

PLUM BLOSSOM

(advanced preview of my second book)

Plum Blossom Strike.

If you do not know what that means then you are on the outside of Ancient Secret Knowledge.

It took me 10 years of intense study of Martial Arts in all styles to understand the meaning of those words.

They are lethal.

That short 3-word phrase tells you everything you need to know to kill any human on the planet with 4 ounces of pressure.

I was told by a Christian man who studied this particular Art that the reason that the ancient Buddhist Monks and Nuns were so relaxed is that they knew they could kill any living thing on the planet. With that kind of knowledge you abandon fear. With that kind of knowledge you are in control.

What kind of control?

For one thing you didn't see Buddhist Monks or Nuns opening up Cans of Whoop-Ass on everyone they met. This means that they were in control of their own emotions, desires, and behaviors.

"I am unmoved."

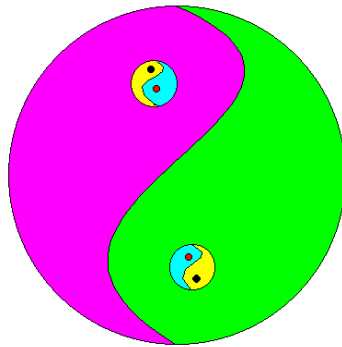

Those trained in the Martial Ways were not aggressors. They could not be provoked to make the first strike. Except for Hsing I, the form developed for the Army as an attack martial art, the other forms were designed to let the opponent make the first move so that the opponent could be used as a weapon against themselves. This does NOT mean that the Monks and Nuns were passive. They ROSE to defend the innocent, the underdog and oppressed. The Monks and Nuns were not mothers of children, so the defenseless brood of Hu-Manity were their charges. Why shouldn't modern mothers be as fearless and brave as the Monks and Nuns of Old? Those who committed their lives to learning these skills did not sit idly by while bad was happening around them and some even took employment as bodyguards or defenders of caravans. The typical 'praying hands' that you see depicted as two hands held together flat against the palms is actually a FIGHTING POSTURE called Guarding the Gate. It was a defense/offense in waiting that the monks would hold as they walked with their caravan just in case a bandit or gang might jump out to do harm. The 'Praying Hands' Posture was a PHYSICAL weapon held in readiness for deployment when needed. It was not a plea for a deity to intervene.

The other aspect of control is that if there is a confrontation with another person, creature or entity that the playing field is even, if not weighted, in the Martial Artist's favor so the opponent does not necessarily have the upper hand.

What kind of control?

The power over Life or Death.

Why both?

Because when you study the Martial Arts and cultivate Chi/Ki/Qi you are tapping into healing energy. You can use it to improve your own health and that of others. This is the deeply nested Duality you find in the Tao/Dao where the light colored portion is in dynamic opposition to the dark colored portion, yet each is tainted with a spot of their opposite.

This is a very moralizing situation. If you know you can kill anything on the planet but do not, then you are aware of, and practicing self-restraint.

The key to Martial Arts is summarized in:

Know Yourself.

Know your Enemy.

Here's where it gets bad. Your Enemy knows no restraint. They kill for profit. They kill for sport. Worse than all of that they thrive on and promote suffering.

Now let us just imagine a world where the young woman from California was being gang raped while a crowd looked on and cheered. This is the analogy for what is happening to everyone all over the world in all arenas.

A few women wrote to me that they didn't know what they would do in that situation but they would have done whatever they could to have stopped it. Only women wrote. Only men were watching and cheering.

Now just imagine that you were all trained in lethal combat.

Kyushu Jitsu is One-Second Fighting. When you grapple with someone and attack the proper pressure points you have total control over their body in One Second. Let us just say that it takes another 3 seconds to deliver the blows to incapacitate the criminals. If there were 10 rapists and it took an average of 6 seconds to dispatch them then the entire crime would be terminated in One Minute.

If you have read my book: ICD-999, Vaccine Induced Disease, The Chronic Serum Sickness Postulate, then you will know the section heading: Harm, Maim, and Kill.

This is a label that I put on MediSin for what they do. I pulled it directly from Martial Arts. In true combat martial arts you have the ability to control your opponent like a Marionette. From this position you then have the choice to impinge on nerves, joints and blood vessels to cause pain and wait for help or Justice to arrive. You can simply render the person unconscious. Or, you can deliver your own Justice. You can cause damage to the body in a degree that is set by you, including breaking bones; or organ damage. Or, you can kill. The opponent is in your hands. The choice is up to you. The problem has always been that you have been conditioned to think of Justice as coming from somewhere outside of yourself. From society or government. But when it is you against an attacker – Justice is always in your hands.

The simple test is:

Your life or someone else's life is in danger. Are you going to wait for the Police (a mercenary agency set up by the Elders of Sion) or a Sheriff (a true Constitutional Officer who still may be a Mason and put you in jail for hurting a felon) to come and resolve the situation? Or are you able and willing to do something about it. The Chinese say that when you step on a rake it rises to hit you with the same force that you stepped on it with. That is Justice. When done properly Kyusho Jitsu LEAVES NO MARKS. You could effectively knock someone unconscious and let the 'Law' sort them out when they finally get there. Ever call a police station that is 3 blocks away and wait a half hour for a response?

All this comes with consequences, and the 'Justice' system is violently opposed to you 'taking the law into your own hands', but this is just negative physical reinforcement of The LIE to keep your mind off of the FACT that JUSTICE HAS ALWAYS BEEN SOLELY IN YOUR HANDS!

But what if the opponent has weapons?

The FBI wanted to register all Black Belts in the United States because they considered anyone with martial arts skills to be a weapon. Watch the movie Falling Down that was supposed to be a nod to the ancient Greek story of Odysseus where he had no weapons but with skill he acquired everything he needed to do battle. In close quarters you can disarm the opponent or even use it against them while it is still in their hands with their fingerprints on it.

But you do not have the skills.

What amused me is that women wrote to me and confessed they didn't know what they would do but they would do something.

Now is the time for you to learn, that something. No one has ever told you that the silliness you see in the media in the form of Sport Karate is as far from the truth as stagnant pond water is from pure water.

The Kamae you are conditioned to see in films like Karate Kid, where he slips into the classic Crane Form BEFORE he starts to 'fight' is ACTUALLY THE MOVE!

By the time you execute the motions involved in the Crane Posture you have already LETHALLY ATTACKED your opponent and the fight should be over. The Kamae is not the beginning of the fight it is the body position after it is ended.

Opposite Day.

They lied to you even about martial arts.

But why would it be surprising? You thought the Bible Story of Jacob's Ladder/"Gate of Heaven" was some analogy or metaphor or maybe some mystical experience that was too high a thought for you to understand due to God's Mysterious Ways.

Let me break it down for you.

Hold on to your pantyhose because this is a wild ride.

This time I was using my 1560 Geneva Bible for those of you who thought it makes any difference – it doesn't.

Genesis 35 seems to be a synthesis of Genesis 32:24-32 and Genesis 28, so don't mind me if I mix the two stories up to make my point. After all, as a Nihilist these are all Fairy Tales anyway. Fairies are the creatures over whom The Queen of Elphen reigns, which of course is Lilith, Lilutuv, The Night Monster, Whore of...wait for it...Babylon...read on...

Yaakob's parents told him that those Hittite women were too skanky so he should dip into the Gene Pool of his mother's brother back in Messopotamia (Iraq/Babylon/Sumeria, kids, home of the Fashioner of Gods, good ole Father Abram). Gots to keep dem bloodlines pure! Uncle Laban was an Aramean. Aramaic (the same language that Jesus/Emmanu-EL broke into when he wanted to put it to the Jewish priests) is the language of Chaldea famous for Black Magick.

<http://www.broomfielducc.org/education-journey/journey/lesson7.html>

Yaakob (later to be renamed – never forget the constant name changes) was out in the country and needed some rest so he just happened to find himself in a meteorite strewn field. He took what was called a rock and then later a Betyl to use as a pillow for his head. Here is where it gets weird. I, as a person rooted only in science and not silly tribal stories, cannot say if this meteorite could have been infected with an extraterrestrial Spore that just happened to germinate from contact with his head and led to the infection that we see as Religion, or not; because Religion seems to be a Holy Virus (Mind Virus) that permeated life in Mesopotamia long before Jacob and his ladder dream on the WEST BANK. (Ever wonder why this territory has become a concentration camp for Palestinians? Does the Iraqi god-cartel want their Star Gate Portal back? After all, these Sumerian Transplants were granted all of this Real Estate in these very stories by the Rock God from Iraq). I cannot say if it was an Iron-Nickel meteorite that just happened to be encoded with some kind of resonance that entrained his mind to whatever experience. I cannot say if Rock/Betyl was a codename for some kind of Alien Technology that was a communication device ala Star Trek and he was getting a radio feed before being 'beamed up'.

Let us also not forget that the Betyl was also a fixture on the Breastplate of the High Priest during the ceremonies where they were supposed to be 'talking' with G-d. (Vowel sounds deleted due to bad reception). Ancient version of a Cell Phone. "...can you hear me now?"

We also have no acknowledgement that in Genesis 12 and 13 Abram had already been this way and the place name was already identified with Beth-EL despite the fact that it was supposed to have been named for the first time by a descendent of Abram many generations after him. But hey, if we can have Star Gates we can have Time Travel. Of course, in literature and movies this is where the Union Card-holding person in charge of Continuity and Editing gets fired for leaving such a blazing trail of inconsistencies. But hey, the Bible is the infallible inspired word of the Talking Meteor Rock!

Segue to modern mythos and the comic books called Superman created by two New York Jews. Green meteorite (Green Stones of Thoth) crashes to the Earth with a SPACE SHIP carrying the SAVIOR of the world. WHOSE NAME IS KAL-EL!!!! This is Hebrew for Warrior of God!!!! In fact, his whole family line is EL. Jor-EL, etc, except for Momma who happens to be Lar-a. Aah being the Moon Goddess Lilith. Or maybe it is EL Aah Rah?

Does any of this make sense now?

Enter the TV series Smallville that takes up Superman's life in High School and you get the Kryptonite in its many colors and forms but also a certain quest for the Stones of Power. Three, if I remember correctly. The same TRINITY of Power Stones that you find in Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom called the Shankara Stones "that fell from the Sky". Let us not forget that Indiana Jones' introduction to the world was the capture and preservation of the Hebrew Ark of the Covenant with a few Nazi slayings thrown in for good measure.

Kryptonite Meteorites. Stones of Power.

Islamic legends tells of sacred stones given by Gabri-EL to Abram, and Ishma-EL. The Black Rock embedded in the corner of the Qaba has been said by some astrophysicists to be a chondrite meteorite. Reference the use of the chondrite black meteorite with the myth of Spiderman – another jewish comic book hero who just happens to shoot webs using the blatant Horned Beast hand sign of Satanism – that crashes to Ea-rth to form the villain called Venom. Venom was the word: Poison that was used for Virus before Virus was coined to describe crystalline and nucleic acid pathogens.

<http://www.crystalinks.com/meteors.html>

description of chondrites containing Amino Acids, and military use of fireballs as stealth communication mirrors.

With all of this 2012 Mayan End of the World Frenzy mixed with the Judeo-Christian Revelations-based fireball of God End of the World Frenzy, it is very suspiciously odd that the government has now classified Fireball data from satellites that it used to share freely with scientists from all over the world,

<http://www.space.com/news/090610-military-fireballs.html>

A month after the blackout it took an ‘amateur astronomer’ Anthony Wesley to bring it to the attention of the ‘professionals’ that Jupiter had been struck on the 15 year anniversary of Shoemaker Levy (that got unprecedented mainstream media attention as if it was a sports event). Is something big coming that they don’t want us to know about?

<http://www.scientificamerican.com/article.cfm?id=jupiter-new-spot>

Very Odd...

Fantasy. Reality. Lines are starting to blur aren’t they?

What I can say from the Bible Story is that Jacob said that GOD WAS IN THE ROCK!

He built an altar there to the STONE and called it Beth-EL. The HOUSE OF GOD. The Altar to the chunk of space debris that was where his EL/Elohim/EL Shaddai/Eloah manifested. I don’t know about you, but I find it very disturbing to try to follow the shapeshifting of these deities as much as their name changes. (More on Shapeshifting later). Is God a Bull? a Golden Calf? a Rock/Meteorite? a Cloud? a Pillar of Fire? a Still Small Voice? Don’t know about the last one – lots of people have been committed for hearing voices in their heads.

Isn’t that why Sigmund Freud (Sionist) invented his psychocrap? To justify that dreams have significance? After all, if all of the Prophets and Priests of all of the nations of the world were totally full of Bull and their dreams/visions didn’t mean shit then A WHOLE LOT OF PEOPLE HAVE BEEN MURDERED IN THE NAME OF GOD FOR NOTHING.

A brief note on Shapeshifting. As I often remind people: I am a Nihilist. It has taken some folks many months before they cracked open a dictionary to even look it up. (Most likely they just used Wiki). This means that since I have never seen a God or Angel, Devil or Demon, or Alien then I do not beLIEve in Spooks or Little Green Men. But my first fascination from the High School Advanced Biology class (the same advanced studies that the Mason-controlled school system tried everything to keep me from) was SLIME MOLD.

Protoplasm, baby!

Yes this organism in a short period of time can SHAPESHIFT from a vegetative to animal state. Metamorphosis, if you remember you cocoons and chrysalises, is the slower change of one perfectly discreet cellular organization into another. Therefore, although I do not beLIEve in Shapeshifting Gods/Demons/Aliens, there is precedence in Nature that such biophysics and biochemistry exist that could allow for it. Cinch up those pantyhose – I promised that this would be tight – How did the Venom of Spiderman movies present itself? Protoplasm.

When NASA and other astrophysicists and xenobiologists predict that an encysted spore-form of a microorganism could survive re-entry if it was embedded in a meteorite, then who is to say where viruses and other evils that plague mankind came from originally?

But where were we? Oh, yeah. Meteorite dreams. So, he had a dream that might have been analogy or metaphor for a Mothership Beam-up or really a ladder that led all the way to heaven and the Military Lieutenants in the form of Angels were going up and down on the ladder. We can give a little latitude for a primitive describing an experience beyond his lexicon because if you never saw or had the words for collimated LASER or teleportation device then you might just throw the word: Ladder in there.

Here is where I merge the two bible stories:

So Jacob/Yakob wants a piece of the action. Who wouldn't? New Real Estate (access to Heaven) and the world's only Transvection Portal (think of the Toll charges) would make anyone think of trying to capitalize on the situation so he meets a strange Man while he is alone and asks the 'Angel' for a blessing. Other version/interpretations has the 'Man' a literal persona of GOD. The Man/Angel/God holds out so Yakob does what any enterprising young businessman would do when confronted with an uncooperative God. He wrestles with him.

Name Change.

Because he was so feisty he gets dubbed Ysrael – One who struggles with God. Jihad with God. Kind of funny when you understand the premise for him being in these positions was that he was running away from his brother that he lived in mortal fear and danger of. Afraid of your brother enough to run away but not afraid enough to go WWF with G-d. Hey, I'm sure you would have done the same in his situation. IS-RA-EL. ISIS Moon Goddess; RA Sun God, EL Lord of Babylon. As Above. So Below. Angels are military ranks so why not mess with them? Well, OK, except for what happened next.

We are told that the Man/Angel/God was not prevailing against him. That's odd. A trained military boot in God's Army or GOD HIMSELF IN HU-Man form not making headway against a Mud Monkey? How is that? Oh, yeah. God made Man in HIS OWN IMAGE.

ALWAYS KEEP THAT IN MIND FOLKS.

So, when the sun was about to come up and every good Vampyre has to retire for the morning the MAng-EL dipped into his Kung Fu bag of tricks and 'touched the hollow of his thigh'.

<http://bycommonconsent.com/2007/11/30/your-friday-firestorm-23/>

Just in case you think that I am the only sacrilegious person out there: get a load of "Vampire-stiltskin". What a perfect description of what is going on.

There is a great breakdown of just what Hollow of the Thigh might be a euphemism for at:

http://www.essaysbyekowa.com/hebrews_in_egypt.htm

along with a whole lot of lowdown on things that they never covered in Sunday school. I didn't know Pharaoh was a Hebrew word and Nisu was the Egyptian word for King. And Kia (KI and Aah are names of Lilith) were pet names for Nefertiti?

The author of the webpage makes a convincing argument that prudish English manners would not allow for the world Testicle in the Bible. Of course the bible talks about "nipping" pregnant women when the Chosen of God invaded heathen countries so I personally don't see the hang-up over a word. But I had resolved in my mind a long time ago that this strike to a Meridian Point on the thigh was nothing but a Pressure Point Fighting Kung Fu move laid on Old Yakob by the struggling Avatar of God.

Kung Fu, by the way means: Hard Work.

Something most americans are deathly allergic to. Most americans would have rolled in the meteor dust for a few minutes and then said, "Well, OK. If your not going to bless me, go back up your ladder and I'll go on my way as long as you don't hurt me."

But as it happened the MAng-EL "TOUCHED" him in the hollow of the thigh. This is significant because when I talked about the Plum Blossom Strike I had mentioned that all that was required was 4 ounces of pressure. Grandmaster George Dillman said at one of his seminars that a Chinese Martial Artist demonstrated that you could touch pressure points on the leg and take the hip COMPLETELY OUT OF ITS SOCKET AND MOVE IT IN ALL DIRECTIONS AGAINST ITS NATURAL RANGE OF MOTION.

This is why I knew it was Kung Fu and not some cryptic codpiece fondling.

There exists on the human body a minimum of 108 points called the 108 EVILS where you can enter pain and cause death. They all lay on Meridians that the Chinese Acupuncturists use to heal. A pair of British martial arts historians attribute the sources of martial arts to BABYLONIAN PRINCES who would experiment with killing by piercing test subjects with fine needles on Meridian points. There is also an ancient tradition of the Marma Adi from India. Indian Monks brought Buddhism to China and with it came their lethal combat forms that mixed and melded with the Chinese combat forms.

CURE OR KILL.

The choice has always been up to the practitioner.

Knowledge is power.

The Dragon Society International

is the only other source that I know by reputation to have accurate knowledge of these forms. You may know of or find others with similar claims but I cannot speak of them from experience.

The Dim Mak is real.

The Death Touch.

The Delayed Death Touch is real. If you impinge on the points ahead of the energy flow cycle in the Meridians it is possible to cause organ damage or death a long time after the lethal blow has been delivered. An untraceable assassins tool.

Why am I telling all of this?

Because you too can go to Martial Arts seminars or train in the camps to find out what is being shown to the POLICE and MILITARY!

Next time a cop grabs you behind your elbow and taps you on your temple and you wake up behind bars you will know that they don't NEED tasers – they just like to watch you wiggle.

If people with guns and unknown intent have been training in martial arts that used to be Family Secrets that were leaked to the public in not-so-ancient times ONLY ON THE PAIN OF DEATH, then the general public needs to know these secrets to be able to even out the playing field. I will only reveal to you the stuff that is already public domain.

It is time to stop being sheep and start being Tyrannosaurus Rex.

The Push is real.

You don't need to beLIEve me. I was rolled across the floor by my Master without being touched. The techniques of Kyusho-Jitsu Ryukyu Kempo have been developed by Grandmaster Dillman and others to the point where they can knock people unconscious without touching them.

The movie Push was released to desensitize you to the reality that is out there. The movie Men Who Stare at Goats was release to tell you what they have in store for you.

YOU NEED TO KNOW WHAT THEY CAN DO.

YOU NEED TO KNOW THAT YOU CAN DO IT TOO!

YOU NEED TO EVEN UP THE PLAYING FIELD.

While the ILU AMON ATYS are creating an Electrical Open Circuit in your body flooding you with Aluminum that replaces Iron in your blood and tissue from Vaccines and Chemtrails so that you cannot generate enough electromagnetic energy to accomplish the miracles related in Ancient Chinese Martial arts, 'They' are training a new generation of soldiers to explode your heart by staring at you.

So, for my detractors, you can see (unless you are braindead) that I am able to take ANY topic and bring it back to the Babylonian Long Game of Centralized Herd Control and Vaccines. God is no longer part of the equation, because IF God made Man in his own image and Man has 108 portals into which pain and death can be entered, THEN IT FOLLOWS THAT GOD AND HIS ANGELS and THE DEVIL AND HIS ANGLES ARE VUNERABLE TO THE SAME ATTACKS AS MORTAL HUMANS!

This is the kind of information that could facilitate mankind saving itself instead of lamely looking for Justice and relief outside of themselves.

You wanted a bite from the Tree of the KNOWLEDGE of Good and Evil.

I just gave it to you.

Now, what are you going to do with it?

Knowledge is USELESS without ACTION.

I leave you with one more ancient Martial Art secret:

Goju Ryu means: Spit/Swallow.
