

Sources

Hi Everybody,

Someone asked me about sources of my material. I try to include them in running commentary or at the end as much as possible. There is a lot of information, however, that I have not released and will not release for two specific reasons:

1) The History of the world (as legend has it) has been that of Man achieving the monumental task of Sisyphus pushing the stone up the mountain only to have it roll back down again. The Tower of Babel was built because all of the nations of the world were of one mind/language and there was nothing that they could not accomplish so God said Let US go down and confuse them. The Great Library at Alexandria Egypt was said to be one of the greatest repositories of human knowledge of its time with commerce and study from all over the globe until supposedly the Vatican had it burnt. There is a PBS documentary on Archimedes that says he might have figured out calculus centuries before Newton but his books were lost and only one copy of some of his work is owned by someone in Jerusalem. There is a wavelike ebb and flow of Man just getting close to understanding then being pressed back down into the mud to start all over again like a caveman.

When I was doing research in a Public Library I was being followed for a week by security. I was reading one particular book in sections and it would get reshelved: Prometheans in the Lab: chemistry and the making of the modern world, by Sharon McGrayne, 2001, ISBN 0071350071. One day, the book was MISSING FROM SHELF. I went to the librarian to ask for help relocating it and she looked into her administrative database and said that it did not exist, in fact they had never had the book. I asked her to kindly follow me to the public terminal where I had already pulled it up with its call number and shelf location IN THEIR LIBRARY and told her that I HAD BEEN READING IT FOR A WEEK.

That's odd...

Regarding the Black Magick stuff, many of the books that are essential to cracking the code were listed at University Libraries but were sanitized. Missing from Shelf. If I were to reveal the names of some of the material I am currently working on they too might disappear. This is not a deflection on my part. It is also not a bad thing. Given the basic concepts and keywords you can verify this data for yourselves independently using alternative sources and then we can see if my facts and assertions are valid. I welcome criticism. You will have to unplug from the Internet, however, to do this properly. Primary Source material in First Edition is the most useful. None of us will be going to the British Museum with wet clay tablets and a spare chicken foot to copy the cuneiform, so find early translations of Sumerian Tablets. Read a bit. Typically one will 'feel' right over another translation. The idea is to get an overview of what shaped our entire global civilization. There is not a single Action Adventure movie produced by Hollywood that isn't a carbon copy of The Epic of Gilgamesh. There are two eras that seem to have significance. The 1000-1500s appears to have the best material on The Dark Arts but it harder to access. Then it seems that they had an Oh, $&#^! moment when they realized they were printing too many secrets. There is a lot of good material from the 1700s but you have to read it with a jaded eye that they might be giving the mix of 90% truth 10% lie that Dr. Carley says disinformers use. This is why I don't get hung up on the Good Jew/Bad Jew or all Roman Catholics are bad thing. We need to synthesize the data from its raw components to something that is useful to outsiders. Chris Carter of The X-Files had an episode header: All Lies Lead To The Truth. Some of the most vitriolic Roman Catholic-hating websites had one tiny piece of material that finished MAJOR parts of a puzzle I am working on, yet their conclusion was so far off from the core idea that if I was caught up in prejudice I would have completely missed the point. You have to go way back into real literature and the Internet is nothing like a real book. Wikipedia is open source where you can write something scholarly one day and the next day some teenager has completely rewritten history for you.

2) If you get your own references, whether they confirm or deny my work – you own it. You worked for it and it is now a subsidiary reference to confirm The Truth. It doesn't matter what I say or think, The Truth is the only thing that matters. The more we can reveal the Truth from multiple sources the better and it is harder for them to sanitize our trail as we go.

When you read your material keep in mind that if you knew what a Masonic Hand Sign was it would stick out like Neon Sign wherever you see it used in public. Old texts have so much encoded in them that they are indeed Neon Signs for the initiates but just random noise to us on the outside. If you keep in mind that the Alchemical symbols for the elements are common with the Astrological signs for the planets and they are the same figures used in Wicca, Qabala, Runic and Keltic writing then you will feel less daunted that there are 6 secret things that you have to decode since it is all the same stuff recycled. Keywords lead to patterns. You just need to know the difference in the pattern of a tiger's coat from the tall grass to be able to see what is hidden.

Some of you are extremely deep thinkers from what you have written to me. The only contribution I hope I can make to your private work is that the Master Template Overlay is always the same with the ILU AMON ATYS (Illuminati). Translation: everything they do is Cookie Cutter. When you read the Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion and then read Silent Weapons for Quiet Wars (Technical Manual 7905.1) then you can see that they have an effective but limited playbook. Yes, it seems daunting but they had 6000 years to refine it and you have already cracked the code in a short period of time. Never mistake predatory cunning for intelligence.

Here are some useful tools for pattern recognition:

Origin of the word: OBEY (?)

<http://www.angelfire.com/electronic/awakening101/obeah2.html>

When you read down you will find that the Greeks REMOVED THE 13TH ZODIAC.

This is the first time I ever heard that and since it is serpentine in nature I thought it was significant. Of what? I don't know I just found this site tumbling down the Rabbit Hole. Isn't it funny that the All-Powerful Magickal rites of Obeah seem like our word: Obey, which is to say that if we didn't OBEY the false Masters then they would have NO POWER OVER US!

Tree of Souls, the Mythology of Judaism, 2004, Howard Schwartz, ISBN 0195086791
I highly recommend this book for those of you who felt that the compilation of The Bible was a bit too trite.

The Mythology of the Aztec and Maya, Charles Phillips, 2006

The Bible The Devil's Book, Jos Rogiers, 2002, ISBN 1931633800

This is an IMPORTANT LESSON IN COMMUNIST PROPOGANDA!!!!!!!!!!

<http://www.hermes-press.com/brainwash1.htm>

I am not saying that Jos is a communist. Reference Norman Livergood's ASTOUNDING WORK ON PAVLOV'S SECOND EXPERIMENT and his description of communist propaganda where a statement is made then contradicted to keep you off balance in what he calls on his website Paradoxical Psychological Manipulation. The Zionist preacher John Hagee is a MASTER at this. I have one of his sermons and I couldn't keep up with the statement/reversals that he wove into a short 12 minutes. It was an art form.

I am saying that although Jos Rogier gives accurate historical and moral criticism to The Bible he offers an alternative that is a Paradox. He calls for everyone to return to the PAGAN Religions of their European ancestors. ALL of my work points to the PAGAN (another word-deflection) as being Witchcraft – the Lilith Cult. This is the MOTHER of all of the grief that we are under. So he is simply asking you to switch genders from the SUN GOD worship of The Bible to MOON GODDESS worship.

In sending you to material like this and The Matrix and The Constitution, you will be able to see firsthand that although parts of a thesis might seem reasonable that the ultimate conclusion of what is to be done after the data is assimilated makes all of the difference. Trading one Blood Cult for another is what I call The Sumerian Funnel. You are given a choice of being shot in the chest with a gun or stabbed in the back with a rusty knife.

It is not a choice.

On Livergood's site when you understand Pavlov's SECOND EXPERIMENT then you know how Jesus is used as a Control Word. All that George Bush had to say was "Jesus" and whether the election was rigged or not he got that vote. The fact that he said, "I believe in Christ" during the debate with fellow Bonesman Kerry, with a look on his face like he had the worst constipation ever and was made to say it didn't matter. He said the Magick Word. The re-conditioning is based on TRAUMA. They used 9-11 as a hammer to beat people into the Patriot Act. The Trauma of the event and the trauma of having it re-enforced over and over again in the media caused people to passively let their rights be taken away. Since Jesus died FOR YOUR SINS the trauma of what you made him do is relived EVERY TIME HIS NAME IS EVOKED, so whatever follows that trigger mechanism makes you susceptible to the new conditioning.

I hope this single reference:

will give you the awareness you need to liberate yourselves totally from Mind Control.

Be Well. Stay Safe.
