

KING JAMES DIVERSION

Hello, Dr. Carley. Hello, Listeners. This is Pat Jordan coming to you from the Grain Ghetto in Illinois on audio tape.

Who was King James 6 of Scotland who became King James 1 of England?

James Stuart, was the son of Mary Queen of Scots who was a born a Stewart spelled STEWART in Scottish because she was the daughter of James 5. She was married before but she later married Henry Stewart spelled STEWART who changed to the French the spelling of his name STUART. Henry's occulted name was Lord Darnley. Henry and Mary were simply cousins. Bloodline couplings. You can already see that when you call someone by a Title you have NO IDEA who they really are. Mary was a great granddaughter of Henry 7 another title for Henry Tudor – if that name is even real.

Mary Queen of Scots had her head chopped off. I have exposed minor bits of the confusion around vampyres from ancient Babylonia to the present but I have not yet revealed that the stake in the heart was not the method of killing a vampyre but rather a method of grounding the corpse to the Ea-rth as if it were an electrical circuit by pounding a stake through the chest through the coffin into the Ea-rth below AFTER THE HEAD WAS CUT OFF. Cutting off the head was the only recognized way of killing a vampyre. I'm not commenting on what Mary Queen of Scots was or was not – just giving a historical observation.

So, we have a clear Bloodline succession of the rulers of England, not some invading barbarian claiming Right of Conquest. That is...unless you wonder who these Bloodlines were and where they originally came from. What we know is that the Babylonian/Sumerian/Egyptian/Hebrew structures is that of intensely inbred lineages restricted to sisters and cousins. Before you take serious offense to that statement first consider – then confirm for yourself – that Abram married his half-sister and BOTH of Jacob/Yakob's wives were his FIRST COUSINS. Jacob was later renamed Ys-Ra-EL that means he struggles with God. Jihad with God. Sadam Hussein married his sisters as did the Pharaohs of Egypt. Franklin Delano Roosevelt married his cousin and treasonously destroyed our Constitutional Republic. I have to independently confirm the allegation that Mary and Joseph the parents of Emmanu-EL were cousins. To the common man and woman off the street such incestuous relationships are said to be and enforced as taboo. Funny word: Taboo. It is Polynesian for: Sacred. It means to set aside an object or person as sacred or accursed. I'll bet you didn't know that. You never would if you didn't look. You would never know that King James and his entire lineage was inbred – unless you looked.

The breeding of these so-called Rulers is reminiscent of mass copulations of Garter snakes in Canada that form one writhing pit of serpents in the Spring.

Funny you should mention: Garter.

Margaret Alice Murry who is a British Egyptologist, Archeologist and Anthropologist plus expert of the origins of Witchcraft says that Edward 3 started the Order of the Garter as a disguised Coven. I tried to get her books at my library but they were marked as Missing From Shelf. Quite often I do not give my literary references because most of the extremely important works that expose this Black Magick plot all have the same notice: Missing From Shelf. You can rest assured that I reference primary source whenever possible and try to obtain first edition copies to insure that the work has not been censored. Two introductory resources to the material that I have synthesized are Cassell Dictionary of Witchcraft, David Pickering, 1996, ISBN# 0-304-35098-2; and Dictionary of Mysticism and the Esoteric Traditions, Nevill Drury, 1992, ISBN# 0-87436-699-2.

The priest Craig Oxley exposes that George W. Bush is a member of the Order of the Garter. George W. Bush can be traced by the genealogy at all the way back to Edward 1 Longshanks of England. The United States of America never ceased to be a British Colony. In this same Royal Tree you will find that Franklin Delano Roosevelt, Winston Churchill and Colin Powell were ALL from the same bloodline. This should be of no surprise when you consider that Roosevelt, Churchill, and Stalin (Yosef Jugoshvilli meaning Joseph Jewison) divided up the entire globe after WWII. Your entire planet of Ea-rth has been basically been marked for territory by dogs that all came from the same She-Dog, whose name would be Lilith.

<http://www.illuminati-news.com/royal-trees.htm>

The British Empire never died or faded away. It just changed its name just like British Royalty and the names of demongods from Babylon to the present.

So, what makes King James 1 special?

Here is where we must invoke Nihilism – the suspension of beLIEf. We must separate what we were told, from what we want to beLIEve, from random facts, from what we REALLY KNOW. Depending on the biographer and their apologetics they will give you ‘facts’ and then explanations for those ‘facts’. A Christian writer will tell you that King James 1 often called his male ‘favorites’: “darling” or “sweetheart” and that it wasn’t gay because it was the convention of this era. His bodyguards slept in the same bed with him as a matter of security. He held hands with and kissed men in greeting but this was all sanctioned by the Bible – The Holy Kiss – and the convention of the era. I’ve been around the world. I know that in many cultures men hold hands in public. George W. Bush was filmed holding hands with the King of Saud. I also know that in nearly all of these societies both modern and ancient that some of these hand-holding men also bugged young boys, men, animals and prostitutes. To hold James 1 to a different standard because of an Ideal is wishful thinking to put it mildly.

From whence comes Wishful Thinking?

I must digress at this point to demonstrate that the very notion of Wishful Thinking is based on the Egyptian Mysteries Cult’s Magickal Thinking: Wishing for a thing makes it so. Nearly every Christian I have met has been infected with this Mind Virus including the form of “Speak of the Devil – and he will appear.” This premise is based off of the summoning rituals where you would purposely evoke the Secret Name of the entity you wanted to raise. No danger here, since Hasatan/Satan simply means: The Adversary. Just like The Devil being a derivation of Dævos a Greek word for Spirit of the Air. They are only TITLES. Just like the royalty of England you would NEVER KNOW WHAT THEIR REAL NAMES ARE UNLESS YOU LOOKED!

So, you could speak those TITLES all day long and it wouldn't make a bit of difference any more than calling out the word 'governor' but not specifying if it was Schwarzenegger or Ryan. Unless you are evoking Heyl-EL/Sama-EL then you don't even know it's Public Name, let alone it's Secret Name.

But, back to Wishful Thinking.

King James was keenly interested in Witchcraft and even participated in the trials of the Witches of North Berwick including Agnes Sampson. James Stuart wrote his book Dæmonologie in 1597 to refute Reginald Scot's 1584 book Discoverie of Witchcraft. Scot's premise was that Witchcraft was a delusion, therefore, it could NOT be taken seriously, THEREFORE, the MURDERS AND CONFISCATION OF WEALTH from the innocents accused from 1200-1700 AD would be, themselves, criminal acts. James Stewart recognized the need of the Empire to perpetuate the charade so he had Scot's books all burnt by the Royal Hangman. So much for rational discourse and debate. But wait! You say: Patrick Jordan has been saying all along that Witchcraft is the Cult of KI-EL the Demon Vampyre Moon Goddess! This is the same Pagan Religion – The Old Religion – for the past 6000 years!

So what is there to debate?

How could King James be wrong?

How could Reginald Scot be right?

Allow me to clear up any confusion surrounding the statements in my book ICD-999:

- ▶ You do not need to beLIEve in Gods or Demons.
- ▶ Gods and Demons do not need to exist.
- ▶ That others believe and ACT on those beliefs are the only threat to Mankind.

What kind of tangible threat?

I had an old neighbor and we got along well. One day he told me in confidence that his pet dog could talk. Of course I did not believe him and told him so, but he was adamant and being elderly I humored him. After some time had passed he told me that his pet dog told him that the dog did not like me. This was disturbing but I laughed it off assuming that a man of age and wisdom would see that we had been good neighbors for years. At our next visit the old man told me that his pet dog had told him that the dog hated me and that the old man should kill me.

- ▶ I did not need to believe in a dog that talked.
- ▶ The talking dog did not need to be real.

► That the old man beLIEved that the imaginary talking dog had ordered me dead and was going to act on it was the only tangible threat.

This story is total fiction. I made it up to demonstrate the extreme point of the belief in a non-existent external controlling agent simply by the use of suggestion. This is not unlike the fabrication of the Book of Revelation to paralyze 80% of the world's population into NON-ACTION because they had already been given a script on how the world was to end and they were told they could do nothing to stop it and every encouragement to make it happen.

- The Book of Revelation does not need to be real.
- The world does not have to end.
- If people believe it must end and either do nothing to stop a pre-scripted process or work to make it happen simply because they were told to then Mankind is in danger. This is what is called a Self-Fulfilling Prophecy.

BeLIEf is the core problem that needs to be resolved. In my book, ICD-999, I relay a story about how for 91 YEARS scientists beLIEved that the Noble Gasses did not interact with any other elements. Science and BeLIEf are incompatible bedfellows. Please allow me to digress here for just a moment to talk about the origin of our common phrase: "In bed together." A local Illinois documentary outlined how during the time of Abraham Lincoln that judges and lawyers rode the circuit – from which we get Circuit Courts. They were not paid much so they often found that they traveled the same roads with other court officers like bailiffs, or prosecutors and when they arrived in towns along the way they would also share dining and lodging. Due to either the lack of accommodation or their own lack of income they might, like Lincoln and some Judges, share a bed to sleep in. In Bed Together. That is way too intimate a relationship for a system that must remain neutral at all times. Back to Science and our Noble Gasses – the things that were listed on the Periodic Chart of the Elements as not mixing with any other element: Some maverick in 1962 took a glass flask of Xenon – a noble gas – added Platinum Hexafluoride, put it in a window in the sunlight and got Xenon Platinum Hexafluoride.

To not act is a choice and therefore a reaction to stimulus. Scientists until 1962 were ACTING on their beLIEf that Noble Gasses would not react so science remained paralyzed and ignorant until someone applied the Nihilism of SUSPENDING BELIEF. When beLIEf is abandoned the only thing left is INQUIRY. Inquiry leads to UNDERSTANDING but that is solely based on EXPERIENCE. This is the heart of the Scientific Method that begins with OBSERVATION.

One of the saddest examples of this sick religion is found in the doctor in North Carolina who injected a small boy with a vaccine. The boy lost consciousness, hit his head on the floor and died. The doctor denied that the vaccine caused it and recorded 'head injury' on the death certificate.

The doctor was a Witch who believed that it was his duty to kill a boy by causing the boy to be possessed by the Demon prepared in the syringe. The doctor did not need to be a Witch and the vaccine did not need to be a Demon for the boy to die. It was solely the beLIEf of the doctor that he must cause the boy to die that made it so. Do you see that I have surgically removed everything except the CHOICE to do evil? There were outside agents at work because if he did not give the boy a shot he would not be paid for the execution. But that again is a choice. He could have chosen to remain poor, unrewarded or change professions. Even if the doctor genuinely BELIEVED that vaccines were GOOD the end result would be a choice to do evil because as a doctor, he had a unique perspective and ability to understand what was in the syringe and what it could do. Like every professional I know in healthcare he probably never even read the lousy package insert and warnings. Acting on a beLIEf is nearly always fatal.

Throughout my work, however, I have demonstrate that even though things from the ancients may have been clouded in mystical terms there may be a rational, scientific corollary to the concepts, principles and physical manifestations of what is otherwise discounted as paranormal or supernatural superstition.

The doctor WAS a Witch and the vaccine WAS a Demon. The Ancient Sumerian Uttuku were the Demons that caused disease. Each disease name was the name of a Demon. The definition of a Demonic Possession is that it enters through a portal, takes over the person and causes damage. The needle punched a hole in the child, the Uttuku entered the child – possessed him – took him over and caused damage. The doctor used a Witches Potion. Witches potions were made of animal blood, toxic metals and poisons. This is the very definition of a vaccine. We have simply taken 6000 years of mystic language and recodified it into street terms and the appearance, action and results are identical.

Infection is possession.

When Rabies enters through a bite or needle, this is a portal. Rabies takes over the Central Nervous system of the most advanced life forms on the planet and makes them into hypersexual, violent, cannibals. This is the clinical definition of Demonic Possession. Uttuku. It was not the Demon of the classical pictorial form of legend with the leathern wings, horns and cloven feet; but the MANIFESTATION of it is the single defining factor. Therefore, if you facilitate the resurrection of such a demon as the doctor did with his needle, it does not matter what corporeal form the Uttuku has because the Evil End Result is accomplished by ACTING ON A BELIEF. The doctor summoned the demon and sacrificed the child to it.

I have speculated in small circles of my contacts that the PATTERN seen in the behavior of the ILU AMON ATYS is that they are indeed trying to resurrect some kind of Demon Beast by the genetic pollution of the HU-Man genome. To purposefully shoot up children and adults with Measles, Mumps, Rubella, Diphtheria, Tetanus, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Rotavirus, Shingles, Chicken Pox, Anthrax, Small Pox, Rabies, Polio, Hepatitis, Pneumonia, Encephalitis, Meningitis, West Nile, Tuberculosis, Vaccinia, Yellow Fever, Malaria, HIV, gives the impression that they are trying to re-write and reassemble the component parts of something bigger and something EVIL. Whether or not this is Satan incarnate being injected into the nucleus of your cells DOES NOT MATTER. That the doctors and nurses are injecting it because of beLIEf and that people are rolling up their sleeves because of beLIEf is the single threat to the existence of Mankind.

Nihilism – the abandonment of beLIEf must be invoked with Autism. The first and cardinal step of the Scientific Method is Observation. When a mother brings her child in for an MMR shot and the child goes from an outgoing, joyful human to a hand-flapping introvert this is a Temporal Association of Cause and Effect. This is the essence of Science. When the Witch Doctor denies the association and enforces his beLIEf that it was not the vaccine – it is NEVER the vaccine – then Nihilism would have demanded that it be proven by laboratory confirmation that it was NOT the vaccine IN EACH INDIVIDUAL CASE. That mothers have finally risen up after 1 out of 5 children in North American has been neurologically damaged shows that it was primarily beLIEf that the doctor was right that it wasn't the vaccine that flipped the switch from normal to damaged. It had to be something else. It must be environment. We must need ANOTHER congressional study. It's a puzzle. It couldn't be the obvious that first 1 out of 2000 were being damaged then 1 out of 500 then 1 out of 250 by the time Burton dangled an unreachable carrot in front of the public. Don't trust yourself. Don't trust your guts. Don't trust the FACTS, just trust the doctor. After all, he was trained in medicine and you have made no attempts all of your life to even understand your own body at the most rudimentary level. He gave you the parental assurance that 'Everything is going to be alright' and 'Go back to sleep' to lull you back into your mind-controlled stupor. Take comfort in the beLIEf that if it is happening to that many kids that SOMEONE will look into it and the SYSTEM has your best interests in mind and that since it is happening to everyone else that you are at least SUFFERING TOGETHER.

Inquiry would remove the veil of idiocy on the use of vaccines. Understanding would prevent doctors from using them and patients from submitting to them. Control over your health and environment would FREE you from FEAR of the retribution of petulant gods and malevolent demons. But all of this is based on Knowledge and taking Responsibility for that Knowledge and we all know that the pursuit of Knowledge was killed in the initial stories of Bible Indoctrination. The Tree of the KNOWLEDGE of Good and Evil was FORBIDDEN. And has been ever since. KNOWLEDGE is POWER. POWER is CONTROL. You have to ABANDON beLIEf that you are not entitled to Knowledge and Power in order to take Control of your life.

Knowledge of WHO and WHAT?
Control over WHO and WHAT?

As we have seen over the course of my own literature archeology the names of Diseases since Ancient Babylon were the names of Demons. Puerperal Fever is also known as Childbed Fever. It is the very thing that Semmelweis was trying to eliminate with enforcing hand washing by physicians. It is the very disease that he died of when they imprisoned him in the Nut House. Semmelweis was not afraid to stand against beLIEfs because he knew that Life depended on it. They made him pay with his own life. What no one understands is that with your first vaccine you have been permanently injured and your life has been purposely shortened. Many gun-toting New World Order opponents are waiting for the first shot to be fired in order to justify drawing first blood. As I have said in public before: World War III began in 1790 with Jenner's first shot of vaccination. You are already dead. There is nothing to be afraid of. There is nothing to wait for.

Puerperal Fever in Armenian Magicks is called by the demon name "Al". This is very reminiscent of the AL or 'Lord' suffix of BA-AL or the proper name of ALL-AH, or the Babylonian EL which when reduced to the consonant form because they had no vowels in the alphabets of those regions we get the letter "L". Quite a tricky package. The name "L" is irreversible so if you wanted to reverse evoke the "L" entity as is very common in closing a Black Magic summoning spell – you couldn't. That is why we need help from you – the listeners. Only with the Secret Names can you exert any control over these demons. Whether they are microorganisms or actual transdimensional extraterrestrial entities – it simply doesn't matter. As I wrote twenty-five years ago: If you can name it – you can model it – if you can model it – you can control it.

What is 'IT'?

Just what do we need to control?

The "L" is the same Baba ILI or Baba ILU by which Babylon got its name. The Nation/State god of "L". We come full circle to ILU, LILU, LILUTUV, LILITH.

The Old Religion – Witchcraft.

This tantalizes many listeners because they think of Witchcraft as a Thing. It is viewed as a beLIEf a Pagan Religion, a Practice, a Force. The Witchhunters of old beLIEved that Witchcraft was carried in the blood. This would make it a lineage. This would make it genetic. Tearing it from the realm of Make Believe to a clinically demonstrable fact of the physical descendents of Lilutuv.

The physical subspecies Race of Witches have had masterful command of disease microorganisms, herbs and poisons, and minerals in the form of alchemy from the beginning. That sounds like Modern Medicine today. When Abram and Moses each left Egypt it was always after they had unleashed a Plague. You will notice, as if your tongue has found a missing tooth, that I have subtracted God from the common stories. This is the purpose of Nihilism. To reduce something to its irreducible prime. When read from a dispassionate Nihilistic view, the stories of Abram and Moses leaving Egypt after plagues are the definition of knowledge of and control of biological warfare. Some religious people say that it was a judgment from God, like AIDS. But the facts on the ground are that AIDS was a bioweapon created in a lab and the only thing that we really know is that Abram and Moses both left Egypt after Plagues. Although demons and gods have been promoted for 6000 years there is no scientific clinical proof of either yet the followers of ALL religions through all time from Roman Catholics to Protestants to Jews to Muslims all claiming to be children of Abram offer only "believe what I say or I will kill you." Convert or Die. Not a pleasant proposal but still lacks the proof of anything except perhaps psycho-sociopathic behavior of humans who worship a God of Death.

The bloodsoaked history of Europe was that of the Catholic Rulers and Catholic Church killing anyone who did not swear fealty to it until the Protestants got into control and then they killed their opposition too. The Protestant High Commission Court in England and the Star Chamber were the equals to the Inquisition. God is Love. Love is Murder and Suffering.

The Traditions of Moses were transmitted orally. The word Qabala means From Lips to Ear. It was a SECRET oral tradition. Ancient Hebrew text looks nothing like the modern script. Many claim primacy for The Bible being the world's oldest religion, however, the Egyptian Book of Life erroneously called The Book of the Dead was written 4000 years ago about the time that Abram entered Egypt. All of the concepts of the Hebrew Bible including The Judgment Seat and The Lake of Fire originate in this text. So this begs the question of:

- ▶ Did Abram bring his Babylonian Mysteries with him to Egypt where they were codified?
- ▶ Or – Did Abram take his religion from the Egyptians?
- ▶ Or – Did Abram and the Egyptians shop for the bits of religion that they liked from each other and mix them and share their two styles of Black Magic?

See the Egyptian Book of Life by Dr. Ramses Seleem, 1988, ISBN # 1-84296-066-4 to reveal the templates of the central myth structures that he claims shaped all other religions. He also mentions the origin of the EGYPTIAN word: Atlantis.

Around 666 BC when some of the tribes of Israel were in 'captivity' in Babylon, the Traditions of Moses in the form of the Torah and Talmud were both written for the first time. Never forget that Abram came from Ur of the Chaldees – world famous Black Magicians – which is geographically Sumeria in southern Babylonia that we call Iraq. Can it be viewed as the Hebrews in captivity or a homecoming? The Torah has been transmitted to the Goy – Cattle – Beasts of Burden – Food Animals – Slave Work Units as the Five Books of Moses. The 6th and 7th Books of Moses were included in Bibles like the Weimar in 1505 and printed in English around 1880. These were Spell Casting texts complete with the Names of Power and some hints to the Secret Names of God that were known ONLY to the Qabalists Ba'al Shem – Masters of the Divine Name. All 72 of them – so as to imply a Hive Entity. If you have ever wondered why, when you pray to God and your prayers are never answered you might want to consider what weight 1/72nd of a name might evoke during your supplication. The name "God" in Babylonian was synonymous with Good and was the deity of Luck and Good Fortune. The name "God" has become almost a generic TITLE like Governor. If you aren't calling out for Arnold or George you might not get a response. The Names of Power outlined in the 6th and 7th books of Moses are categorized by what specific things can be requested of each one or group of names. My favorite is the very short windows on which days and time of days such summonings can be made. Sorry, I can't come to the Magick Circle right now, but if you leave your name and number, I'll get back to you. Perhaps you are gifted with a small ray of sunshine in a sea of suffering and call it answered prayer. What is the statistical probability that it wasn't just random chance? Perhaps your prayer got a negative, unfavorable or punishing response. What is the statistical probability that wasn't just random chance? Statistically we should see a Standard Bell Curve distribution of Good and Evil for everyone since it rains on the Just and the Unjust – no matter how unjust that statement of fact is – but since God works in Mysterious Ways perhaps you just needed to learn a punishing lesson despite the fact that your sin debt was already paid in full.

Mysterious Ways. How could a Christian even say those words without realizing their origin from the Ancient Egyptian Mysteries School where souls were doomed to reincarnation until they had learned the lesson that they had to acquire in their multiple lives? The same Mystery School that gave you Magickal Thinking gives you Mysterious Ways as a deflection from the logic that either you are way too stupid to know how to do the right thing to please a petulant god with the disposition of a vicious child demanding loyalty like a Street Gang Leader by beating his homeys; or that there is an engineered disruption in the Natural flow of random events. The Egyptian Gnostic Gospels talk about this world having a Palpable Evil. There is no Bell Curve distribution here. There is so much evil on this planet that it defies random chance or divine acquiescence from a Voyeur as we find in the Zoroastrian Ahurah Mazda who just passively watches it happen. IT IS ENGINEERED. The pat answer of the faithful is that same excuse found in the Persian Zoroastrian myth that the Ahriman is given free rein by his father Kronos and Mazda is too perfect to interfere with Evil so man will have to fight Evil FOR GOD. In third grade I learned two things that shaped my life from that point forward. The IF, THEN statement in mathematics and the rules of SETS and SUBSETS. I can only judge an entity by my own standards. If I were all powerful I would stop Evil at all costs. The only thing necessary for Evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing. That is a heavy burden to place if men were not the architects of Evil and Evil was not their firstborn deity Twin. The only thing necessary for Evil to triumph is for a good god to do nothing.

In all of history and myth no one has ever killed The Devil.

Has anyone ever prayed for the Death of the Devil?

Sure there are legends of endless battles with The Devil it is vanquished and keeps coming back like Jason in a slasher movie. The Devil might even be imprisoned and then let loose for a final battle before being put back in the penalty box. But the sick mortal combat video game never ends. The reset button just gets pressed and the same sick program reasserts itself with different players. The Latin word Deicide means To Kill God. Why would there be a concept in the language of Hu-Mans that you could KILL GOD but there is NO WORD WHATSOEVER FOR KILLING THE DEVIL?

Sometimes prayer is not answered at all. The Children of Israel taunted the worshippers of BA-EL by asking why their prayers were not answered. Perhaps he was sleeping or on the toilet? Two separate families of the most devout Christians that I know each had a family member who were devastated by cancer. Both sets were abused by the medical system. Both family prayed for their former missionary relatives so that the disease would be healed. When each died lingering agonizing deaths it was declared God's Will. This is the equivalence of Mysterious Ways. What did a selfless servant of a Hebrew deity do to deserve such an ignoble death? How stupid were they that they could not learn a life lesson in order to garner favor and be released of a Demon Disease called Cancer where almost all forms we know for a fact were engineered in labs by men and women who worship KI-EL? Why was Death the only reward for a faithful life ending in unimaginable suffering? The Prince Siddartha Guatama left his palace (an analogy for protected delusion) to see that all Life was Suffering. He abandoned what was planned for his future (an analogy for predestination and prophecy) and purposely set about on his own to create a remedy: first, to relieve suffering in himself; then relieve suffering in others. The 6000 year tradition from Sumeria to here is one unbroken chain of suffering and death. Lower animals (as they are called) do everything to avoid pain. There is no logical inducement for a human to follow any path that has no remedy for the situation beyond inventing an attitude spin by reinterpreting a minor respite from harm as a major miracle; and a major disaster as a blessing in disguise that should be offered up as a source of Praise to the Creator. I ask black women of fine character who are suffering from terminal illness every week, "How are you doing?" "I'm blessed." they say. If they were blessed, they would not be dying of terminal illness that was created by the World Health Organization. Why not worship the Devil if heartbreak, unending pain and death are something that is an object of praise since this seems to be his domain? Praising God for Pain? Think about it. Say it outloud. You can't spin that. It is absurd.

The entire world has been traumatized by a Cap and Trade version of religion where a sacrifice has been made in your name even though it was not asked for, or even necessary but you are expected to and forced to take responsibility for and pay for a transaction that was done in absentia.

All of this has been logically codified by Epicurus around 321 BC

Is god willing to prevent Evil but not able?
Then he is not omnipotent.

Is he able but not willing?
Then he is Malevolent.

Is god both able and willing –
then whence cometh Evil?

Is he neither able nor willing –
THEN WHY CALL HIM GOD?

So we can see that the 6th and 7th Books of Moses were in some Bibles that would have clearly delineated a Black Magic Origin to this religion but in 1604 King James commissioned an Authorized English Version that was printed in 1611. Let's take all of these facts in context: King James was credited with UNITING England and Scotland. That is the Sumerian Way: to create CENTRALIZED HERD CONTROL. You call it the New World Order, I call it the Old Religion's 6000-year Plan. George Washington and Abraham Lincoln wanted to form that More Perfect Union. James also passed the Witchcraft Act in the same year that he commissioned his new Bible. Witchcraft was already a felony in 1542 and a capital offense by 1563 because most sorcerers – from where we get the word pharmacist – along with witches were using their skills to poison people. The original Hebrew word purposely occulted for political purposes in the King James DiVersion “Though shalt not suffer a Witch to live.” is actually, “You should not allow a POISONER to live.” – capital punishment for murder – that is reasonable. But as I have outlined in previous media the Roman Catholics had run out of Heretics to kill and steal their wealth so they included Witchcraft in the definition of Heresy. Heresy, by the way, in case you did not look it up like the word Tabu, has a very different meaning from the one that was programmed as a Mind Virus. Heresy is Greek for FREE CHOICE! Kill anyone with the audacity to exercise FREE CHOICE! Witchcraft predated Christianity by 4000 years so it could not be heretical as in: being contrary to Christianity, because IT WAS THERE FIRST. But then, the Roman Catholics knew this because the Vatican has the largest collection of Black Magic in the world. The Key of Solomon is a compendium Book of Spells also called a Grimoire. It was compiled by the Hebrew King Solomon who was reported to have controlled Vampyre Genii through the use of magic rings given to him by the Archangel Micha-EL the patron saint of Israel. Solomon/Schlomo compelled the genii servants to build the Temple in Jerusalem. A side note on the use of rings. I was testing someone using muscle response testing to insure proper energy flow and polarity. The person was wearing two gold bracelets on their wrist. The wrist is a major energy Gate/Portal in the Chinese Meridian system. Bracelets are charms that have their origin in Witchcraft. The person’s energy flow was reversed! After taking the bracelets off it resumed its normal flow immediately. Later that day the person put on their wedding rings without me knowing about it. A new test beginning with establishing energy flow and polarity showed that it was reversed again. Think about the Fellowship of the Ring and the Rings of Power. Why is it that there is a universal custom of wearing rings and jewelry? One legend has it that Solomon imprisoned his Vampyre Genii after their service in a bronze cauldron with a lid on it under his throne. Another legend has it that the Poor Knights of the Temple of Solomon – The Knights Templars – went to Jerusalem with the specific purpose to uncover treasure buried beneath the throne of Solomon. Whether they thought it was gold and jewels, magic rings or a pot full of demon vampyre genii is unknown, but if they cracked the lid...

Anyway...

The Key of Solomon was an encyclopedia of Demon names, Secret Names, how to summon them, how to control them. Pope Innocent 6 held a public burning of a copy while Pope Honorius got the ORIGINAL! What we see is a media spin event of burning anything that might get out to the public as a spare while holding on to the only first edition. This is monopoly on Black Magick. Translations were issued from the Vatican later in several languages but unless you had a first edition copy there is no way you could tell if the translations had been altered.

This monopoly did not prevent the Protestants from getting in on the Witch Burning Game. They saw how filthy rich they could get by falsely accusing innocent people murdering them and taking their wealth so they got in on it too simply by following the Roman Catholic pattern. This too should not be surprising given the origin of the Protestant faith. The Roman Catholic Priest Martin Luther was rumored by his adversaries to be the spawn of The Devil and a Nun. That seems a bit spiteful. To my reading of his history he was simply a misguided man who did not understand that self-flagellation and tossing himself into the snow, that was literally killing him, were Kung Fu techniques from China and Tibet that were designed to make the body invincible if practiced properly. This is a classic case of taking the teachings of one set of monks, transferring it to another set of monks without the esoteric knowledge and true meaning and coming up with self-inflicted pain and suffering that can kill. This exact pattern is found in what Christians have done with Judaism.

I can hear your brain cells rattling around like marbles in a tin can. But you said: Demons may be viruses and infections! You said: Witchcraft had a real and literal origin and bloodline with the Lilith Cult 6000 years ago! You said: Dracula is a real historical figure! You said: Alchemy is happening at High Energy Physics Labs! You said: Vampyre cults are murdering people in Kenya! Yes, indeed, I did. And I also said that the unforgivable, sub-human, criminally gullible Slave Work Units locked into the OTHER psychopathic Blood Cult Religions were willingly slaughtering MILLIONS of their own mothers, daughters, wives and healers because someone TOLD them to do it for GOD. The first dilemma of the Prince Siddhartha Guatama was doing what he was TOLD. He refused and went on to become the Buddha. Some liken this to Enlightenment but the Sanskrit word translates: To Awaken.

I am sure that all people of faith are dying to put a label on me ranging from misguided, misinformed, a Minion if not the Devil Himself, or, since I mention Buddhism so often a Buddhist. Because you need a label. You obviously do not understand that I am probably the only person in the History of this Planet who has shown you that NO ONE HAS EVER CALLED FOR KILLING THE DEVIL!!!!!!!!!! You cannot conceive of Heresy being exactly what it means in the original Greek: Free Choice. Siddhartha Guatama is cited in Dr. Seleem's book as being influenced by the Egyptian Book of Life. It is my contention that Prince Guatama understood the Great Scam for what it was and was developing a system to defeat it. The loss of Desire works against Demon Summoning where your first obligation is to tell the Demon WHAT YOU WANT. Suffering was a thing to be recognized, embraced once and then let go – NOT held on to like the JudeoChristian traditions of making it a sign of fealty and its physical, mental and spiritual scars a badge of courage. Buddhism was thoroughly corrupted as every other religion and philosophy on this planet and came to adopt all of the distractions they employ to keep you away from Guatama's primary mission – TO END SUFFERING. So, today it is not even close to what he invented. But the core remains. It is still the most useful philosophy along with Taoism that has also been thoroughly corrupted.

I am SURE that when I talk about the ancient Blood Cult religions that Christians get a smug feeling and look on their face but have never once examined that their re-enactment of the Emmanu-El's Last Supper during their communion is the very definition of a cannibal vampyre cult. Bread as flesh. Wine as blood. Figurative; supernatural; or not it is the very model of a Black Mass. I have been around nearly every religion this world has to offer and each one is drunk with the beLIEf that theirs is the only 'true' one having nothing in common with any other. Blood Rites and praise for pain are the very definition of Christianity AND Witchcraft.

The saddest accusation I can make is that in all of my studies the most accurate and insightful information that I ever came across in trying to understand what is wrong with this planet came from a Luciferian Witchcraft Grimoire. Listen very carefully because I know most people's minds go into vapor lock over this material: I study these texts. I do not practice them. It is the equivalent of military intelligence deconstructing an enemy's Field Manual. The problem that you are having now, is that when I compared their manual with your manual the information, and operational procedures were exactly the same.

Imprisonment, unspeakable torture, trial and unspeakable heinous murders were committed in the NAME OF GOD because someone SAID the innocents were Witches. There may have been one or two actual Witch/Wise Woman/Healers per village, yet MILLIONS of women were slaughtered leaving one or two women in each village after the purges. DO THE MATH!

“We don't kill our enemies. We get our enemies to kill themselves.”

The premise of my book ICD-999 restated would be:

- ▶ Witches and Sorcerers do not need to be real – just like Reginald Scot said in 1584.
- ▶ That others beLIEve and act on those beLIEfs by murdering MILLIONS of innocent NON-WICCAN women is the ONLY THREAT TO MANKIND.

Do you get it?

But, you say: You said that Witchcraft is REAL and HISTORICAL. Of course I did. But that does not matter. Because it was the REAL WITCHES who told CHRISTIANS to kill NON-WITCHES. AND THE CHRISTIANS BELIEVED WHAT THE REAL WITCHES TOLD THEM! The line does not blur at this point – it disappears. It is not possible for a rational, outside the fishbowl, Nihilist observer to tell the difference between the Killer Witches and the Killer Christians. They got YOU to kill YOUR OWN FLESH AND BLOOD AND THE ONLY WOMEN LEFT TO BREED WITH WOULD BE WITCHES! The genetic spawn of Lilith is a subspecies that is predatory to Hu-Mans. Haven't you ever wondered why Evil seems to grow exponentially? It is because YOU let it. It is because YOU help it. Now line up. Roll up your sleeve and get an injection of some demon DNA and RNA that the Witches have cooked up in vaccines. A demon must enter the body from a portal whether it is a natural orifice like the nose or mouth or an artificial one made by a needle. This is called possession. A person can be taken over by trickery or by invitation. Purposely taking a vaccine with Demon DNA is an invitation to being Demon POSSESSED. You are purposely choosing and allowing your genome to be corrupted with that of the Demon Race.

But King James wrote his book against demons and witchcraft?

The problem is that Christians spend all of their time thinking about What Would Jesus Do? and no time thinking about What Would The Devil Do? If I were the Devil and I didn't want to be found out, I would write about those 'other' demons and point in the opposite direction. I would see to it that my competition of innocent righteous women would be wiped off the face of the planet by tricking their own kind to do it for me.

But James Stewart gave us the King James Version Bible!

Yes. With ALL of the Demonology REMOVED from the Original Text.

Knowledge is Power.

If you knew that the Abramic/Mosaic Traditions were based on Black Magick you would view the Bible in a whole new way. This Knowledge might make you avoid the Bible completely giving you back your Free Choice and power over your own life instead of being enslaved by fear and dread of Laws and Prophecies from a race you don't belong to and can never be accepted by. Even if you were to convert to Judaism the translation of the word for such a convert means: Stranger. The Talmud states categorically that 1000 Goy are not worth the single fingernail clipping of a Jew. I do not suggest that you read the Talmud because unless you are a Ra-bbi reading the Talmud comes with a Death Sentence. Kinda makes you want to read it even more – doesn't it? What could be so special, secret or terrible about a collection of the Words of Moses that "We could tell you – but then we'd have to kill you." (?)

The Talmud was written at the same time as the Torah in 666 BC in Babylon. Why is it that The Talmud is not included in what is commonly accepted as The Bible? Who decides what goes in and why? If you have read the Bible but have never read the Talmud – then why? The death sentence aside – who decides what you read, interpret and understand? Some often say their Pastor. The word: Pastor is Latin for Shepherd. Do you know him or her? So as to imply: can you really know another human being? Are you related to them? HAVE YOU EVER DONE THE COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS OF THE ORIGINAL TEXTS YOURSELF? If you listen to or follow a shepherd you are by definition A SHEEP.

I must stop here. Part Two of the King James DiVersion will offer historical insights into how this Bloodline con man killed the Innocent and rewarded Witches as part of greatest deceptions in the History of this planet.

Hello Dr. Carley, Hello Listeners this is Pat Jordan coming to you from the Grain Ghetto in Illinois on audio tape.

In the first segment of what I call the King James DiVersion I outlined that King James was just another Bloodline cousin-coupling who had purposefully reorganized what is called the Bible. The Black Magic Origins of the Traditions of Moses were removed at the same time he published his own book on Demonology. As he was personally supervising the torture and murder of innocents he advanced the very agenda and race he said he was opposing. I make the undeniable connection that the Witch Craze in Europe from 1200 to 1700 AD was a culling of innocent Hu-Mans by the predatory subspecies spawn of Lilith with whom we seem to be sharing the planet against their wishes.

Using the words of Epicurus around 321 BC, I deconstructed the very foundation of beLIEf.

Is god willing to prevent Evil but not able?
Then he is not omnipotent.

Is he able but not willing?
Then he is Malevolent.

Is god both able and willing –
then whence cometh Evil?

Is he neither able nor willing –
THEN WHY CALL HIM GOD?

I call on all of the people of the world of all religions to do the comparative analysis for themselves. To see the pattern that ALL religions are based on false premises and no logic whatsoever. When you take into account the historical certitude from shows like James Burke's The Day the Universe Changed episode In The Light From Above where ancient texts (even Arabic texts) were always translated by collaborative teams of Jesuits and Jews, then we can see that there has been a harmonization and homogenization of what should be disparate knowledge from different cultures over vast geographic areas and thousands of years of history. ALL religious stories were harmonized and homogenized into the same narrative with different names of gods and demons for the different cultures in the simplest tactic of warfare of using minor variations in BELIEF to Divide and Conquer.

I will now continue the narrative.

The Duoay Version of the Bible is the single book that demonstrated why there is such an intense hatred of the Hebrews for the Hungarians. In this account we find that the birthright sold from Esau to Jacob for a bowl of porridge was because Esau was exhausted after a hunt but it was not the kind of hunt that you would think. He apparently snuck up on a sleeping Nimrod (the father of the Hungarians) and killed him then ran for his life from Nimrod's men. Nimrod was demonized for setting himself against god by building his famous Tower of Babel. An alternative view is that the Storm God BA-EL was allowed to unleash The Flood under EA-EL's sanction. Nimrod was a king who was looking out for his people in the Mesopotamian Valley so he built the tower as an escape shelter from future floods by petulant gods using weather as a weapon. Whether this story is even true or not only Hebrew scholars could tell if they would even deign to tell a Stranger or a Goy. Maybe there are some Hungarian scholars who could weigh in on the controversy. You are on the outside of an inside joke based on stories that may or may not have happened so long ago that there is no scientific or rational way to verify any of this independently. BUT YOU ACCEPT THE KING JAMES VERSION AS UNIMPEACHABLE FACT – BECAUSE SOMEONE TOLD YOU TO.

King James and his Commission saw fit to keep the Traditions of Moses in any form out of his version of the Bible. I bring this up frequently because I paid dearly for this knowledge. Because I am rooted in science and I understand the Bell Curve and random chance I might be inclined to entertain the thought that the obstacles to acquiring this information may just have been fate or bad luck. Too many things went wrong and stayed wrong for it to have been random events. Other books chosen to be excluded from the KJV includes the Apocrypha that is included in Catholic Bibles. The Gnostic Gospels make the most sense: That this world did not begin as a Paradise (a Persian word, by the way) but as a Chaotic Haven of Demons and Man is the Force to impose Order on it and give it a moral center but even then, the poor humans can't ascend past the Archons unless they know the secret Magick Words. Thanks for playing – back to Hell. But at least this version begins with a practical description of the pathetic state of this planet. It is rational. IT FITS. More than anything else, that kind of view of the world does not encourage the passive voyeurism like the Persian myth of the Ahura Mazda watching the carnage that the Ahriman wreaks on the world, but rather demands that Hu-Mans take a forceful stand against the all-pervasive evil around them not unlike the story of Krishna. If you have compared as many world religions as I have you see one very creepy reality. That ALL of them conform COMPLETELY with the Qabala. The Zoroastrian Mazda/Ahriman is the Yahweh/Hasatan and all of the myths of the Maya are word for word copies of the Qabala story of how God killed all of the original creations because it could not say his Name. When you consider that all of the major human literary works including those in Arabic were translated in a cooperative effort by Jesuits and Jews then you get that creepy feeling that either all of the world's myths were originally the same and there really is one common link among all mankind or this is the biggest PsyOps propaganda LIE in the history of the planet. If you follow King James then you have become a Sheep under the control of an inbred Scotsman whom you never knew personally; most likely are not related to; and don't understand his origins or motivations.

If you had access to the knowledge purposely occulted from the King James DiVersion of The Bible then you might have been seen it as a source of power. You might have tried to emulate the Spell Casting and Demon summoning in the bits that were left out of the book. This would be dangerous in three ways:

- 1) It would be dangerous for a Stranger to be conversant in the methods of The Old Religion because you might compete with them for position and authority; and also might gain the wealth and power associated with the results of such practices.
- 2) If demons were real and you did summon them then all Hell would break loose.
- 3) Aleister Crowley the famous Satanist purposely wrote booby traps into the books that he wrote specifically for his followers. If demons were real and if you were stupid enough to try the incantations and evocations you found as an English Translation of German Bibles translated from the Latin coming from the Greek coming from Modern Hebrew coming from a SECRET ORAL TRADITION and they happened to be written like my collage chemistry lab book then you might not make it past the first spell.

My collage chemistry lab book used to perform experiments for the class was written by two college professors. We were warned ahead of time to read the lab procedure BEFORE we came to the lab. A full semester-load of classes does not allow enough time to read the labs ahead so I read it as I was doing the work under a vented hood with the beakers in my hands:

Place the Sodium Hydroxide in the Water. But BEFORE YOU DO THAT SO IT DOESN'T EXPLODE...

So much for step-wise procedure and technical writing. Do you really think that something that had been handed down orally for 6000 years is:

- 1) Going to be accurate after that much word-of-mouth memorization and repetition?
- 2) Going to be understandable to the uninitiated?
- 3) Going to be available to an outsider?

King James and crew changed the word POISONER to WITCH because it served the purposes of occulting their following of The Old Religion and served their political purposes to enrich the state with the wealth of the people they murdered because of ONE WORD. That single word was used as the basis of a psychopathic religious purge.

Other authors have faithfully recorded how many other words were purposely mistranslated or totally altered from the original Hebrew to the Authorized English Version. Regardless of this useful insight we are STILL left with the undeniable fact that unless you knew the original oral Tradition in the original Hadamic tongue then you would still have no idea how to translate it. Unless you knew in context all of the subtle idiosyncrasies of the original Hadamic tongue then you would still have no idea what it actually meant. Some of the greatest Kung Fu secrets are written as poetry. A Left Brain mind reads it literally. I know people in the martial arts who have not been able to figure out what these poems mean for decades. We are on the outside of an inside joke.

So what did Jimmy Stewart give us?

- ▶ A text with its core removed.
- ▶ A text with its literal meaning changed.

So, you have to ask: To what end?

To protect you?

Are you a child who needs a guardian – a stranger to tell you what to do and what to think?

Or,

To protect himself?

Let's take a deeper look at James Stuart.

“By their fruits shall they be made known.”

▶ The Aberdeen Witch Trials of 1597 had 23 women and one man tied to stakes, mercifully strangled, then burned to ashes. James Stuart soon published Dæmonologie that made things even worse. Always remember these were INNOCENT women and men being tortured and killed under the direction of the REAL WITCHES pulling the strings. The Evil Power of Witches is passed in the blood. This sounds like an infectious agent, and it also meant that it was a Bloodline lineage. This is why supposed Witches were burnt so that the blood could not contaminate anything. This means that if ONLY INNOCENT women were killed the only bloodlines left would be those of the REAL WITCHES.

▶ The family lineage of Scottish king Malcolm Canmore and his wife Margaret used talismans and amulets in raising their children with James 3 and James 5 specifically mentioned. The ‘KJV’ James in his Scottish years was number 6. Think about that if you are hung up on numerology. You will notice that I have not written their titles in Roman numerals since this is another occulting of what is really going on. Would you have even noticed the connection with James 6 if I had written it VI? It is said that the Vikings of Scandinavia were actually the Six Kings using the roman numerals VI to denote who they were and where they originally came from so as to imply they weren't from Scandinavia.

▶ The North Berwick Witch Trial against Agnes Sampson ended in her death under the direct supervision of James Stuart even though she accused his cousin The Earl of Bothwell of treason. Bothwell was exiled. So here we have a pattern of non-Wiccan scapegoat and liberated bloodline family.

▶ James 1 protected known Witches/Sorcerers/Magicians while using the accusation of witchcraft to eliminate his enemies. John Fian was a schoolteacher who was snared in the North Berwick Witch Trial of 1590. Fian was accused of being the coven leader and plotting the death of James 6 of Scotland (our same bonny Jimmy the first) by attempting to sink his ship at sea by magick. Absolutely insane charges were brought against him. In order to make him confess he was Trawed. This is where rope was tied around his head and he was jerked around.

No confession.

They put on devices called The Boots that could be tightened around the legs until tissue and bone were crushed. Three times.

No confession.

When he went unconscious they said it was a trick of the Devil, so they looked for charms and found two pins in his tongue that they put there themselves.

John Fian confessed directly to King James – or so it is said...

Who is going to dispute the word of the king?

The next day John Fian recanted to King James but this was another Devil's trick so they used the Playbook from the Inquisition and Middle East. Pliers called turkas broke and pulled off his fingernails, then they inserted two needles in the open nailbeds up to the second joint.

John Fian refused to confess.

They put him back in The Boots until, "The blood and marrow spouted forth in great abundance, whereby they were made unserviceable for ever."

King James was frustrated that he didn't get a confession so he had John Fian strangled and burned. Does this sound like Abu Ghraib? Does this sound like extraordinary rendition? Does this sound like detainment of 'enemy combatants'? Waterboarding used today is the same technique invented and used during the Inquisition. The Inquisition was used against Heretics and those accused of Witchcraft. Today's 'enemy combatants' were fellow Afghan and Iraqi villagers turned in to the invaders for a fee. The Witchfinders of Europe charged a fee. Anyone in Europe during the Witch Craze who was let out of prison and torture, which was rare, was charged court costs and the time and materials for the torturer. Nothing has changed in 800 years. The question of Witchcraft and Terrorism aside – Does this sound like something a Christian would do to another person? Does it sound like something Jesus would do? I will not ask if it would be something that the commissioner of a Bible would do because the Bible is a permanent record of some of the most cruel murders and Biocide ever written – and that's with the Black Magick portion taken out. It is your duty and responsibility if you are going to model your life after a book and foreign religion to have read such a text cover to cover. I have read the Bible cover to cover 3 times and came to the same conclusion every time that it is a chronicle of Biocide. The destruction of all Life.

► James Stewart had a Favorite named George Villiers, the First Duke of Buckingham, who was skilled in the Black Arts. Villiers had a wife who was a Witch. So, by their fruits shall they be made known, while James was overseeing the slaughter of innocents who were tortured into confessing a script written by Real Witches, James was overlooking the Warlock and Witch who he rewarded by allowing The Duke of Buckingham to become the SECOND RICHEST MAN IN ENGLAND. This is Third Grade Math. It is a logical impasse that cannot be denied or apologetically explained away. Innocents being tortured to confess invented crimes they did not commit also being charged by children and adults who they could not confront or rebut. All rules of court were waived in order to make sure that the foregone conviction was had. Yet James not only allowed the Duke and his wife to live, but also REWARDED them to the fullest. When James was dying he had his resident Witches perform Black Magick rituals including baptizing a piglet in his name to ward off death.

Didn't work.

Jimmy died 1625.

Good Riddance.

► During the illustrious reigns from Elizabeth 1 who had court sorcerers; until Charles 1; the Channel Islands had their share of the Witch Frenzy. In Jersey's Royal Square a pregnant woman was burned alive. As she was dying she gave birth. The crowd that had come to watch tossed the baby back into the flames.

This is where I divorce myself from the HU-Man race. Christians have been selectively bred and raised as Manchurian Candidates as Turkish Yeni-çeri (Janissary) to do the bidding of their masters The Witches in the name of the Old Ones. The Yeni-çeri were young Christian boys either given or stolen into conscription into Islamic armies, indoctrinated into Islam and since they were brainwashed they were willing combatants against whoever the Sultan commanded them to fight.

Post broadcast note:

Many people are drawn to Christianity despite its blood-soaked history and rituals because they are pacifists. What they do not realize is that the term Covenant used in the Bible means: Contract. The legally binding contract that Christians have entered with God is that in the Protestant recent invention of The Rapture they will be Snatched Up before the Tribulation and Battle of Armageddon where BLOOD (there it is again) will flow as high as the Horses' bridles. If they paid attention to the rest of the contract at the end they will be coming back with Christ on Horses (more about that in another show) as an Army. The punishing particle beams of God from orbiting weapons platforms aside, you have willingly signed up to be in an army. If you really had aspirations of being a pacifist and wanted to be neither killed nor to kill then you should have read the not so fine print.

The cult of Demon Summoning has been removed from the Bible so you don't know its origin. The Cult of the Bible is used to steer entire civilizations that move in precise coordination like schools of fish and can be used to target any enemy that was chosen for it. The modern equivalent of this is the Christian Right ensuring the fake election of George W. Bush who started two illegal wars. These same Christians accepted without rational challenge the chosen enemy of Muslims and dutifully murdered innocent Iraqis in the name of their supposed god who just happens to be the same demon that came from the country they are bombing to Hell. And the Afghans were thrown in as a deflective cover for the operation, unless you have heard the legend that the original Garden of Eden was actually in Afghanistan. Stop right now. Don't be stupid to try to project that I don't think that Terrorists exist. Of course they do. They are the same bunch that run the US government. Never forget that the Taliban was funded by the US when Russia invaded Afghanistan and now suddenly they are our enemies yet US troops deferred to foreign troops when it was reported that Usama Bin Ladin was cornered and Hey Presto! he got away. This is the SAME PATTERN I JUST DESCRIBED. First you provide an object of hate, then you get the masses to do the dirty work and then you reward the actual perpetrators of the crime.

DO YOU GET IT?

They have a football play. They run it once. It gets past you. They run it again. You don't learn. They run it for 6000 years and you have the same blank look on your face like you were hoodwinked for the first time ever.

During the Witch Craze it was Roman Catholics and Calvinists, Protestants, Presbyterians and Puritans who were willingly induced to and happily participated in the slaughter of their own people.

“We don't kill our enemies. We get our enemies to kill themselves.”

These Christians tossed babies birthed from burning innocent mothers back into the flames FOR GOD. Why? Is god so powerless that he or she cannot defeat a single witch alone? Have you ever read the Old Testament stories in context that god TOLD the High Priest who then TOLD the Israelites that they were to commit Biocide on every civilization they met? If the god of the Jews and Christians is love and mercy then why the unbroken trail of blood stretching 6000 years back to the Old Religion? And that is just the Hu-Man sacrifices. The Samaritans had been practicing animal sacrifice for 2000 years non-stop. If the Witches being rounded up and viciously tortured and killed did indeed possess the God-like power of the Old Religion of Witchcraft then why did their powers suddenly abandon them when they were identified and captured? This is Third Grade Math. There are no excuses or apologetics. If it does not make sense then it cannot be so. Wishing does not make it so.

Witches do exist and they are the bloodline of Lilith. They are also any hybrids who adopt the Old Religion. These Witches did cast a spell by whatever means – introduction of microbes, toxic herbs or metals – into the population back then because they were the village healers and had access to the village wells. Sounds like our modern doctors and corporate neighbors today using Vaccines, GMO crops and Chemicals in our air, water and food. These spells cast on the Christians caused them to willingly do everything they were told. The typical image of a Witch is the one that was GIVEN to you of an old hag wearing a pointy hat and traveling on a broomstick. Why is it that you have never questioned why this is so, when Covens assemble and worship in the nude? Why have you never asked: Why the Steeple Hat? when that was the standard hat of the Puritan Women. One of the worst British outbreaks of Witchcraft was in PURITAN England in 1640. I have often spoken of the Puritan/Wiccan connection at the English Massachusetts Bay Colony Salem Witch trials where only NON-WITCHES were murdered. The basis for the trials in 1692 was James 1 Witchcraft Act of 1604. The PURITAN Cotton Mather INSISTED that a minister who recited the Lord's Prayer perfectly STILL BE HUNG. By their fruits shall they be made known.

From Catherine Medici in Italy to her son Henri King of France, and all of England, we find that most if not all of the Bloodline Rulers were either practicing members of La Vecchia La Dama The Old Religion of Cerne or they consulted the Black Arts. James Stuart was reported to have been exposed to the 'reality' of Witchcraft when he was in Denmark with his future bride Anne. The Europeans that he met convinced him that Witchcraft was plotting to take over the Civilized World with Satan's Hordes. It actually did play out exactly that way but not the way that your programmed minds interpret it.

Opposite Day.

The Satanic Hordes and Witches were not from without but within. His meetings with the European intellectuals in Denmark, I speculate, was probably a coven and he was probably initiated if he was not already a member. The story of the Wiccan takeover was not a warning but a War Plan! Edward Jenner wrote a scientific paper on the Cuckoo bird that lays an enormous egg in another bird's nest. The idiot bird works itself to death trying to incubate the invader and when the cuckoo hatches it kills and pushes out the natural offspring of the host bird. The idiot bird then works itself to death to feed the monster parasite Cuckoo chick. After it is fledged it leaves the idiot host bird's nest to start the process all over again. Witches DID take over the world by having the host of the parasitic Cuckoo bird murder its own offspring in order to raise and nurture the Lilith Spawn from 1200 to 1700 AD. Five hundred years of carnage. AD. Anno Domini. The Year of our Lord. But which Lord?

When we apply Third Grade Mathematics to this equation of an unbroken trail of Blood and Biocide leading back to God then we must accept the equivalence of the equation. ALL religions are Blood Cults. They ALL have their origin in Sumeria. They ALL worship KI-EL whether they know it or beLIEve it or not.

If you do not read German then you do not know what the Weimar Bible says. If you do not read Latin then you do not know what the Vulgate says. If you do not read Greek then you do not know what the Septuagint says. If you do not read Hebrew then you do not know what the Babylonian Torah and Talmud says. If you do not speak ancient Hebrew then you do not know what the Qabala was that was spoken to Abram 4100 years ago.

So what is it that we DO know?

Nothing.

And that is the beginning of Inquiry and Science.

If you promise not to kill me because of what you beLIEve and I know, then I promise not to kill you for what you beLIEve and I know.

And that, my friends is how we remake civilization from Zero.

This is Pat Jordan signing off from the Grain Ghetto.
