Abramic Traditions

Judaism

Sionism = Sun Cult Legend
#1 Yitzhak second-born son required by YHVH to be killed and burnt (immolation = Molech).
Abram was going to do it but a Ram (Aries/Molech) was substituted.

Legend #2 Yitzhak second-born son was killed, but in Talmud he was raised from dead so that he could become father of IS-RA-EL.

Custom of priests to eat the sacrificed animals.

Islam

Called Moon Cult by Christians.

Legend #3 Ysma-EL the first-born son was killed INSTEAD of Yitzhak.

Legend #4 Ysma-EL the first-born son was killed instead of Yitzhak but was raised from the dead to become father of Muslims.

Custom of the Hadj is that sacrificial animals are served at feast.

Christianity

Parasitic Cuckoo Birds claiming thy are the 'true' sons of Abram through the magick of beLIEf not genetics.

Emmanu-EL as the only son of YHVH is killed by proxy and raised from the dead as a substitution death.

Last Supper Rites instructions to Eat Body and Drink Blood of sacrifice.

Satanism

The Adversary is a Chimeric Androgyne with Lilith.

Fealty and worship for Lucifer/Satan/Zama-EL, aka Az, Jehi, Lilith is by killing innocent babies.

Flesh and Blood Sacraments indistinguishable from those of Christian practice.

Why just the comparison of Babylonian Blood Cults with Abramic Cults? Abram was a Fashioner of Gods by Trade and live in Ur of the Chaldees. Chaldea or southern Iraq was Black Magic Central. Patriarchs like Moses and Jesus were documented to have performed Magick associated exclusively to Witchcraft: Storm control, Necromancy, Wand Magick, Word Magick, Transmutation, Spontaneous Generation, etc.

The critical question to ask here is WHAT OTHER RELIGIOUS TRADITIONS REQUIRE RITUAL SACRIFICE OF CHILDREN?

Buddhist? Not even a religion. It was a philosophy of a prince that never claimed to be a Deity. Modern Buddhists apparently opposed the ritual slaughter of a half a million animals by:

Hindus: and you thought those dudes didn't even EAT COWS!

Buddhists and animal rights activists against Hindu sacrifice to Gadhimai

by Kalpit Parajuli, AsiaNews, Nov 21, 2009

About half a million animals are expected to be slaughtered

Kathmandu, Nepal -- Hundreds of Buddhists and animal rights activists are protesting against the Hindu festival of Gadhimai Mela in Bayapur, Bara district (southeastern Nepal).

In Bara district, where the 'living Buddha' meditates, more than a million Hindus are preparing to sacrifice half a million animals during the festival of Gadhimai Mela. Actress Brigitte Bardot wants the inhumane practice stopped. More than 12,000 police agents are mobilised for the occasion.

During the event, half a million animals will be slaughtered. More than a million Hindu pilgrims are expected to gather for the occasion on 25 November. Nepali authorities have deployed more than 12,000 police officers.

Gadhimai Mela is one of the most important festivities on the Hindu calendar and the largest sacrificial happening in the world. It usually lasts a week, ending on the third Friday of November.

During the celebrations, the faithful sacrifice animals like buffaloes, sheep and chickens in honour of the god Gadhimai. According to Hindu belief, such offerings reduce the god's anger, and bring people luck and prosperity.

However, Bara district is also a major Buddhist pilgrimage site. This is where Ram Bahadur Bomjan, also known as the "Buddha boy", meditates year round.

At present, hundreds of Buddhists and activists are praying with him to stop the animal sacrifice.

"The killing of animals in the name of sacrifice is the most serious crime. So it must be stopped immediately," said Rinpoche Sange Rangjung, a Buddhist monk and protest leader. "In no religion are animal sacrifices prescribed".

Demonstrators, who are backed by French actress and animal rights activist Brigitte Bardot, are calling on the Nepali government to legislate in the matter to ban the practice in the future.

Watch the NOVA show The Lost Tribes of Israel to see how many tribes in Africa claim to be from the PRIESTLY LINEAGE OF AARON. The show goes on to claim that the Lost Tribes were attributed to Ethiopia, Japan and INDIA. Well, the links above and below are a pretty visual indication that there is a connection between the Yahuvah/Brahma Blood Cults.

The Gadhimai Mela, celebrated every five years, can be traced back to the mid-eighteenth century when a Tharu named Bhagwan Chaudhary had a vision of the goddess while imprisoned in Makwanpur Fort. Today, the Gadhimai Mela is among the largest of its kind anywhere in the world.

Funny, how I arrived independently at the same conclusions that scholars did that the world's religions were harmonized and homogenized to the Qaballa at least around 300 years ago...
(mid 18th century for those of you who HATE that term as much as I do is around 1750 AD)

Superstition or no, the millions of pilgrims streaming through the rural backwaters of Bara are unequivocal testimony to both the popularity of the Mela and the unfulfilled desires of those willing to sacrifice to the goddess. Hundreds of organisations have pitched in to help accommodate under makeshift tarpaulins those who have made the trip to Bariyapur. Moti Lal Kusuwa is well aware of the immense significance of the Gadhimai Mela, and welcomes all comers, even those who would dearly love to curtail the butchery it has become renowned for.

"They are welcome to speak out against the sacrifices," he says, before continuing with an air of conviction. "But they should not and will not be able to stop the sacrifice from taking place, because it is not us who have asked for it, it is Gadhimai Devi who has done so."

Unfulfilled DESIRE. The Demon, when summoned asks, "What do you WANT?" The Buddha said, "Desire is the source of all suffering."

But here's the best folks – you can't stop the sacrifice "because it is not us who have asked for it, it is THE DEVI MADE ME DO IT!"

Christians want me to be fair and not just pick on their blood cult, because after all, they are the well-meaning good guys of all of this Hemoglobin Helter Skelter. It really doesn't need mentioning that the Sun Serpent Cults of the Aztecs/Mayans that are nothing but a WORD FOR WORD mirror of the Qaballa are just the same TV series repackaged with a new name, theme song and ensemble cast.

Ya'll know how much I avoid WIKI

But this is a very densely packed summary of just who was doing what to whom with references you can verify for yourselves.

Of particular note is the Islamic observation:

“Pagans were deluded by their Deities to kill their own children.” Surah 6 ayah 140

How insightful. Paganism is just a cover-word for the Lilith Cult of the Moon Goddess. Killing their own children... isn't that what we see when there is a choice between following The Law and vaccinating your kids? Isn't killing your own children what Abram was all about? Don't forget there were 4 versions of the legend. Isn't killing your own children EXACTLY what the YHVH did when he sent his own son to Ea-rth to be murdered by proxy?

The purpose of this different format of saying the same thing is to break through the fog that you have been handed a couple of rotten oranges. You might just accept that life hands you rotten oranges and you take what you get. Others might rail at the idea that they got rotten oranges and go looking for an alternative until they find the fellow that sells them fuzzy green and white citrus fruit. Still rotten oranges but just a different name. Others might go out of their way for yet another alternative to be sold or exchange their rotten oranges or fuzzy green and white citrus for the fermented admixture of red and yellow spectra fruit with a tart spirit.

Same crap.

Different era.

Rotten oranges are ALWAYS rotten oranges.

And folks, NOTHING rhymes with the word: Orange.
