

Hi Everybody,

Another person on my BCC list asked me about my assertions that Moses was a Black Magician and that King Solomon used the Black Arts. I often respond to each question personally, yet there are times when it is good to share the conversation with the group as well. Here is the response that I wrote:

---

Regarding the concept of Moses and Black Magic there are certain things we know if we ONLY use the King James Version of the Bible (KJV) as a source.

First we subtract the God Component for a Nihilistic view.

Moishe was a Prince in Egypt. Since Egypt's culture and medicine and royalty (Cobra GodKings who married their sisters) were based on the Black Arts we adopt the premise that a member of the Royal House would have been educated in such things.

The Pharaoh's Magi threw down their staffs and they became serpents. This is Black Magic. (when we read the story literally outside the bounds of scientifically demonstrable facts to satisfy true Nihilism).

Moishe threw down his staff and it made a bigger serpent to swallow up the other two. Again this is basic Harry Potter - Wand Magic.

The difference between the two comes in the phrase: "My Kung Fu is better than your Kung Fu."

Moishe then brought down plagues and caused other phenomena with the use of his Wand and Words. Word Magic (or Spell Casting) is another tool of the Magi. Again, remember we have removed the outside influence/interpretation of God exerting any cause/effect.

Moishe came from the lineage of Abram. Abram came from Ur of the Chaldees. The Chaldeans were world renown as Masters of the Black Arts. Abram is well known from the Bible to have been a fashioner of Idols. So, again we can only take the literal interpretation that this entire family line was in on The Business.

Now, enter the information that I paid a very high price to discover:

The Sixth and Seventh Books of Moses. They are nothing but the Operational Procedure manuals on Spell Casting, Spirit Summoning and use of Names of Power.

As for Solomon we can consult the KJV again to see that he had built temples to Molech and was induced by many of his multiple (got to envy that) wives (although married men would say different) to build altars to Astarte and Astaroth. This is the gender-morphing entity that I label Lilu/Lilutuv also known as Lilith or KI-EL. Lilith IS the Whore of Babylon as documented by the ancient Babylonian tablets.

King Saul consulted the Pythoness at Endor (Witch was a word inserted in the KJV for political purposes) in order to summon the Spirit of whatshisface (? just had a mind blank) but if you are familiar with these passages you will know that these high profile Children of Ys-Ra-EL (He who struggles with God) were playing around in the Black Arts in front and behind the camera.

I do reference as many sources as I possibly can in addition to these citations and I would guess that the average Christian would have an aversion to consulting a Luciferian Witchcraft Bible (Grimoire) but unless we pierce the veil (a really old concept regarding the occulting of Isis) with an intent to do comparative analysis as opposed to trying a Black Magic recipe just to see if it works (I'll bring flowers to your funeral) then we are simply comparing Apples to Apples. The concept at work here is that of the mathematician Godel who showed that you cannot define a system by itself. To cite the KJV and then reference it to itself is circular logic. If you were to describe the words you are reading on your screen right now you would have to define that as the hexadecimal programming code used to write the word processor instructions, which, in turn, had to be reduced to machine language which is the Ones and Zeros of binary code, which is in turn the On or Off of plus 5 or minus 5 volts in the computer chip, which is described as the distribution of electrons... This is the way of saying that if you are to define your entire life solely on one book (King James Version Bible) you have to be able to define that book by either going one step above or below it dimensionally to describe what 'IT' is.

The question I have for you is are you willing to step to the Edge and peer into the Abyss? (Abyss, by the way is Tiamat the Great Dragon the Salt Water Ocean referred to in Genesis – "...and Darkness moved over the Face of The Abyss."

You are in no danger of Falling and I cannot push you over the Edge since I was pushed many decades ago and have been in Free Fall ever since.