'al Shem Masters of the Secret Names to come out of the closet. To understand what Chief Seattle said that we are all in the web of life and what is done to one part of the web is done to all of us because unless certain tribes or races have interplanetary spaceships in their garages, from what I know that the Blood Cults have done to our bodies and our planet no one can escape the destruction.

Her 13 Secret Names are:

Lilith, Abiti, Abizu, Amrusu, Hakash, Ode, Ayil, Matruta, Avgu, Katah, KALI, Batub, and Paritasha.

Sex and Drugs and Rock n Roll

Since I started this work I have found that there are three camps of thought:
Gods and Demons.

Aliens.

Hallucinogenic Drugs.

Since you can see the other 3 if you are doing drugs I rule that out right away. Personally, I have never seen a God, a Demon, or an Alien. I speak frequently of the association of the Demon with Disease and a directly causal relation to viruses. I have never seen a Virus either. I know that you can demonstrate them in a lab using Plaque Formation, Fluorescent Antibody tests, Gene Sequencing and Electron Microscopes, however there are some rather cogent theories out there that what we have been sold as viruses, including their family pictures may be disinformation. I do know that whatever our Virus Friends might be they have been weaponized and used against us since the 1930s. There may not have been a Natural Disease in North American, and later the World, after that decade. It may all have come from laboratories.

Here is the email that I am trying to circulate around the world:

I have uncovered the End Game of what they are able to do (want to do) with vaccines. This is to imply that The Game will still continue when global genocide is out of reach.

The American network ABC had a show called Prime Time and that had a subshow called Medical Mysteries and they featured a young man who actually looked like a tree.

THIS IS WHAT HAPPENS WHEN YOU GET THE HPV VIRUS AND THEY SHUT YOUR IMMUNE SYSTEM OFF.

I do not think that Dede is simply some accident of Nature out in the jungle. I think that he like the others shown in the video are experiments of what they can do with specific vaccines when they have created immunodeficiency.

Think of the kind of extortion that can be wielded if they let you know that you and your children have been shot up with HPV and all they have to do is shut off your immune system and you will grow like a freak. They could ransom your life and health with another 'magic potion' to be able to keep the disease from expressing (they would never eliminate it from your body even if that were possible - which I don't think it is).

Feel free to spread this information around because, although I do not sow fear, the population of the world needs to know what the end result of these mystery vaccines they are willingly accepting can ultimately do to them.

This single story should be the only thing needed to convince people to avoid the vaccine. No rational thinking person could ever see this and consider the HPV vaccine for anything other than what it is: Shooting a Demon into your body.

Now, just imagine that what Dede had become was the forced expression of what a Demon really looks like. The innocent young man was assaulted by this weaponized virus and immune system inhibitor molecular switch. He is not a bad person or a demon himself. The VIRUS becomes known through a body that cannot suppress it. Count how many vaccines you have had in your life. Now imagine that they are all separate expressions of discreet Demons that could come out of your skin at any time the Overlords decided to shut down a part of your immune system. Now imagine that all of these Demons, who we might call: LEGION are waiting inside your cells to come together as DNA does into a coherent pattern and they link to form a NEW GENOME. The new genome takes over and your entire molecular machinery that was YOU goes away forever.

Tell me it isn't so. I have stared into the Abyss so long I can predict what they might do next.

Where are those hallucinogenic drugs! ? you ask. (Either we need them now to calm down, or what I just described is a Bad Trip). They're here. They have been here as far back as 800 BC and maybe longer. That is just as far back as I could document currently. The city of Eleusis is near Athens Greece. The Mysteries of Eleusis was a religious orgy celebrated for Demeter (Lilith) and her daughter Persephone (Na'am'aah) using a drink of barley water, mint and ERGOT! LSD was synthesized from Ergot in 1938 or 1943 depending on who you consult. As I said before, I think the Witches had the drop on modern labs for millennia.

Stars in your eyes

Lilith even has a star named after her and no, she didn't buy it from the Star Registry.

AL-G-OL is a bright star in Perseus, known as the Demon's Head to the Arabs and Lilith to the Jews, Medusa's Head to the Greeks. It is a variable star with a dark star companion orbiting it making it appear to wink. Now, how ancient cultures knew this without modern telescopes is beyond my explanation. The breakdown of G-OL is exactly the way that the cast of Star Gate would choke on the word Ghoul. The Ghou'ld were parasitic symbiotes that made people do bad things. Hmm. Sounds a bit like rabies viral infection.

Sounds a bit crazy, like I would have to be making this kind of thing up...

Well, Kids, if this doesn't freak your socks off and bring you up to speed with the way that I understand the universe to be, in a tangible scientifically demonstrable way, then just send me in some free King James Versions to save my soul and I will use them this winter in my woodburning stove:

<http://discovermagazine.com/photos/04-zombie-animals-and-the-parasites-that-control-them>

Isn't it a bit coincidental that Star Gate Atlantis (a real word used in Ancient Egyptian Papyrus) had Energy Vampires called Wraith? A Ghul is an Arabic vampyre that feeds on the dead and drives people crazy. Medusa was a Gorgon and was from a group of Three Sisters. Keep the symbol of 3 in mind when you get to the end of this paper. The Zohar says that Lilith is at her full power during the Waning Moon.

Another Occult Note:

The Hive Mind Entity that is called Jehovah, Yahweh, Yahuhovah, etc has 72 SECRET names in the Qabala. I am short about 8 names of Lilith in this document. There are two reasons for this. I have not gotten to the end of my search for the Mother of the Other Side plus I would NEVER put all 72 names in one document or say them all on the air at one time. I do not beLIEve that anything would happen and I know my white-boy pronunciation of the words are far from accurate, however, when the sign says: Beware of Dog, it is unwise to open the gate and walk right in...Fluffy might be Rabid.

Horse of a Different Color

The Anglo-Saxon poem called "Men's Crafts" has wiccræft, which appears to be the same word, and by its context means "skill with horses." In a c.1250 translation of "Exodus," witches is used of the Egyptian midwives who save the newborn sons of the Hebrews: "De wicches hidden hem for-ðan, Biforen pharaun nolden he ben."

I coined the phrase: Satanic Pet Organism for the microbes that the governments of the world coddle into their beloved bioweapons since the 1930s. Organisms like Tetanus have no Western Medicine intervention besides vaccines despite the fact that Tetanus has been in control of western medicine for at least 100 years. You would think that they would have come up with a 'cure'. Dr. Carley taught me that there are homeopathic remedies for this and other diseases. Clostridia Tetani is ubiquitous. That means it is everywhere. It is on you now. Don't freak out. It is an anaerobic organism meaning that it grows in lack of oxygen like in the supposed puncture wound of the rusty nail in your foot. Bacteria like fungi become toxigenic ONLY when infected by viruses called Bacteriophages. This means that although you have Diphtheria all over your body and in your respiratory system it will not put off poisons unless it has been itself infected. In order for Tetanus to become toxigenic it must pass through the digestive tract of a horse. This is why they say you are at risk if you step on a rusty nail that was in a field where there were horses at least 100 years ago. Clostridia is a spore forming bacteria that means it has an armor shell. They can last that long until given the right conditions to 'germinate'.

So, here is a connection with Horses and dangerous microorganisms.

Witches as a cult have a commanding knowledge of microorganisms. Their work might not read like a manual from a pharmaceutical company but it is the end results that count not what name you call the process. There has always been a close association with Witches and Blacksmiths. Blacksmiths work Iron which is supposed to be bad for Witches so it makes you wonder why they work together. Horseshoes hung above a door were said to ward off Witches and Evil. The Nightmare was the spectral horse of the Succubi who visited you at night while in bed. The ancient Kung Fu Masters and Alchemists wrote their material in code or in cryptic language so that only an initiate would know what was going on. The theme of Horses is too integrated into the legends of Witchcraft that it cannot be ignored. What it fully means we may never know but the hints are there that practitioners of Witch Kraft were Centuries if not Millennia in advance of what the Mad Scientists were doing in the 1930s. The only difference between what the Witches of Old did and what the Witches in Lab Coats do is simply a matter of Mass Production.

Hyperparasitism

So, just what am I saying? The ancient Egyptian texts say that there were 4 progenitor races: Yellow, Black, White and Swarthy. The Jewish myths say that Adam and Eve got it on with Lilith and Satan. That there is 'palpable evil' in the world like the Gnostics say is beyond debate. Where did it come from?

In my search in biology and medicine you find the concept of Hyperparasitism. Hegner best said it in his work: Big Fleas Have Little Fleas. Essentially a large multicellular organism (insert your name here: _____) can be infected by a parasite that can in turn be infected with a bacteria that in turn can be infected with a virus.

I was studying toxigenic fungus and the authors outlined the process but not causation. After reading entire books I was left dumber than before I cracked the book open so I went to a taxonomy listing of microorganisms. In that book it had listed viruses that infected fungi. VIRUSES THAT INFECTED FUNGI! ? I had been on the trail of Bacteriophages which were viruses that infected bacteria that cause them to become toxic. Why wouldn't the same principle apply to fungus? Why did some boring dude write a book with no useful information, get a lab, a professorship, and government grants while I'm eating beans and rice and sending out free emails? Well, we know the answer to that, he's getting rewarded for occulting The Truth. Later I stumbled over some information that viruses can themselves be infected by VIRUSES!

New topic: Rabies causes Hypersexuality, Rage and Cannibalism. The traits of the Aeshmo Daevo (Asmodeus, son of Samael and Lilith) is Lust and Rage. Hmmm. Seems like a match to me. Demons are Disease. Uttuku. Do you see it yet? What if? What if demons are: disease are: viruses that make even large organisms like Hu-Mans toxigenic against their own species? (Somebody give me a Nobel Freakin' Peace Prize over that Idea!) What if there were two or more distinct species of Hu-Mans one or more of which HATED the non-aggressive, non-killer, non-Demon kind and wanted to destroy them? What if such a genetic variation or viral infection could be determined by a blood test or gene sequencing screening?

The TV show Prey with Debra Messing set up a plot where Hu-Mans co-habited the planet with organisms that looked like them but viewed them as Prey. How much closer to the Truth do you need from your flashing HypnoBox?

The Tetragrammaton YHVH: Yod Heh Vav Heh is called the Wise One just like the Ahura Mazda. So there were Wise Men and Wise Women. What struck me about the book Witches, Midwives and Nurses was that the authors always referred to the village doctor/shamans as “Wise Women Healers”. Now, if you trace the lineage of the Old Religion back to these bloodthirsty gods and their self-proclaimed monikers of “Wise Ones” then their followers/children would carry the same title whether it was true or not. They also might carry the same genes.

Have you ever wondered why the Mormon Church as the largest genealogy database on the planet? Have you ever wondered, my dear Slave Work Unit, why they started the Hu-Man Genome Project? When not a damn thing ever came of it from the standpoint of miracle cures in medicine. So, what is its purpose other than to identify US from Them?

Now, what if Evil was infectious (demonic possession)? What if Evil was identifiable in the laboratory? What if it could be killed?

Never forget that the Silver Bullet can kill a Witch. Could this be why the FDA is banning Colloidal Silver because they say it is a THREAT TO THE ENVIRONMENT?

STOP!

I WILL NOT BE A TOOL OF THE INSANE RABID RELIGIOUS MIND-VIRUS CARRIERS who only need a new target to home in on and destroy. My work has provoked responses in the public that can only be interpreted as those that preceded the Inquisition and Witch Hunts. This kind of reasoning is to determine the Origin of Evil and wipe it out. No one EVER talks about Killing The Devil! Bible beLIEvers have been taught to HATE mankind (including themselves). Killing the infected does not cure the disease. What happens in these situations is a bunch of nutjobs organized around Illuminati agitators round up innocent people, instigating centuries of carnage while the Illuminati watch in glee and remain free.

IF Evil is a disease then it can be cured, eradicated, healed.

If Evil is a race then we must identify and separate from it just like removing a parasite from the host.

If Evil is a choice then we must eliminate that choice.

Read: Who Goes There? the short story that became the sci-fi movie The Thing. We must move with rational precision towards the goal of understanding the threat and neutralizing it or the Reset Button will be pushed and we will be reliving the Nightmare all over again from 1200 AD.

THAT'S WEIRD!

You've been waiting for it – the symbol at the beginning of the paper:

And you thought it was the Biohazard Symbol. WRONG! (buzzer sound please, you do not win the prize). I had indicated in a previous show:

“If you have perfume, a gazing ball in your yard, digitalis in your medicine cabinet, rabbit's foot key chain, necklaces, charm bracelets, Lily flowers on religious altars, horseshoe above your door, devil's horns hand sign at rock concerts, tied a knot of string on your finger to remember, celebrated Hallowe'en, then your life has been affected by the influence of Witchcraft.”

Let's add the Weird Symbol to that.

The Three Fates known as Wyrd (Weird) represented Birth, Life, Death; Maiden, Mother, Crone. The Norn of Nordic legend. The Three Fates of Greek legend were the daughters of ZeUS, and ThemIS. You may be familiar with the sister Clotho spinning the Thread of Life; Lachesis measuring out the thread; and Atropos cutting the thread. Lachesis, by the way, is the Bushmaster genus of poisonous snakes.

The symbol is the Triple Crescent Moon and we have already made the association of Lilith being the Moon Goddess/Demoness, Night Monster, Child Killer.

Hu's your Momma?

Biohazard indeed.

REFERENCES:

The citations below are contemporary texts but you will see that they all reference the earliest manuscripts possible. There is no biblical 'consensus of texts in agreement.' You go to the earliest recorded accounts, get a sense of what the psychosis is, follow it throughout history and come to your own conclusion not the one pre-packaged for you. Take a rainy day, put a sledgehammer through your TV and curl up with a copy of the Epic of Gilgamesh and you will see that you have simply been watching 5000 years of re-runs. Sorting through the name confusion for me took many years and 300-year-old texts but of recent help were:
