CLUELESS AND DANGEROUS WHITE COATS

On my show on 10/5/13 (archive available at http://thelightofdayradioshow.com/archives/RBN-BACKUP/Oct-2013/WAA\_10-05-13.mp3 ), I discussed how Obamacare forces big pharma poisons while denying therapies which actually work to reverse disease (like homeopathy, herbs, acupuncture, etc.) On this show I discussed a new autistic client of mine, who is a child of an internal medicine doctor. It is a frightening example of how clueless the medical doctors of today really are...and an indication of the "health care" Americans can expect with their forced Obamacare. CONSIDER YOURSELVES WARNED.

This is what I wrote to the mother, who had been encouraged by relatives for months to get a consult from me for her son, but Dr. Daddy refused. Finally she told him she was going to do so whether he approved or not. I always take a very detailed history for my clients, and I was horrified as I read the history form submitted for this 5 year old autistic child. Their entire family has been damaged by mediSIN. Obviously the older brother is also vaccine damaged, which is why he has speech delay. Mom reported taking Metformin during pregnancy, a drug given for Type 2 diabetes (which is insulin RESISTANCE, not insufficiency). As I am seeing more and more, injectible insulin is being given to people who are resistant to insulin, but have plenty produced. What this injected insulin does is cause a negative feedback on the pancreas, leading to decreased production of insulin by the pancreas. Not only does this create a customer of big pharma for life, but it is common for anti-insulin antibodies to be created, leading to attack of not only the injected insulin, but the patient's own insulin as well. Since this was happening while Mom was pregnant with my new client, his pancreas was likely affected as well.

This child received 43 vaccines before Mom finally stopped them, a MASSIVE assault (note that DTP is 3 vaccines as is MMR when you are counting them up). This is one of the highest number I have seen in such a young child, not to mention the flu vaccine he received as a fetus.

One of the most disturbing things in this child's history was his diet, which consists of Cheeze its, Ritz crackers, Gold fish, Cool Ranch Doritos, Lays potato chips, Pringles, cheese crackers, chicken nuggets, pizza and Capri Sun. Therefore, he is getting essentially NO NUTRIENTS from his diet, but rather preservatives, food dyes, GMO and food additives (especially MSG). This is why he is mouthing non-food items...he is STARVING. This condition is called PICA, where children eat paint chips, dirt, all kinds of things with this condition because their bodies are looking for the nutrients they need. Frankly, I was shocked that Dr Daddy did not recognize what is going on with his own child. But then medical doctors are taught almost nothing about nutrition; when I was in medical school, we received 10 hours of nutrition disinformation (such as that vitamins give expensive urine), and 2 years of pharmacology.

The only "treatment" they had him on was ABA (Applied behavioral analysis), which is worthless; trying to train the normal areas of the brain to do what the demyelinated areas no longer can. Instead, my protocol will heal the damaged areas of his brain.

As expected, he was given PRESCRIPTION Polyvisol vitamins - see <http://www.funnyshadeofgreen.com/2012/10/whats-in-enfamil-poly-vi-sol.html> . "Other ingredients" in this compound include glycerin, ARTIFICIAL FLAVOR & CARAMEL, & polysorbate 80. I suggested to this Mom that I would stop this, and instead go to her local health food store and find a good children's multivitamin/mineral supplement with none of this crap.

The child was also on prescription Miralax – (go to <http://www.webmd.com/drugs/drug-17116-Miralax+Oral.aspx?drugid=17116&drugname=Miralax+Oral> ), a drug for constipation which she was giving to him DAILY. This will create a situation where he can't have a bowel movement without it. THE REASON HE IS CONSTIPATED IS BECAUSE HE IS NOT DRINKING ENOUGH WATER! The colon's job is to extract water out of the stool, and when there is not enough water in the stools, the colon extracts too much water and creates hard pellets which are difficult to eliminate. Once again, something Dr Daddy should know. Thus, I told her that if I were her, I would wean him off this while increasing his water consumption.

This case is an excellent example of how incompetent and brain dead medical doctors are. I am sure Dr Daddy loves his son, but is so brainwashed by big pharma that he can't see what is going on before his own eyes. I look forward to him watching his son come back to him with my "quackery"; who knows, he may then decide to take the course I give others to learn how to do my protocol, which can reverse all disease in internal medicine.

Then I received an e-mail from a supporter who informed me of being fired by her pediatrician for refusing to vaccinate:

"Hi Dr. Carley,

I just wanted to email you about my my experience at my son's pediatric office for a yearly check up on Friday 10-4-13. I was taken aback by the doctors decision to not see my son as a patient anymore due to my husband's and my decision not to vaccinate our son. The doctor was very low key during the appt. and nice. She had with her an up and coming new female doctor shadowing her that day. The main female doctor that did the exam said that my son was doing great and was on the 95% for height and weight. Also passed his hearing and eye exam and short test for cognitive development.

All went well during the appt. until she asked what we were going to do about vaccinations at this time. I said that my husband and I chose to not vaccinate as my son has not been vaccinated at all since he was born. She obviously reviewed the chart before she entered the room b/c she had a manilla envelope with standard pamphlets and info regarding how safe vaccinations are and that we can schedule an appt. with the main doctor who is Quote "The Guru" on vaccinations and that he could help us with any questions we had about our concerns with vaccinations by scheduling a "Vaccine Consultation Appt." with this guru doctor who is handling all the questions with parents who refuse vaccinations."

"She said all children should be vaccinated to root out the disease and by not vaccinating this perpetuates the disease to still spread. But yet she said that these viruses mutate all the time and new vaccines need to be updated and that is why some children still get the disease. Really!?

So vaccinations are the magic bullet. Well I kept my mouth shut to a point and so did she as we both probably didn't want to go there on our own soap boxes. I was polite and preceded to check out. She did say they would give me a 90 day grace period to make a decision to agree to their terms of vaccinations and to catch up on all shots needed to allow my son back in as a patient. I am like whatever!!! I left that office and did not look back!!

Ok, with all of this said, I finally experienced discrimination first hand for my choices and decisions regarding on raising my child. Yes, I knew this day would come but you hope deep down that its not true that our freedom is really being taken away from us! Some how deep down in my gut I believe I know my child has been fortunate to not have had vaccinations and that his immune system has been allowed to naturally build itself up to his benefit, since he has not been vaccinated. Both of my babysitters were always so amazed how my son never got sick when all the other kids came down with flu, stomach virus, throwing up, strep throat, high fevers, etc. They just always expressed to me how great an immune system he has like they have never seen before. My son has only seen the doctor for yearly checks up since he was 12 mos old. He has never been on antibiotics either. He has endurance that lasts forever and goes all day until late night for bed.

So with all of that I consulted with a friend of mine who I could trust in this matter of my son not being vaccinated, to direct me to a physician who will not penalize us for my son not being vaccinated. Well, I hope that is true and will be calling to make an appt for the future.

The school my son goes to is a christian school and they were fine with my son attending their school, as long as, I signed the immunization exemption form from Ohio along with his doctor's signature on their yearly check up form stating he was seen by a physician for the school year.

I only wanted to email you my experience so you can add this documentation to your archives of discrimination of non vaccinated children who are denied access to receive medical care unless you comply with their own protocols of what they say is "in the best interest of your child". Like many of my fellow friends and family members who have heard some of the truths about this matter but choose to still believe the BS and state that your kid will be denied access to public school if you don't do as they say! Oh well I feel like a lone wolf out here with my belief system but I have no regrets as I have a very healthy boy with a strong immune system.

Thanks again for educating and exposing the lies to the public about the hidden agendas of the medi-sin community!

Sincerely,
C F

What I suggested to this Mom was:

1. Stop using the word beLIEve when you talk about bioweapon vaccines. Say you KNOW what the dangers are, as you have done your homework; since using the word beLIEve implies that those who do no research have a right to impose their ignorance on others.

2. Stop going to these medical devils! Find a naturopath to fill out the forms the school uses as a way to try to force parents to go to the pediatricians who will push their bioweapon vaccines.
3. Print out the “Physicians’ Warranty of Vaccine Safety” available at <http://www.reversingvaccineinduceddiseases.com/files/3638448/uploaded/Physicians-Warranty-of-Vaccine-Safety.pdf> . Give this to the vaccinator, and see how fast they run to the bathroom.

CF attached a number of the propaganda pamphlets they gave her in that manila envelope, to try to convince her that her instincts and research were wrong. Outright LIES for which these inoculation pushers should be held accountable.

This Mom has stood in the gap to protect her child from these disease causing monsters.....WILL YOU?
